Summer Vows

Two School Teachers Marry At Knox, Acton, on Saturday

Two school teachers were married in a summer ceremony at Knox Presbyterian church, Acton, when Shirley (Sobe) Mason became the bride of James William Zehr. The Rev. A. H. McKenzie officiated at the double ring ceremony in a setting of pink and white gladioli at four o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

Both are employed by the Nassetagawa school board. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Douglas Mason, 68 Lake Ave., Acton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Zehr, 80 Mill St., Kitchener. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and net over silk tulle. The fitted lace bodice featured a ruffled neckline and long-sleeved pointed sleeves. The bouffant net skirt was enhanced by an over-skirt of scalloped lace caught up at the sides with tiny tulle bows. Appliques of matching lace were scattered on the skirt and iridescent sequins and pearls edged the neckline. A headdress of silk roses and net leaves held her four-tiered friend; and Mrs. Donald Pittel, Kitchener, the groom's sister.

The flower girl was the bride's cousin, Miss Tracey Lynn Auliffe of Guelph.

Their gowns were waltz-length, the sleeveless bodices and bouffant skirts fashioned of white tulle decorated with self bows at the waist. They carried cascades of pink carnations with a shower of ribbons. The senior attendants had matching pink crystal earrings, while the flower girl wore a brooch.

Their wedding ring hats were of the same material as the dresses, decorated with white veiling. James Fleming of Toronto was groomsmen and the ushers were Wayne Mason, Robert Zehr, Ross Auliffe and Paul Zehr.

E. A. Hanson played the organ and Mrs. Douglas Vickery sang during the service. The Lord's Prayer and O Perfect Love.

Supper, Dance

Supper was served after the ceremony in Church Hill United Church and in the evening at the Col. John McCrae Building in Guelph, there was a dance. There were many guests from Kitchener, Guelph, London, Hespeler, Toronto, Dundas, Smithville, Campbellville, Hamilton, Kitchener, Ancaster and Acton.

The bride's mother wore a blue jacketed linen sheath with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother wore a beige lace sheath with a matching chiffon coat, beige accessories and bronze mums.

Live at Campbellville The couple left on a trip to the Maritime provinces and the New England States. The bride wore a blue, green and white dress and matching coat, with accessories and a corsage of red carnations. They will be making their home at R.R. 1, Campbellville.

The Reservoir on Churchill Road North is almost as pretty as a park with the new sand and landscaping.

Miss Sherrill Murray Honored at Showers

Friends and relations from Kitchener, Georgetown, and Acton, gathered at the home of Mrs. Tom Gordon, R.R. 2, Acton, on July 8th to honor Miss Sherrill Murray with a miscellaneous shower. Contests were held after which a delightful lunch was served by Mrs. Gordon assisted by Mrs. Bob Bruce, Mrs. Fred Gordon and Mrs. Bert Robertson.

On July 18, Miss Lorraine Richardson and Miss Kathy Norrish held a miscellaneous shower for Miss Murray at the Richardson home at 27 Campion Ave., Guelph. After opening many lovely gifts lunch was served by the hostesses.

Miss Sherrill Marshall entertained friends and schoolmates at a miscellaneous shower at her home, 210 Main St., Acton, on July 22. The bride-to-be received many lovely gifts. Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. Bob Marshall.

Bannockburn School was the scene of a very enjoyable evening July 25, when neighbours and friends from the surrounding district gathered to honour Miss Murray and Bruce Macpherson on their approaching marriage.

A short program was enjoyed by all; after which Sherrill and Bruce were presented with many useful and beautiful gifts. Lunch brought the evening to a close.

Good-Bye, Jim

At the Rotary club meeting, Dave Manes spoke on the club's rules and regulations. Jim Ledger said goodbye before leaving for England that same evening.

Georgetown council agreed to buy the old post office there, but at this week's council meeting faced the delicate problem of how to pay for it. Renovations are estimated at $20,000 and the building cost $15,000.

Presentations, Tea Showers for Bride

There were several special gatherings before the marriage last Saturday at Acton of Shirley Mason and James Zehr.

On June 14, the teachers of Brookville school had a shower. Mrs. Eitel of Kitchener was hostess for a pantry shower June 22 and Mrs. Earl Brears, Acton, was hostess at a miscellaneous shower June 25. Mrs. Freeman of Brookville held a miscellaneous shower July 26 at Brookville and Mrs. Jackson had one at Ancaster August 1.

As well as showers there were presentations. Mrs. Schach of Kitchener was hostess to neighbors July 2 for a presentation and Mrs. Reid invited Acton neighbors for one June 27. Pupils of the classes of both the bride and groom had presentations on June 25 and relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. Wood, Campbellville, July 20.

There was a trousseau tea August 3 at the bride's home in Acton.

Trousseau Tea Held For Saturday Bride

Mrs. Harry Murray, R.R. 1, Acton, entertained 85 local and out-of-town guests on Sunday, Aug. 4 at a trousseau tea for her daughter, Miss Sherrill Murray whose marriage took place Saturday, August 10 in Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton.

The hostess was assisted by the bride-to-be and the groom's mother, Mrs. J. D. Macpherson of Milton, in receiving guests from Toronto, Elm, Campbellville, Bellwood, Guelph, Rockwood, Milton and Acton.

Wedding and shower gifts and the bride's trousseau were supervised by Miss Lorna Macpherson (the groom's sister) of Milton, Miss Sherrill Marshall of Acton and Miss Kathy Norrish and Miss Lorraine Richardson, both of Guelph.

Miss Carol Hanson, cousin of the bride and Miss Heather Stockwell, R.R. 1, Acton, served refreshments to afternoon and evening guests.
