HALTON MANOR RESIDENT Michael Starbuck got a free trumpet lesson from Acton Bandman Charles Landsborough, when Actonians visited the Manor in Milton last Thursday evening to entertain the residents. Dancers Karen Ashley, Diane Bousfield, Carol Anne Masales and Mary Frances Marcoux looked on, while the lesson was taking place. Many entertainers from Acton performed during the hour and a half program, and the residents applauded vigorously to show their gratitude.

George Jackson is Winner At Royal in Steer Classes

Mr. George E. Jackson, 1st Line, was a successful exhibitor at the Royal with his Aberdeen Angus steers. In the singles class, he was awarded a 2nd, 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th.

In the group of three he received an eighth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ismond spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall, R.R. 2, Norval and with Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter, R.R. 2, Georgetown.

Miss Jane Wilson of Hillsburgh spent the weekend with Sandra McEwan.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Baldwin and children of Ancaster visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. Stewart.

A number of young folks attended the Royal in Toronto on Saturday.

Miss Nancy Bulloch of Guelph was home for the weekend.

Miss Helene Tucker nursing training at St. Joseph's hospital, Guelph was a visitor over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Tucker, 3rd Line.

Mrs. E. Archibald entertained the lady directors of Acton Fair at her home on Thursday evening.

Mr. A. Phillips of Orton visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. McMillan.

At the recent graduation exercises at Erin District High School, special awards were won by Sandra McEwan — the Covert trophy, student council award; and the memorial bursary for highest standing in Grade 12. John Stubbington was also awarded a memorial bursary.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Epshall and family to the community. They recently purchased the farm on the Second Line from Willard Awrey. Three children are attending the local school, two in the junior room and one in the senior.

During the past year the local Women's Institute have been divided into two teams with Mrs. S. Fuller and Mrs. E. Archibald as captains. Points were given for attendance, punctuality and answering the roll call. Points were counted and Mrs. Archibald's team was highest.

The losing side entertained the winners at a supper held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. Archibald. The menu — salmon loaf, scalloped potatoes, casseroles, pickles, salad and rolls, topped off with pie, was enjoyed by all.

Miss Doris Fines presided for the regular meeting preceding the dinner.

Mrs. C. Storey read the minutes, financial statement and correspondence.

Mrs. W. Milton and Mrs. E. Archibald had attended a course on "Desserts" for leaders, and will be presenting this in the new year.

Mrs. A. McCrae gave her report of the recent District Directors' meeting.

LONG DISTANCE GIFT SERVICE

Ever think about a gift of long distance service for son John in Montreal so he could call more often, or so he could keep in closer touch with other members of the family? Well, a number of customers have not only thought about this but have come right out and asked us about it; and so, as a direct result, the Bell is starting something brand new: Long Distance Gift Service.

For no additional charge, the Company will provide a card to be sent to son John anywhere in Canada or the United States to tell him a gift amount is being credited to his telephone account for long distance service. Customers need only call our Business Office, tell us the amount of the gift they wish to make (minimum $2.00) along with the name, address and telephone number of the recipient, and we'll handle all the details.

The new Long Distance Gift Service is expected to be especially popular for occasions such as Christmas, birthdays, anniversaries, etc., when our far-flung families want to be together but can't always make it.

YOUR NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY

It's that time of the year again when we receive a fresh new telephone directory. Remember, it's not only the outside that's new, inside the book there are many new and changed listings. So, to save yourself time and trouble and avoid wrong numbers, look the number up, but it down and then dial carefully. You may be interested to know that a new Telephone Blue Book is available. This handy little booklet is ideal for recording your personal list of phone numbers. It's full of new information Long Distance Area Codes in Canada and the U.S. — a special section for birthdays and anniversaries! For your FREE copy, just call your Telephone Business Office!
