

Wedding Ceremony

Pauline Marks, Bernard Kent Wed Monday at St. Joseph's

A mid-summer ceremony in St. Joseph's Church at 11:30 Monday morning August 5, united in marriage Pauline Mary Marks and Bernard Daniel Kent. Rev. V. J. Morgan officiated at the double ring ceremony in a setting of large white flowers and ferns.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rita Kennedy, Mill St., Acton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kent of Georgetown. He has recently come from Newfoundland and is service manager of the Canadian Tire store in Brampton. The couple, after a honeymoon trip to Florida, will live in Brampton.

Mrs. Kent, the groom's mother, wore pale blue silk with a corsage of white lily carnations. The couple left on a motor trip to Florida, and for travelling, the bride wore a coral suit with white accessories and a corsage of white stephanotis and pinocchio mums.

Before the wedding, the bride was honored at several gatherings, when she received a host of lovely gifts. Mrs. Rita Kennedy, Georgetown, held a cup and saucer shower. Members of her graduating class attended a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Joanne Lester, Guelph. Miss Acton, was hostess for a miscellaneous shower and fellow employees at Orinda Engines, Milton, had a shower. Mrs. H. Westphal, Weston, held another shower at her home.

ATTRACTIVE BRIDE the former Pauline Marks was married Saturday in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church to Bernard David Kent. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Marks, Acton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kent of Georgetown.

Traditional Gown
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a bouffant-skirted full-length gown of white chiffon and organza. A white beaded crown held her shoulder-length veil and the carried a bouquet of red roses with white stephanotis and pinocchio mums.

Her three attendants, in summery pale blue and lemon yellow, were Miss Susan Wilson of Acton as maid of honor and Miss Lorraine Marks, her sister, of Acton, and Miss Lillian Kent, Georgetown, as bridesmaids.

Miss Wilson wore pale blue chiffon organza and carried white chasas mums with yellow pinocchio mums. The bridesmaids wore yellow and carried white chasas mums and pale blue pinocchio mums.

Their gowns had brief sleeves and billowing skirts and they wore matching accessories including matching pillboxes with net.

Twin Brother
The groomsmen were Peter Marks, the twin brother of the bride, and the ushers were Eric Stone and Gus Kent.

Miss Irene McMillan played the organ and Mrs. R. Arhic sang Ave Maria, On This Day and O Lord, I am not Worthy.

Wedding Dinner
A wedding dinner was served in the church hall to guests from Oakville, Toronto, Montreal, Georgetown, Weston, Acton, Winnipeg and Newfoundland. Mrs. Marks wore a scroll design surah dress with accessories in coffee shade and a corsage of Tallman roses.

FORMER MAYOR G. V. Barbeau was honored by employees at the A. P. Green Fire Brick Co. Wednesday morning when he received a wallet and cuff link set. Former plant manager at the A. P. Green plant in Acton, he is now production manager of all plants in Canada. The Barbeau family moved to their new home in Toronto two weeks ago. The presentation was made on behalf of the employees by Albert Irwin. Mr. Barbeau also presented Art Ford with his 10-year service pin.

OBITUARY

Earl Henry Vincent Buried at Fairview
Funeral service was held in Toronto at the Brown Bros. Chapel on Wednesday, July 31, for Earl Henry Vincent of 188 Enmerdale Road, Toronto, who died on July 28. He had been a patient in Wellesley Convalescent Hospital. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery, Acton.

Rev. Joseph A. Koffend, Th. D. of Fairbank Presbyterian Church, conducted the services in Toronto and here. Pallbearers were Orwell Johnston, Acton; Gordon Johnston, Hamilton; Howard Hornshy, William Stephenson and William Jeffries, Toronto.

Mr. Vincent, a printer, was born in Acton, son of George Vincent and Julie Townsend Vincent. He attended public and high schools here.

In Acton, on December 12, 1923, he and Bessie MacDonald were married. After living in Chatham and Acton, they moved to Toronto 24 years ago, but he was a frequent visitor back to Acton.

Surviving as well as his wife are a son, William Vincent, Scarborough and a daughter (Barbara) Mrs. G. Strachan, Toronto.

Mr. Vincent learned the printing trade at the Acton Free Press under the late H. P. Moore. He was active in the United Church when he lived here.

Picnic by Lake For Fair Board

Nearly 50 members of both the men's and ladies' divisions of Acton Fall Fair Board gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Macdonald, 4th Line, last Thursday to enjoy a picnic. Tables were set by the lake and all enjoyed a delicious repast prepared by the ladies.

