MR. AND MRS. HARTLEY DEFOREST

Deforest-Dawkins Vows Said in United Church

A double-ring ceremony in Trinity United Church, Acton, Saturday afternoon, October 5, united in marriage Margaret Ann Dawkins and Hartley Alvin Deforest.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Tom Dawkins of Acton and the late Mrs. Hazel Dawkins, Huntsville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Deforest Sr., Acton.

The Rev. Dwight Engel officiated and George Elliott played the organ. Baskets of white and yellow mums decorated the church with white and yellow pom-pom bows on the pews.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle with a tulle train and a chapel train and lace rose appliques sprinkled with seed pearls and sequins on the skirt and around the neckline. Her veil of nylon tulle illusion was held by a wedding ring cap. She carried a cascade of red sweet heart roses and stephanotis with trailing ivy.

Three attendants — Matron of honor was Mrs. Merris Metcalf of Milton, a friend, who wore a dress of gold, and the bridesmaids, wearing red, were Mrs. Anne Thomson, sister of the groom, and Willy Van Arragon, a friend of the bride. The attendants' dresses were all fashioned of brocade with bell skirts, caught with bows at the back and a floating panel at the front. Wedding rings held their short veils. They all carried cascade bouquets of white baby mums and trails of ivy.

Carl Deforest, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Harold Deforest Jr. and Dan Deforest, brothers of the groom. Gays Dawkins, cousin of the bride, and Terry Waterhouse, a cousin of the bride.

Reception at Legion. The reception was held in the Legion hall, when the guests were received by Mrs. Wm. Waterhouse, aunt of the bride, wearing a navy blue crepe sheath dress with white hat, navy and white accessories and a corsage of white primrose mums. She was assisted by Mrs. Deforest, the mother of the groom, wearing a mocha brown sheath of French wool batikcloth with forest green and orange leather hat and brown accessories, and a corsage of yellow-bronze baby mums.

There were guests from Bracebridge, Hamilton, Burlington, Milton, Cooksville, Georgetown, St. Marys, Milton, Toronto and Tavistock. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Davidson, at whose home the wedding gifts were displayed and where several pre-wedding teas were held. Mr. Davidson acted as toast master. Mrs. Victoria Dawkins, the grandmother of the bride, was the only grandparent present and received the bride's bouquet after the reception.

Live in Acton. The couple left on a trip north, the bride wearing a two-piece double knit charcoal grey suit with cranberry red hat and accessories and a deep red rosebud corsage. They are living in Acton.

Showers were held at the home of Mrs. Ken Thomson, Acton, when co-hostesses were Mrs. Earl McCoy and Miss Willy Van Arragon, and at the home of Mr. Bruce Kiesler with co-hostess Mrs. Gerald Lamarche.

Knox Baptism. Baptized Sunday morning at Knox Presbyterian Church were three baby boys, David Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Somerville; Gary Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Somerville; and William Brian, son of the minister, the Rev. A. H. McKenzie and Mrs. McKenzie.

W.M.S. Sale. Last Friday afternoon the Alert Evening Auxiliary, W.M.S. of Knox Presbyterian Church, held a successful pants-suit and bake sale in Simpsons Sears store.

OSPRINGE

Bad Fall, Eye Injury, Visits Party for Graduate in News

Mr. Wilfred Avery has sold his farm on the 2nd line to Mr. Wm. Upshall of Eramosa, who gets possession Nov. 15. The Averages have purchased a home on Olive Ave. in Guelph, and will be moving following their sale. Due to a back ailment and surgery in the spring, Mr. Avery is unable to continue farming.

Billie Fuller, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Fuller, Townline, suffered a concussion in a fall, through a trap door in the barn. He was taken to Guelph hospital and later transferred to Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto. He has now recovered and is home again.

Jim Isley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Isley of the village suffered severe burns to his eyes on Saturday morning. Along with his brother John, he was assisting his father laying pipe into a septic tank, while using hot lead to seal the pipes, some splashed back, striking his eyes. He was rushed to Guelph hospital, where an eye specialist attended him. While they are quite painful, it is not thought any permanent damage was done to his sight.

Mrs. George Lagg, who underwent an appendectomy at Guelph hospital, is now convalescing at home.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Steve. From the arrival of a son on October 9 at Guelph hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Keith Sinclair have moved into their cottage across from the school, owned by Mr. George Cooke.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sinclair (nee Joan Richard) son whose marriage took place recently at Hanover. They are now residing in Kitchener, where both are employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Barry Clarke enjoyed a week's vacation motoring through the state of Virginia. Roniek Laskowski was able to leave the Guelph hospital on Friday, following several days' treatment for a nerve in his hip.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Klooster, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Vander Vliet and family, visited recently in Draxton with the former's son, George, who had spent his vacation in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Sumter of Niagara Falls were recent visitors with the former's mother and aunt, Mrs. G. Sumter and Miss E. Balch.

Mr. W. H. McEwan who has had an apartment in Orangeville, has moved back to the farm with his son and daughter in law and family.

Friends are sorry to learn that Mrs. Archie Rhylant Jr. is confined to her home with a heart condition, but wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Robertson, Lynda and Donna of Oakville visited on the holiday with the former's parents, D. G. and Mrs. Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Len J. Buck entertained at their home on the highway on Sunday in honor of their daughter, Sharon, who graduated from Bishop Macdonald High School.

Following the 107th graduation exercises of the Church of Our Lady, Guelph, the guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Buck assisted by Judy and Maime Buck.

The guests included Sharon's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buck, Kitchener, her grandaunts, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McVicar, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Klen, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Klen, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Klen, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Buck, Miss Pauline Klen, Mr.

Jack Buck, Miss Pat Klen, Miss Georgia Wrigg, Miss Heather Kilmer, Mr. Gilbert Kilmer, all of Guelph and Mr. and Mrs. Allan McCrea of R.R. 1, Acton.

Two Deaths. Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tansley and family in the passing of Mr. Tansley's mother, three weeks ago, and a younger brother Fred on Sunday, both lived at Carleton Place. Mrs. Tansley has been confined to a nursing home for several years but Fred Tansley died suddenly following a heart seizure.

Going-Up Ceremony Impressive Campfire Held at Spirit Valley

Saturday morning the Brownies and Girl Guides journeyed to Spirit Valley Farm with their leaders for a going-up ceremony with parents and friends invited.

Captain Mrs. Kingscott and Lieut. Mrs. LaVail were in charge of Girl Guides and Mrs. Abrahm, Brown Owl, and Mrs. James Lewis, Owl in charge of Brownies. Around a campfire a horse shoe formation was formed, after the dropping of the colors. Those living up to Guides were: Cathy Thomlinson, Sheila Hennessy, Nancy Gibson, Wendy Gardner and Debra Bould and walking up to Guides was Isabel Buchanan.

The Steam Engine and Power Reunion members, and their wives sat down to a delicious turkey supper in Eden Mills Hall Saturday evening, the event to wind up activities for the season. Moving pictures of the Power Reunion in August brought a pleasant evening to a close.

New Season. The Carlette Club got under way for the winter season on Monday evening for their first meeting. Mrs. Gurnet McDougall presided the party. Prize winners were Mary Perry, Joan Chamberlain and Lu Wickham.

Holy Communion was observed in Eden Mills Presbyterian Church on Sunday with Rev. George Atkin officiating. Three new members were added to the roll, Rodger McDougall and Victor Funk by profession of faith and Mrs. John Funk by certificate.

The United Church ladies held a very successful bazaar on Tuesday.
