OCTOBER 6th to OCTOBER 12th FIRES KILL 5,580

10-Year Story of Fire Tragedy

BILLION - DOLLAR WASTE TO HOME AND INDUSTRY

Canada's Fire Services Unite to Battle Losses, Carelessness, Save Lives

Children suffer most by fires in Canada. Of the 5,580 victims of smoke and flames in the last ten years, 2,320 were youngsters. In 1962, their toll was the highest ever 266 And more than half of them were wiped out in just 43 home fires that took three or more of the family with them.

Women (1,167) suffered least in the record of fire carelessness, compared with

Over a billion dollars of property was destroyed in the decade, making the rate of Canada's fire losses one of the worst of any country in the world. One bright spot in 1962 the estimated per capita loss dropped to its lowest figure in five years. Nevertheless, last year recorded a sharp increase in major industrial fires, 16 v. seven in 1961. A major loss fire is one of a quarter of a million dollars and up. Six times last year, a million dollars went up in smoke in single fires.
