

OBITUARY

Mrs. G. Spencer-Lee Passed Away Sept. 4
Funeral services were held in the Church of St. Alban the Martyr Saturday afternoon, September 7, for a former Acton resident, Mrs. George Spencer-Lee who passed away at her home, 606 Lakeshore Road West, Oakville, on Wednesday, September 4.

She had moved from Acton to Oakville with her husband, daughter Mrs. Kenneth Knox, Mr. Knox and their son Andrew two years ago. They had lived here eight years at 45 Bowler Ave.; the house had been demolished to make room for the new post office. The family came to Canada from England in 1953.

Ellnor Anne Spencer-Lee was born in Watford, England, and was married in 1915. She is survived by her husband, daughter Mrs. Knox, son Donald Spencer-Lee of Prescott, Ontario, and four grandchildren.

While in Acton she attended the Anglican Church and a former rector here, the Rev. Ralph Price of Fonthill, conducted the funeral service.

Interment was in Fairview Cemetery, Acton. Pallbearers were G. F. Leatherland, Dr. Frank G. Gales, Fred Salt, William Middleton, W. Mackay and K. Hardman.

Mrs. Spencer-Lee was interested in the affairs of the town while she lived here, and was at one time treasurer of the Duke of Devonshire Chapter of the I.O.D.E.

MOFFAT

Designate Missionary to Nigeria
Miss Shirley Dredge Receives Gifts

On Friday evening the designation to Overseas Service of Miss Shirley Dredge, by the Presbytery of Guelph, was held in Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. J. Schriel was in the pulpit for the first part of the service. The Rev. J. Schriel was in the charge of the moderator of Guelph Presbytery, The Rev. A. H. Vair, at the request of Ewart College, to set apart as a missionary of the Presbytery of Guelph in Canada, Miss Shirley Dredge who has completed all necessary training.

Miss Margaret Webster, principal of Ewart College, presented her with the deaconess pin. Mrs. A. S. Carr, president of the Women's Missionary Society, W.A. Council Executive, presented Miss Dredge with a beautiful Bible, and the Presbytery of Guelph with a book in the language she will use in Nigeria.

All Witnesses The sermon was preached by the Rev. S. Moore Gordon, D.D. of Guelph, a returned Missionary from Formosa. His text was taken from the 1st chapter of Acts and the 8th verse. He told how we should all be witnesses unto God and be fishers of men.

Misses Dorothy and Karen Dredge sang a beautiful duet during the service. They are nieces of Miss Shirley Dredge.

At the close of the service all joined in a social hour in the church school room, where the ladies of the church served lunch and several more presentations were made.

Read Address Rev. J. Schriel acted as chairman and called on Mrs. Donna Manes to read an address and present a watch from the congregation of Nassagaweya. Mr. John McPhail on behalf of St. David's Church, Campbellville, made a suitable speech and presented Miss Dredge with a cheque. Mrs. John Shepherd of Galt, president of the Guelph Presbytery also presented a cheque from the Presbytery and Mr. Douglas Parker of Campbellville presented a gift on behalf of the Young People of both congregations.

All express best wishes to Miss Dredge in her new work and for the prayers of the congregations to bless and sustain her as she goes to her new field to labor for our Master.

Miss Dredge is to leave Milton on Monday and hopes to arrive in Nigeria on Saturday.

Remember Her Miss Dredge thanked every one for the gifts and spoke of some things she will be expected to do and asked that the folks at home write good long letters to her.

Some of her classmates were present for the service; among them was Miss Gale Kay of Guelph who spoke a few words to the honored guest.

Travel Away Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Black and Jack are on a two week holiday to Nova Scotia.

Funeral Held The sympathy of the community is extended to the family of the late Herbert Auchter. Mr. Auchter was buried in Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church Cemetery last Monday.

Station Agent The Community was sorry to hear of the death of W. A. Fraser last Wednesday. He had been in poor health for some months and passed away on Wednesday morning. Mr. Fraser was the agent at Moffat for several years before joining the Air Force and after his return was agent for C.P.R. at Guelph Junction, holding that position as long as he was able to work.

The funeral service was held at the Rumley-Shoemaker Funeral Home on Friday, Sept. 6. Interment was in Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church Cemetery. The friends and neighbors extend their sympathy to the bereaved family.

127th Anniversary The regular anniversary of Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church is next Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:30 a.m. The Rev. E. Sayers of Colborne, will be the guest speaker. He is a former Nassagaweya man and attended Sunday school at the Presbyterian Church, when he was a boy.

The regular meeting of the Nassagaweya W.M.S. and Ladies Aid was held in the home of Mrs. F. Hathaway.

Mrs. Henderson was convener for the WMS and gave a paper on "The Church in Mainland China". After the regular business was finished Mrs. Hathaway with the assistance of Mrs. Lamb served a lovely lunch.

Mrs. J. Patti has returned home after attending the wedding of her niece at Bracebridge. Mr. Tom Moffat is reported to be improving in Oakville Hospital, but will be there for some time yet.

Mrs. J. Reynolds is entertaining her friends to a Tupperware party on Tuesday evening.

Urge Senior Members Help Junior 4-H'ers A meeting on Tuesday for the Senior 4-H members of South Wellington, was attended by 38 members. Following the 4-H pledge, Henry Stanley suggested that as well as assisting the club leaders, the senior members could help the junior members and promote 100% completion at Achievement Day.

"Decision" was the main topic of discussion. You, the individual, make hundreds of decisions each day, whether you are conscious of this or not. Most of these split second decisions are engendered by experience and common sense.

Gary Nelson discussed the two types of education and their importance. The two types are self education acquired by observing, reading, listening, and living with others; and institutional which included public and high school, colleges and universities.