A short business session was conducted by Mr. Calvin Aitken, the president. Some of the members enjoyed boating on the lake, others played horseshoes, and many visited.

It was a pleasant evening for everyone, and all expressed their thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald for their cordial hospitality.

Fair Competition For Jams, Jellies
Making jams and jellies these days, ladies!

Don't forget to set aside a jar of each kind for the annual jam and jelly contest at Acton Fair, sponsored by the Free Press.

Rules call for three pints, one in a group including strawberry, raspberry or plum jam, one pint in a group including apple, red currant or grape jelly, and one pint in a group including peach marmalade or lemon, orange and grapefruit marmalade. First prize is a trophy and $10 cash, second prize $5, third prize $3 and fourth prize $2.

MP Harley Heads House Committee

Dr. Harry Harley, Halton MP, was unanimously elected as chairman of the House of Commons special committee on drugs and pesticides, Thursday.

Dr. Harley, one of 24 on the committee, said he would introduce the committee's first report tomorrow (Friday). Dr. Harley is in his second term in office as Halton's representative.

The committee was formed to deal with problems involving pesticides, insecticides and other noxious matter.

—There was an interesting feature story on the Bruce Trail in the Toronto Telegram last week. The walking trail is open now from Kelsa to Speyside.

—Some driveways are being paved.

Fair Competition For Jams, Jellies
Making jams and jellies these days, ladies!

Don't forget to set aside a jar of each kind for the annual jam and jelly contest at Acton Fair, sponsored by the Free Press.

Rules call for three pints, one in a group including strawberry, raspberry or plum jam, one pint in a group including apple, red currant or grape jelly, and one pint in a group including peach marmalade or lemon, orange and grapefruit marmalade. First prize is a trophy and $10 cash, second prize $5, third prize $3 and fourth prize $2.

LOOK AT THE "GOODWILL" USED CARS WE SELL

THEY'RE BACKED BY SERVICE

TRADE NOW AT

Milton Motor Sales Ltd.

388 Main St. Milton

NEW 1963 STERLING

BY Smith-Corona

New Low Price

FEATURING

- FULL OFFICE-SIZE KEYBOARD With 88 characters and all the professional typewriter controls. Keyboard area is same height, width and depth as standard office typewriters.
- SMART CARRYING CASE styled like fine luggage
- PERSONAL TOUCH SELECTOR puts you in firm control gives you typing of printing-press quality
- HIGH-SPEED KEY-SET TABULATOR Sets and clears Tab-Stops instantly — right from the keyboard — a real big typewriter convenience.
- MANY TYPE STYLES both pica and elite available
- HANDSOME NEW COLORS grey, blue and green
- QUICK-SET MARGINS accurate — a real time saver
- NEW MAR-PROOF FINISH for beauty and toughness

MORE PEOPLE BUY SMITH-CORONA THAN ANY OTHER MAKE

EXTRA! BUY NOW and GET ...

10 Day Touch-Typing Course on LP Records

Only $3.95 with any Smith-Corona Portable

($13.95 WHEN PURCHASED ALONE.)

COME IN TODAY FOR DEMONSTRATION — BUDGET TERMS AVAILABLE

DILLS STATIONERY

54 MILL ST. ACTON, ONT. 853-8888

W.A. Members Take City Tour

We regret Mr. Sam Gibby and Mr. Harold McMenemy are both in hospital in Georgetown. We hope for better health for both soon.

Fifteen W.A. ladies enjoyed a trip to Kitchener last week, where they toured Weston's Bakeries and later had a smorgasbord dinner.

The Pattersons attended the Echman - Sinclair wedding at Welland on Saturday, when their niece, Miss Donna Sinclair of Welland was united in marriage to Mr. Les Echman of Bladell, N.Y.

Congratulations to all those upper school students who received marks recently.

Mr. David Roughley left on Friday for a trip to the west coast.

Holidaying
Those away include: Mr. and Mrs. John Glynn have returned from motor trip to visit relatives in Buckingham, West Virginia.

Mr. Ken McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff McDonald, David and Danny, motored to Harland, N.B., to visit her relatives.

Margaret and Karen Vansickler visited their grandparents in Toronto recently.

The John Vandermeers have returned from holidays at Head Lake.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Bourne enjoyed a motor trip through the Bruce Peninsula.

Mrs. Sanford spent her holidays at her cottage at Waubesa.

Mrs. Langille and Miss K. La bare motored to Nova Scotia for holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Herrington and little son holidayed at Grand Bend.

