Church Services,
Fire Alarm in News

In connection with gospel services held in Presbyterian Church last week sponsored by Christian Businessmen of Kitchener-Waterloo and addressed nightly Monday to Friday by Mr. Tom Sturmers of Hespeler, services were fairly well maintained until the latter part of week. Musical numbers each evening contributed by different ones from Kitchener-Waterloo were much enjoyed. Friday evening, Murray Taylor and Sidney Durose contributed selections with their violin and accordion. Sunday evening being the concluding service there was a splendid attendance with assistance of members of Kitchener-Waterloo talent.

Mr. Sumner's addresses were instructive and earnest throughout. The theme was "Texted Truth for Troubled Times."

Sunday, sponsored by Emmanuel Bible Church, and Sunday School, a rally was held in the Town Hall morning and evening. Special attraction was by Musical Copland.

Following the rally, a meeting in the interests of the teenagers was held by the executive committee to elect officers and others for the ensuing year.

Fire Saturday
Saturday noon, the fire alarm was sounded to attend a fire down street in an upstairs room. Some damage was caused to interior surroundings.

Work has started at the rear of town hall to build a foundation for addition to the hall.

BALLINAFAD

Dance in Hall
After Wedding

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Baldwin (nee Gale Roden) on their marriage on Friday in Georgetown Presbyterian Church. The reception was held at her home followed by a dance in Ballinafad Hall to music by Marian's Orchestra. The happy couple will reside in Georgetown.

Quite a number from this community attended Anniversary Services at Churchill on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Provan, who came from Scotland two months ago and are staying in Toronto at present, visited at the home of their niece, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jamieson, over the weekend.

John Davidson, Dianne Wilson
Married in Toronto Ceremony

Baskets of white gladioli, yellow mums and fern decorated the altar of Kitchener-Waterloo, on Saturday afternoon, September 21; for the "double" ring ceremony which united in marriage Dianne Madeline Wilson and John Earle Davidson. The Rev. A. Zeidman conducted the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie James Mothers of Accra, Ghana, South Africa, formerly of Toronto, and the groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Earle Davidson of Acton.

Bride in White
The bride, given in marriage by her father, was in a lovely white gown with a high collar and long sleeves.

She spent Sunday in Brantford with the latter's mother in the occasion of her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Malby of Puslinch were visitors in the village Sunday.

With the sudden change in the weather over the weekend, extra heat was welcome in homes and churches.

Harvest Festival
Services were held Sunday morning at St. John's Church. The edifice was nicely decorated with products of garden and farm. Leaves in color in the windows added much to the occasion. Holy Communion was celebrated.

floor-length gown of beau de faille, styled with a fitted bodice and high-rise waistband. Re-embroidered Guipure lace outlined the neckline and the bell skirt featured multiple lace appliques falling in a chapel train.

A pearl crown with crystal peaks held her bouffant veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses with white stephanotis and streamers.

The matron of honor was Miss Elizabeth Griffiths of Toronto, and the bridesmaids were Miss Jane Bennett and Miss Patricia Mohr of Brampton, cousins of the bride. The three attendants were all dressed alike in ocean mist green chifon with rounded neckline and high styled waist band. A tiny band accented the waistline with a small bow at the back, catching streamers that flowed to the hemline.

A tiny circlet of matching tulle veiling formed their headpieces.

They carried matching cascade bouquets of yellow roses and white mums and streamers.

The groomsmen wore the groom's brother, Douglas David son of St. Catharines, and the ushers were Donald Davidson of Bracebridge, brother of the groom and James Wilson of Brampton, brother of the bride.

The organist was John Groskorth, Toronto, and the soloist, Mrs. Lloyd Elsworth sang The Lord's Prayer and the 23rd Psalm.

A reception was held at Casa Loma, where guests were welcomed from Toronto, Brantford, Bracebridge, Accra, Ghana, St. Catharines, Barrie, Rockwood, Caledon and Acton.

The bride's mother received wearing a turquoise lace sheath and mink cape and contrasting accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's sister (Mrs. H. Price of Acton) chose a chocolate brown ensemble and beige accessories with a corsage of yellow roses.

Trip Overseas
The couple left that evening by plane on a six week wedding trip to Scotland and England.

the bride wearing a Capri blue suit with contrasting accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

They are making their home at Bexhill Court, Apartment K, Toronto. The groom is a graduate of the Ryerson Institute of Technology, Toronto.