Each member was to submit a list of criticisms of present 4-H work and suggested improvements.

The Duke of Devonshire chapter I.O.D.E. held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. Dean Leslie, Bower Ave., on September 10. The regent, Miss M. Mainprize, presided. Letters were read by the secretary, Mrs. G. Young, from the council, the fair board and the provincial services at home and aboard.

An article was read by educational secretary Mrs. Reed giving advice to the new college student and his parents on how to use to best advantage the time and talent in the new environment.

Members were asked to volunteer to tag on fair days.

Don Long, who attended the United Nations seminar at Waterloo College along with three other students from Acton high school, gave a most interesting account of the week pointing out that so much can be done to create interest and understanding of the United Nations and its day-to-day work by these clubs and studies in school.

Safety at Fair Acton Safety Council will have a float in the fair parade and a booth at the park. Chamber of Commerce members will assist in the booth.

50th Anniversary

Lady Directors Look Forward To Best Fair Ever This Year

Finalization of plans for the coming Acton Fall Fair was made by the members of the Lady Directors at their meeting last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Linham, Fifth Line.

Mrs. D. C. Matthews, the president, chaired the meeting with Mrs. R. Denny, secretary, reading the minutes of the previous meeting, and also giving a financial report.

Mrs. W. Wallie gave a comprehensive report on the parade and it is giving promise to be the "best ever". Mrs. Wm. Thompson reported that the three banners had been erected at the entrance to town by the local hydro men.

Two judges were named to look after the doll buggy, tricycle and bicycle classes. Tickets were reported to be selling well on the draw, and the articles were being placed in the Acton Home Furnishings window.

The antique display in the arena on Fair Day promises to be a very interesting one and Mrs. R. L. Davidson reported a nice list of articles that will be shown.

Protect Exhibits Mrs. G. S. Matthews reported on the arrangement of the exhibition in the arena, and also stated that the wire shields had been completed, and will be erected to protect the exhibits at the fair.

With many new features added to this fiftieth anniversary of Acton Fall Fair, and with the weatherman cooperating, no doubt this fair will be the best in the 50 years.

A dainty lunch was served by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Chamber of Commerce members and their guests spent last evening (Wednesday) together at the Mahawk raceway. Some of the large group enjoyed dinner together there. A race was named in honor of the Chamber and president Paul Nielsen presented a trophy to the winning driver.

Mrs. W. C. Jaray of Elmira, N.Y., and Mrs. W. C. Carey, Toronto, and their husbands and Mrs. Carney Jaray visited their brother, Mr. Alex Pringle and his wife for a day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton J. Brown, R.R. 1, Norval will be at home to their friends on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday, September 14 from 2:30 to 4 and 7 to 9:30 p.m. at their residence, "Brownhaven."

Mrs. Bert Henster of Dartmouth, Nova Scotia, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. David Gordon.

Miss Sheila Paul returned to her home at Shearwater, N.S., after detached duty at the C.M.E. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Park of Petrolia visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Landsborough Saturday and Sunday.

Six-year-old Miss Marion Frank has returned home from the Guelph General Hospital after an appendectomy. She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Frank.

There has been a slight change this week in the list of young girls who will present ribbons at the weekend after this. Twelve-year-old Miss Patricia Sweetman, Hornby, will hand out the ribbons to the winners in the Aberdeen Angus class. Her parents have an Angus herd.

St. Alban's Guild met Wednesday evening of last week after a busy summer. Roll call was answered with an article for the country store at the bazaar.

After the hymn and Guild prayer the Rev. Donald West gave the ladies an interesting talk on his experiences at the Anglican congress. Arrangements were made for the Cove Links wedding, the fall bazaar and a wedding on October 5. Mrs. A. Binstow was the month's group leader. The ladies enjoyed refreshment of fruit breads and a social hour.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

Miss Rhina C. Clark has been visiting with friends in Hamilton this week.

Miss Emma Robinson, of Windsor, was a guest at the Petty-Hansen wedding in Knox Church on Saturday.

Wednesday morning three inspectors visited the high school. John Stevens, an inspector of English was a former classmate of principal E. A. Hansen's. A. A. Orr, inspector for his first year, was formerly principal at Gravenhurst high school. Mr. Wilson is a library inspector. All came from Toronto.

Ryerson Institute of Technology begin the fall term Monday, and three Acton and district young men are going down for classes. Wayne Ribbey registered in Business Administration; Norman Elliott in Journalism and David Roughley in Radio and Television Arts. So far they're driving down each day.

Jim Aitken is returning for his third year in electronics at Hamilton Institute of Technology. This is his final year. Miss Nancy Aitken started this week at Hamilton Teachers' College with her friend, Miss Judy Meek of Rockwood. They attended John T. Russ Collegiate in Guelph.

Corporal Ray Mason of the Acton O.P.P. detachment is attending a two-week police college course at Toronto in supervision and administration along with many other O.P.P. detachment heads.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College began this week and those attending from Acton are Ruth Coles, Katherine Garrett, Mary Kay Gibbons and David Gohn.

Friends of Mrs. Simpson will be glad to know she is doing fine after surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she has been a patient the past week.

Miss Peggy Bevan, daughter of high school teacher Mr. Michael Bevan, has begun nurse's training at London.

The Suffragan Bishop of the Philippines, the Rt. Rev. Ed Ward G. Lung from Bantoc, spoke at Grace Anglican Church in Milton, Tuesday evening, and Acton ladies who went down to hear him were Mrs. G. Currie, Miss M. Rowles, Mrs. C. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay and Mrs. C. F. Nelles. He attended the Anglican Congress in Toronto and since then has been preaching in different parts of the Niagara diocese.

The term at Lakeshore Teachers' College