HIS HOME CLUB, other Acton service clubs and friends honored McKenzie, Y's Men's president Walter Dubois, Mr. McKenzie and G. W. McKenzie last Thursday evening and presented him with Ron Lewis, president of the Rotary club. Mr. McKenzie wears a leather attaché case. The special event was sponsored by an unusual "happi coat" presented to him by the Japanese delegation. Acton, Y's Men's club which boasts both the international presentation at the international convention in Buffalo when he was elected, Mr. McKenzie, and the district director, Bill Wilson. Left selected president. It's the first time he had worn the bright blue robe with mysterious Japanese characters down the lapels.

Mayor, Clubs Fete G. W. McKenzie Elected as International President

Dispensing the maxim, "A prophet without honour in his own country," Acton service clubs last Thursday evening at a tricbic meeting gathered to honor G. W. McKenzie in recognition of his selection as International President of Y's Men's Clubs of the World. A charter member of the Acton Y's Men's Club, constituted 23 years ago, Mr. McKenzie has progressed through the various offices of the Association until this year when he was honored by being chosen International President. He was District Governor in 1954 and was awarded the Elmer Croll award at that time for his outstanding achievement in that office.

Honor to Town

As well as taking a keen interest in Y's Men's club work, Mr. McKenzie has served as president of the local YMCA. Acton, the smallest community in the world to boast a YMCA, as well as a Y's Men's Club, was honored this year by being the home club of the International President as well as the home club of the District Governor, Bill Wilson. In his introduction of the honored guest, Mr. Wilson reviewed the many facets of the service contributed by Mr. McKenzie in his work of the service club. He also paid tribute to Mrs. McKenzie who was present to share the honor. Bill Dakowits, a past president of the club, presented Mrs. McKenzie with a bouquet and Mr. McKenzie a leather attaché case bearing the seal of International Y's Men. Thinking the club for their gift he assumed she thought she would carry it with pride where ever it goes with me it will not bring disgrace to you.

Recalls Experiences

Wearing a Happi Coat presented by the Japanese delegation when he was elected president in Buffalo, Mr. McKenzie reminisced of the many pleasant experiences he had enjoyed since the great experience but how many Acton club was formed. He paid tribute to his wife and the many kind people in Acton who had helped him and made it possible for him to devote some of his energies to the service work of the Y's Men's club. He thanked his understanding and progressive School board, the school staff, the merchants, the bankers, the clergy, the neighbors and the hundreds of friends in Acton who had made it possible for him to take part in the activities of the worldwide fellowship of International Y's Men.

Express Congratulations

Bringing telegrams from the municipality, Mayor Dubois said, "you have made a record for yourself as an educator. The International Presidency is but one more step in the type of life you have lived."

Ron Lewis, president of the Rotaract Club of Acton introduced his members and spoke of the re-

New Year's he will be presiding at the meeting of the executive in Chicago. In June, he will preside at the annual convention at Essex Park. He will supervise the moving of the Association head quarters to Chicago. He will make many official visits to clubs and may go abroad on good will visits. To assist him during the year he has the help of the present vice presidents from around the world, 31 International directors, over 150 District Governors and advisory committee of five to help in the day to day operation of the Association.

Mr. McKenzie spoke of three ways in which we may go forward. Man must have dreams, big dreams a man must have when going forward to build a better world. He must have faith, one of the ingredients necessary to do anything which can happen to anyone in the universe. It gives meaning to living to live creatively and most grow out of our faith in God. And service we do not find life worth living unless we do something for others. We make it worth living. We club of Acton expressed their pride in Mr. McKenzie's resignation. "Acton will be known across the country, it is a great honor and a tribute to the foresight of the men who just over 20 years ago started the Y's Men's club. We are proud that a town of 4,000 can produce an International President." Trustee Vic Brisson expressed the pleasure of the Public School Board in Mr. McKenzie's achievement.
