Scottish Dance Club's Christmas Party Raises Over $100 for Sunshine School

Nearly 200 enjoyed a delightful pre-Christmas evening and raised just over $100 for the Sunshine school for Retarded Children at Hornby at the Scottish Dance Club's annual Christmas party Saturday evening in the Robert Little school auditorium. An excellent program was arranged by Mrs. Robert Buckner.

With young baller teacher Gwen Lander were her pupils Cindy and Debbie Barr, Betty De Vries, Judy Engel, Janis Franklin, Bonnie McKenzie, Barbara Reed and Lynn Simion; with Mrs. Joyce Carpenter were her pupils Karen and Kathy Ashley, Diane Bousfield, Bonnie Bristow, Marianne Coles, Jo Anne and Peggy Laverty, Mary Frances Marcoux and Carol Masale; in Carol Wharton's group were Bonnie Garvin, Joanne Heatley, Sharon Jerome, Sherrie Johnston, Susan McGiloway and Joanne Wasowicz.

Surprise Party For Dance Class

When Joyce Carpenter's nine dance pupils arrived, tap shoes in their hands, for their regular lesson at her home Tuesday, they were greeted with shouts of "Surprise" and a practice room gay with balloons, Christmas lights and decorations. There was no practice; instead, games directed by Jack Carpenter, late and equally unexpected arrival of the mothers and a lively half-ice lunch.

Mrs. Carpenter's pupils are Diane Bousfield, Bonnie Bristow, Jo Ann Laverty, Peggy Laverty, Karen and Kathy Ashley, Carol Masale, Mary Frances Marcoux and Marianne Coles. A former pupil who had left dancing for piano lessons, Debbie Bousfield, came to the party and played the piano.

Farmers Should Band Together, Speak Out Future Lies in Organization — Speaker

Denzil Lawrence of R.R. 1, Milton was elected president of the Halton Federation of Agriculture, at the Federation's annual meeting in Stewarttown Hall on Friday afternoon. About 50 attended the meeting and heard Bob Carbet, secretary-manager of O.F.A., speak on why farmers need a farm organization.

hand together when they are in trouble, but when things are going their way, they tend to forget each other. Farm people should realize that their future lies in organized action, he warned.

and an obligation to deal with the top six inches of the farm. Rural Ontario's greatest product is its young people and we must be sure they are properly educated. Today in Ontario, he said, eight out of 10 young people raised on a farm must find off-farm jobs. Due to the technical advances in agriculture, young farm people must have better training. Today farming is becoming more a business and less a way of life.

is open for public use. Mr. Rand noted, "I'd like to see a farm forum in each of the four corners of this county" and in closing hoped for "a revival of farm forums in the county and in Ontario."