Visitors: Miss Beverley Tanino of Toronto with the Geary girls, Linda Chau of Bronte with her aunt, Mrs. Harold Brown.

Mrs. Ethel Thompson of Toronto with Mrs. Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blakeh and family of Marmora with the Newtons, Rusdells.

Mr. Joe Halovanic and daughter Mary, Scarborough with the Kleas on Monday.

Mayor, Son
On Sunday morning at St. Alban's Church Mayor Les Dubey read the lessons and his son Laurence, a theology student, preached the sermon in the absence of the rector.

—There's a large four-storey apartment building in Milton soon.

Wedding, Ball Games, Trips Church Services of Interest

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Durose (nee Edith Raylor) on the occasion of their wedding in United Church Sunday.

With Rev. R. R. Connor of the United Church on his vacation during August, Rev. George Albert Moore of Port Dover conducted service Sunday morning. His many friends were glad to see him again.

From Burlington
In the absence of Mr. Ray Wiseman, pastor of Emmanuel Bible Church, Mr. W. T. Humphries of Guelph conducted service Sunday evening. For the service a group of young people from Burlington assisted with congregational singing in leading a duet and a vocal selection. Mr. Bralle also of Burlington gave the address. He is also the brother of Mr. Brille of Eden Mills. Their ministry was much appreciated and hopes are entertained that they will be back again.

Mr. Lawrence Kingwell is making alterations to the front of his barber shop which will add to the improvement of the premises.

The flower bed in front of the cenotaph presents a welcome sight at the present time.

A fine bed of petunias in mixed colors is on view in front of Barlow's Restaurant along the highway.

Trip North
Richard Harris returned home Friday after his brief trip to Mattheson in Northern Ontario. During his stay with nephew and niece Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harris, he enjoyed motor trips to Timmins, through Pucupuc and Schumacher, also east to ward Quebec border, and on the way there and return, passed the St. John's-Manville Asbestos mine some 12 miles east of Mattheson.

Home Team Lost
In the final ball games between Dundas and Rockwood Monday evening, the home team lost by a narrow margin.

OBITUARY
Mrs. F. Beer Was Native of Hungary
A former Acton resident, Mrs. Emily Beer was buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown, on July 27, following funeral service at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home there.

A native of Hungary, she was a sister-in-law of the late Dr. Paul Beer, Her husband, Francis, was killed in an auto accident some years ago near his brother's home at R. R. 1, Georgetown.

She later lived in Midland and was a Toronto resident at the time of her death in Toronto General Hospital.

She leaves three children, Mrs. H. (Jud) Stephenson and Anne Beer of Toronto and Andrew of Sussex, England, and five grand children.

Rev. John McMullin of St. George's Anglican Church conducted the funeral service.

—Several tree stumps have been removed, some of them on the Robert Little school grounds.

OBITUARY
Husband Owned Gregory Theatre

Widow of the former owner of Acton's Gregory theatre, Mrs. Russell L. Gregory died suddenly at her home in Oakville on Sunday, August 4. She was the former Sarah Alice Tweedale. Their one son, Les, was killed in a plane crash.

Funeral service was held in Oakville Wednesday with interment in Oakville cemetery.

The Rainbow Room now occupies the Gregory theatre premises.

Robt. R. Hamilton Fred. A. Hoffman

OPTOMETRISTS

(Formerly E. P. Heald)

PHONE GUELPH TA 4-2071

58 St. George's Square

Harvey Laverty Heating

PLUMBING AND EAVESTROUGHING

REPAIRS TO ALL MAKES OF FURNACES

CUSTOM SHEET METAL WORK

OIL AND GAS FURNACE INSTALLATIONS

CONVERSION BURNERS

SALES AND SERVICE

MAIN STREET N. ROCKWOOD

24 Hour Service

PHONE 856-9934 ROCKWOOD

Now Open MONDAY

FOR YOUR SHOPPING PLEASURE

Beginning Monday, August 5th, our store will remain open from Monday to Saturday.

NO NEED TO STOCK UP FOR THE LONG, LONG WEEKEND

Buy Normally Buy Fresh

Our Staff Continues to Enjoy their Day-Off per Week

ACTON RED & WHITE STORE

Queen St. E. ACTON Phone 853-0990

Quality B-A Products

SAVE YOU MONEY

- Gasolines
- Motor Oils
- Diesel Fuel
- Fuel Oils
- Stove Oils
- Oil Burner
- Finance Plan
- 5 Years to Pay
- Small Carrying Charges
- Dependable Service

THOMPSON FUELS LTD.

ACTON

PHONE 853-2370 AFTER HOURS 853-2174