Nov. 18: Unstoppable, with a three game win from Moonshiners, took over top spot. Barry Elliott 223, Merl "the pearl" Harris 222 and Jim Cooney 201 paced for the win. Brian Sheridan's 211 for Moonshiners was in a lost cause. Without any "mentionables" to their credit, Longshots knocked Termites off the top rung with a two and totals win. Termites dropped a toughie in the second by nine pins. Don Harris 228 and Lynn Parsons 203 solved for Termites. Golden Hawks were flying high. They took the OC's for two and totals, almost made it a clean sweep but lost the middle canto by five pins. Jim Jennings' 208 for OC's was the best in this affair.

League standing: Untouchables 41, Termites 37, Longshots 35, OC's 32, Golden Hawks 26, Moonshiners 25.

Beardmore

Nov. 18: Quite a duel developed between Red Devils' Jim Bullough and Rolling Rooms' Phil LeSueur. Bullough came up with 766 and the veteran LeSueur 823 (351). Scoria upset the adage that youth must be served. Also packing them in Red Devils were Dennis Crooks 647 (320) and Al Roach 609. Holding their end up for Rolling Rooms were "Hustlin'" Hoc Lambert 638, Howie Janks/253 and Bill Buchanan 218. Teamwise, it was Red Devils 4, Rolling Rooms 3. Rolling Rooms packing the pins in the middle game. Paced by "Silent Fred" Kentner 655 (one of his better nights), Keith Andrews 271, Ben Bayliss 236, George Williamson 240 and Arlie White 202. League standing: Red Devils 48, Hot Shots 40, Rolling Rooms 36, Toppers 31, Dreamers 27, White Hopes 26.

Despite a hot 798 (295) from Louise Toth, plus Doris Angell's 453 453 (163) and Mary Elliott's 421 (210), Jets only managed one game from Twisters — a thin one at that. They took the first by four pins. Twisters grabbed the second by 12 pins and pushed the final. Setting up Twisters' win were Phyllis Angell 696 (287), Joyce Buchanan 562 (227) and Chris Britton 472 (205).

League standing: Bomarcas 35, Twisters 33, Bombers 31, Jets 27.

Nov. 19: Pin Dusters really dusted off the Alley Cats and Cats did some painful yowling at the other end. They had lost three games. Linda Jarvis 505 (179) and Ed Roberts 375 (171) were chief dusters for Pin Dusters. Phyllis Jarvis did some prowling for Cats with 415 (146). Mohawks scouted Alley Rockers in the first, then Rockers rocked back to win the second, and it was Mohawks in the third by four pins. Alley Rockers had the nerve to take totals by 12 pins. Scorch! For Mohawks, Belle Kitchen 484 (202) and Jean Neave 411 (171) swung tomahawks. For Alley Rockers, Lillian Evans 426 (161) and Bess Phillips 403 (137) rocked 'em.

League standing: Alley Rockers 28, Mohawks 25, Alley Rockers 18, Pin Dusters 14.

Lilacs won the first by 12 pins; then Petunias rattled back to win the second by 11 and wrapped up the finale but good. Lois Walker 620 (223), Cheryl Phillips 546 (217) and Mary Anderson 424 (176) were best for Lilacs. Just to play safe, Bob Martin 671, Don Grein 674 and Don Lindsay 605 tripled and singled for the Cartage crew. Masson's legibly scored triples. Blow Press gave Gito Electric a battle in the first game but lost it and then folded up, more or less, and it was a seven-pointer for Gito's. games. Creamery picked up the odd point for totals by two pins. Joyce Withers 216 and Pauline Herrington 246 solved for Creamery with Marnie Mellor 215 and Donna Menes 200 dittoing for Cameos. With Don Grein running a string of 355-341-257 for a 953, Soccer Club did not stand much of a chance against Tiger Cats. Whirlbirds moved out Flintstones in the first by 11 pins and then went on to wrap up the next two, for a triple win. This puts Whirlbirds one point behind the leaders. Muff Hunter's 264 single stood out for the winners. Flintstones were negative for "mentionables". Untouchables' barrelled up from last spot to a third place tie with a triple win from Hillbillies. Thursday Toppers

Nov. 21: Headpins won two games from the league leading Rough Riders, but the Riders won the middle canto by enough pins to take totals. Top trio for Headpins were Lila Atkinson 486 (183), Agnes Holmes 398 (167), Helen Blitford 370 (142) and Lois Gordon 370 (147). Guess that makes four instead of three top triples. Rough Riders' tops were Edna Nellie 476 (178), Marnie Allen 469 (177) and Eleanor Goy 543 (191). Happy Mediums rolled a big first game win over Strikers, then faded out and Stokers were in for two games, but missed out on totals. Winning the refreshments of Coca-Cola, Seven-Up and Reinhardt for howling best over their average in the Teen-Under league were Barry Buchanan, Roger McEachern, Nancy Morris and Jo Anne Wisniewsky. With the deadline midnight November 25, reached, Ivy Martin, Verna Arbie, Joan Knight, Don Grein, Don De Forest, Andy Williams, Jim Bullough, Bob Toms and George Longstreet will be making a bid for a berth on the Eastern Canada Championship teams. That hot triple of 953 for Don Grein, which included a 355 single, clinched both the Paul's Dry Cleaning voucher and the McGregor socks from Esquire Men's

$333 End

Two Acton district men and a Toronto resident shared equally in the $1,000 prize at the Klansmen Club of Milton's annual $30 Dinner in Milton Legion Hall last week.

Pete Charrette and Mono Cassrin, both of R.R. 4 Acton, and Walter Corin of Toronto each received $333. They decided to split the prize rather than continue an elimination draw until only one winner was left. There were 250 men at last week's dinner and they enjoyed a turkey supper served by Scotch Block W.I. Entertainment was provided by a Toronto group including MC and singer Louie Thomson, acrobatic dancer Penny Nichol, ventriloquist Cy Leonard and his friend Happy, mouth organist Andy Bloomer, and pianist Cyril Messenger.
