LEGION NOTES FOR BRANCH 197

By George Ware

Saturday was a big day for our local Militia unit, the Lorne Scots, when under sunny skies, they received new Regimental and Queen's Colours.

There were 350 Scots on parade plus a three-quinty representation of Legionnaires from Peel, Dufferin and Halton.

The colours, presented by the Queen's representative, the Hon. W. Earl Rowe, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, show the battle honours credited the regiment for following both World Wars.

Troubled Veterans

Following the inspection of the Legion contingent and the Lorne Scots, by Hon. W. Earl Rowe, Colonel J. R. Barber and Lt. Col. C. Smythe, the Legion veterans marched past to the tune of "Old Comrades" played by the Brass Band. They were dismissed on the sidelines to watch the presentation ceremony.

Branch 197 were very proud to be able to take part in this presentation ceremony and would like to take this opportunity to congratulate the Lorne Scots on the receiving of their colours.

The blood donor cards have begun to trickle in to the branch and it is hoped that we will be swamped with cards in the next week.

Remember, even if the card is misplaced you can still be a donor. Just show up at the clinic on Thursday, October 24 in the Legion auditorium. We're sure the Red Cross and the Legion Ladies Auxiliary will make you feel at home and find a spot for you in their busy schedule.

There are still some tickets left for the Stag and Doe Night set for Friday evening. Make sure you get yours now and not too late.

118th Anniversary At Knox on Sunday

Guest preacher morning and evening for the 118th anniversary services at Knox Presbyterian Church was the Rev. W. H. Welch B.S.A. who spoke on "Needed: Revival in the Church" and "The Emptiness of Modern Man". He and Mrs. Welch were guests of Mrs. H. L. Bonnie.

In the evening, the soloist was a former choir member Mrs. Byron Bruce of Ospringe and in the morning, Joseph McCann, of Guelph. E. A. Hansen played the organ and led the choir in special anthems.

Minstrel Show Later This Year

Acton Lions Club has decided to postpone presentation of their annual minstrel show until early in the New Year.

The show was usually staged in November, however, it was felt that due to various circumstances time did not permit sufficient rehearsal nights to ensure the usual polished performance. The show has been tentatively set for March of 1964. Rehearsals will shortly get underway.

In the meantime to help fill the intervening months the club has arranged for a one night appearance by the Credit Valley Choral Group at the Robt Little School on Friday evening, Nov. 15. From all reports this is a very accomplished group and should provide a fine evening of entertainment. Further details will appear in later advertisement.

Living Tableaux Presented by Lodge Birthday Cards, Gifts for 11 Guests

(Intended for last week)

Rev. J. L. Graham conducted the church service in the chapel on Sunday afternoon, September 22. Miss J. E. Fish was the very talented organist for the service.

Mr. Graham conducted his service according to the Rally Day order of service held that same morning in his own church, St. Paul's United Church, Milton, at which nearly 700 boys, girls and adults had been in attendance.

Mr. Graham read two scriptures — verses 28:11 of chapter 40 of Isaiah and verses 16:22 of chapter 4 of St. Luke's Gospel.

Having stated that he was going to read a story rather than deliver a sermon, Mr. Graham presented a story that had been read to the boys and girls at the Rally Day service. This appealing story was the story for which he had written "From the Laws of the Tiger" by Winnifred Bruce, and the congregation delivered a great deal of inspiration and pleasure from it.

Unusual Entertainment

A delightful evening of entertainment of a type that had never been seen at the Manor before was given in the auditorium on Wednesday evening, September 25, when a group of the members of Verdun Rebekah Lodge in Georgetown came to the Manor to conduct the Sept ember birthday party.

Both the Noble Grand of the Lodge, Mrs. H. Zerlaby and the Vice-Grand, Mrs. M. Allen were present. The conveners of the program were Mrs. K. Hancock and Mrs. Zerlaby and the conveners of the lunch was Mrs. E. Spence.

Several bouquets of mums in the various autumn colors had been used to decorate the head table and later on in the evening a very attractive birthday cake decorated with many colored candles was placed upon it.

Greetings were extended to all present and especially to those happy birthdays in September by Mrs. Zerlaby, speaking on behalf of the Lodge. A short song conducted by Mrs. Zerlaby with Mrs. Eileen Johnson as piano accompanist, followed these greetings and then the unique entertainment spoken of above, began.

Living Photos

Against an all-black backdrop a rectangular framework covered with gifts had been set up on the stage to give the effect of a frame for photographs. To start this part of the program, Mrs. Anne Collins read a selection called "Photograph Reverses," which furnished the key to the showing of a number of very original, attractive and interesting tableaux for which some of the members posed. Each tableaux was presented to the music of an appropriate piano selection played by Mrs. Collins.

The cast posed extremely well and the tableaux were very authentic in appearance. The photo-

The members worked at their projects for the afternoon and planned new projects for future meetings. Mrs. E. Allen, the president of the auxiliary, was in charge of the afternoon's activities.

Winners at Fall Prize winners in the special class for Halton Manor residents at the Milton Fall Fair on Sept. 25th were as follows:

Lady's mitts, Mrs. W. M. Millan; Mrs. S. Eversell; child's socks, Mrs. M. Forbes; Mrs. E. Wright; Mrs. S. Eversell; an embroidered article, Mrs. W. M. Millan; Mrs. E. Pearson; Mrs. H. Richardson; crocheted dolls, Mrs. E. Elstman.

A number of the residents were guests of the Milton Fall Board at the Fall and appreciated this generous gesture very much.

Two-Car Crash

Two cars driven by two Acton drivers collided on Highway 7 just east of Acton Tuesday afternoon, causing $5,000 damage. The drivers were Mrs. Pauline Gordon of R.R. 2, Acton, and Joseph Dvalavsky, R.R. 1, Acton.

To add a very appropriate finale to the tableaux, Mrs. Collins read a closing poem and the visitors and audience sang "Auld Lang Syne" in unison.

Mrs. Vigner played, by request, a solo on the bones.

Guests of Honor

At the close of this very fine program, 11 guests of honor took their places at the head table. As each one did so, he or she was presented with a pretty birthday card and a gift of money. Mrs. Zerlaby extended greetings from the lodge, the "Happy Birthday" song was sung and the candles on the cake were lighted.

Very delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, relish, ice cream, birthday cake and fancy cookies and macaroons, all donated by the lodge ladies, and tea and coffee were served. A cellophane bag filled with candy was also presented to each resident.

In a very gracious little speech, Mrs. A. Cumming expressed the thanks of all present to the lodge ladies for a truly delightful evening. The 11 guests of honor were: Mrs. E.
