

ACTON FIREFIGHTERS won second prize for their fall fair float which dramatically depicted a burning house to stress fire prevention. At times so much smoke was pouring from the roof of the burning house, bystanders had to move hastily from the parade route. A smoke bomb inside the mock building provided the realistic effect.

SHOTGUN MARRIAGE was the theme of the float entered by Bannockburn W.I. The bride and groom, bridesmaid and best man rode in style in an early model T Ford while Ma and Pa chased the carload on foot as Pa toted a shotgun. Left to right are Mrs. W. Linham, Mrs. Cam Sinclair, Mrs. Wes Storey, Mrs. Albert Brooks; seated in front are Mr. and Mrs. William Sanderson.

The church was decorated with white gladioli for the occasion. Mrs. Frank Oakes played the organ and Rae West sang The Lord's Prayer.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Clifford Storey, R. R. 3, Acton.

Carried Mums, Roses

She chose a floor length gown of white nylon organza over silk tulle with a fitted bodice, long fully pointed sleeves and very brilliant skirt. Lace appliques with iridescent sequins embellished the Sabrina neckline and were repeated in the wide scalloped border on the skirt.

A high crown of miniature crystals and tiny pearls held her long-tiered scalloped veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white mums and red roses.

The attendants, all dressed alike in blue, were Mrs. Alice Wilkinson as matron of honor, Miss Wendy Jank, sister of the groom and Miss Marguerite Cannon as bridesmaids and Miss Heather Wilkinson as flower girl.

Baby Blue Gowns

Their full-skirted dresses were of baby blue sheer over tulle with fitted bodices, rounded necklines and brief sleeves. Matching sheer robes with circular veils formed their headpieces. The senior attendants carried bouquets of white mums with blue ribbons and the flower girl carried a basket of white baby mums.

Howard Jank, the brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Wayne Spires and Jim Robertson.

Reception at Church

The reception was held in the parish hall of the church. Guests were present from Acton, Guelph, Newmarket, Toronto, Hamilton, Victoria, Brampton, Stoney Creek, Elmwood, Chesley, Florida and Pittsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gurski had come from Regina, Saskatchewan, for a two week visit and for her daughter's marriage. Another special guest was the bride's grandfather, Irwin Hawley of Toronto.
