Melody Howlett Honored At Miscellaneous Shower

On Tuesday evening the ladies of the Church of Christ Disciples held a miscellaneous shower for Melody Howlett, whose marriage to Rodney Stephens took place in the Church on Saturday.

The Sunday School room was decorated with streamers, balloons and pink balls.

Some amusing contests were entered, after which the bride-to-be was seated in front of a table laden with gifts. She was assisted in opening the parcels by Catherine Kingsbury and Mrs. Stan die Brown, sister of the groom.

Melody graciously expressed her thanks and the evening of delightful refreshments concluded a happy evening.

Misses Elizabeth Boston, Linda Freeman and Maudie assisted in preparing the evening's program.

Mr. Harris stated that often we try to write our own prayers and neglect to seek divine guidance and assistance. Some Christians are not hesitant to pray, but not all have a way.

Mr. William Stewart introduced the speaker and Brian Robertson had charge of the service. Mrs. W. Stewart will be the speaker and the speaker will be Mr. Makholm McLeod of Thorn Hill.

Mr. Charles Hamilton was host for the monthly meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship when 11 members and one guest were present.

Mrs. D. G. Robertson presided and Mrs. Duncan Kingsbury read the minutes and financial statement. Mrs. Brown-Jones gave the financial report for the month, showing a total of $40.00 raised at a recent lunch booth.

An invitation to attend a talk and banquet at Acton United Church was received but due to other commitments this could not be accepted.

Real estate was announced with a special of Scripture starting with the letter A.

Mrs. S. H. Hunter was in charge of the worship portion, reading Romans 12 as a base for her remarks.

A recent letter from Alice Purvis, R.N. and missionary in India telling of her work in the hospital at Malagan, was read by Mrs. John Alton.

A paper by Mrs. John McLeod, published in the paper, was read. It was both informative and interesting and left many good thoughts to ponder over.

Miss J. M. Tovey gave a brief history of the Women of the Bible, showing "Ruth" as her subject.

The business portion was presided over by Mrs. John McLeod, chairman of the service group.

Plans were discussed for the anniversary service on September 15 with a turkey supper, and the women's group was asked to contribute $5.00 to be purchased to add to the present supply.

CHURCH

Former Pastor, Rev. C. Beaton Back for Baptisms on Sunday

There was a good attendance at Church of Christ on Sunday at 11 a.m. to hear and greet Rev. C. Beaton, our former pastor when he conducted the baptismal service.

Three baptisms were performed by Rev. C. Beaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Freeman, David John Harold Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Turner and Thomas Albert Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cox. Mrs. Beaton and two children accompanied Mr. Beaton.

entertained about 40 friends and relatives on Saturday p.m. in honor of Mr. Olan Skeoch and Mrs. Mary Hughes, who will be married this week. After a few games an amusing mock wedding was performed with Ted Freeman as the minister, Shirley supplying music, Chris Peers as the groom, Doug Peers as the bride, Doug Peers as the bride's father and Eric Skeoch who objected loudly to the marriage.

Major and Alan were then seated in the decorated archway and showered with many lovely gifts for which they both expressed their thanks.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Freeman assisted by Mrs. A. Skeoch, Mrs. T. Freeman and Mrs. Peers. Guests were present from Toronto, Scarborough, Oakville, Guelph, Fergus, North Bay and Acton.
