Auxiliary Report Given On Bingos in Summer

The Legion Ladies' Auxiliary, Branch 197, held their fall meeting on Thursday, September 5, with Com. Mrs. C. Shullis in the chair. Plans were sent to Comrades Mrs. W. Maddox, Mrs. J. Matheson, Mrs. H. Earle, Mrs. F. Gordon, Mrs. J. McNabb and Mrs. B. Driw.

Flowers were sent to the late Com. Mrs. E. Gibbons. The charter was draped for the life member of the auxiliary, sympathy cards were sent to Com. Mrs. J. Bradshaw and Mr. H. Deede.

Bingo Report The bingo convener, Mrs. P. Turkocz, was complimented on her very successful report over the summer months.

There is a special bingo to be held on September 27. The proceeds will be used towards the bazaar. The members are planning a euchre to be held October 10. An invitation to attend a church parade in Georgetown on September 8 was issued to the members. Cyth, Mrs. J. Higgins was the winner of a set of ash trays in a lucky draw.

A social time was spent after the meeting; Mrs. L. Synott, Mrs. E. Morton, Mrs. D. Jordan and Mrs. A. Gordon convened the lunch.

There were several complaints about the "late news" in the Free Press last Thursday. The picture of Premier John Roberts was taken after noon, rushed back to the darkroom for developing, printing and enlarging; then scanned on a plastic plate and printed and mounted on top of a big hole, waiting for it on the front page. The papers were then printed, folded, addressed, counted and delivered in bundles to stores and the post office by three o'clock.

The Chamber of Commerce is planning to repair the benches at the old post office and add a new one. They've started already thinking about Christmas Lighting, too.

The Chamber of Commerce will have a decorated car in the Fall parade.

The decision to erect lawn signs for the election finds some families split on which sign is required.
