High School

Dec. 2: Untouchables took three games from Golden Hawks, to move well out in front. Hawks tried hard to win the finale but missed it by 13 pins. Jim Cooney, 560 (207) and Harvey Taylor 548 (194) touched off the win for Untouchables. Bruce Casburn 572 (174) and Steve Goy 433 (152) were Hawks' best flutters. Moonshiners are on the upgrade and took two and totals. Terry Termites, with Termites winning the first game by 34 pins. Brian Sheridan 517 (201) and John Dowling 449 (199) shone for Moonshiners. "Ducky" Harris, who else, 501 (214) and Gerald Dick 411 (147) were Termites' tops. Longshots ran up two fast strikes on the OC's, then the latter hit with a big one, to win the game and totals. Don Long 510 (197) and Bob Browne 477 (182) had the shots for Longshots with Terry Churchill 473 (175) and John Price 458 (176) being OC's best.

League standing:

Untouchables 53, Termites 41, Longshots 41, OC's 40, Golden Hawks 29, Moonshiners 27.

Dec. 2: Red Devils cooled off Hot Shots with a three game win and took a healthy lead as a result. "Jem" Bullock 735, Lyle Craigie 206, "Wild Bill" Howell 203, 210 and Dennis Crooks 248 tripled and singled for Devils. "Big Al" Pavli stayed awake long enough to trundle a 633 for Hot Shots. Mr. LeSueur's Rolling Room beat Mrs. LeSueur's Dreamers for three games and whether Phillip was served breakfast the next morning is a matter of conjecture. Solos featured this affair, with Phillip himself 230, "Hustlin' Hex" Lambert 266 and Bert Collett 217 getting 'em for Rollers. In a like win for Dreamers were Fran Crooks 214 and Helen Ledger 200. Just to keep the all-orthopedic picture complete, White Hoops zeroed Toppers. Jake Vandervoort 217, Ben Davison 208, Fred Kenner 216 and Arlie White 234, 210 singled for the winners. Believe it or not, Toppers had a single or triple. Oh, well. Dan Pieterangeli 664 and Herb Schuberdt Phil LeSueur comes out with the info that the league's Christmas roll will be December 16 and them that bowlers that roll the highest over their averages will be the winners. "Bigger and better than ever," says Phil. Twelve turkey hidden scores, etc., will all help to make this a bang-up evening.

Legion Ladies

Dec. 2: Bombers bombed away at Twisters and won the first two games, with Twisters coming back to win the last game. Sighting up the win for Bombers were Helen Grant 574 (250) and Helen Jacovic 486 (175). Doing some pin-twisting for Twisters were Phyllis Angell 614 (259) and Joyce Buchanan 460 (172). After winning the first game, Bombers lost the range on Jets and Jets were home for two and totals with Louise Roth 585 (217) and Mary Elliott 384 (142) pacing the win. Leading Bombers were Mary Kieppi 496 (233) and Mae Curtiss 437 (177).

League standing:

Bombers 42, Jets 39, Twisters 37, Bombers 36.

Tri-State

Dec. 3: Alley Rockers busted the first place tie with a triple win from Alley Cats. Cats tried to win the finale to avert the pin-out but missed it by 31 pins. Best pin-rockers for the Rockers turned up in Lenora Roberts 558 (255) and Lil Evans 524 (180). Phil Jarvis 459 (200) was Cats' best. Mohawks tried to keep pace with Alley Rockers, but only won two games and totals, with Pin Dusters taking the middle chukker by 25 pins. Pacing Mohawks' win were Audrey Inglis 395 (148) and Belle Kitchen 386 (148). Pin Dusters tops were Cathy Freeman 415 (158) and Linda Jarvis 378 (135).

League standing:

Alley Rockers 39, Mohawks 37, Alley Cats 18, Pin Dusters 18.

Blue Springs Nursery

Dec. 3: Ochids took on the first place Lilacs and replaced them in the top spot with a three game win. Cheryl Phillips 472 (181) and Betty Wilson 384 (120) were tops in the Ochids' win. Mae Curtiss 462 (154) and Shirley Thomson 462 (164) headed up Lilacs in a losing cause. Pansies clubbed Sweet Peas but good and wound up with all the marbles. Joan Kenner 498 (188) and Irene Dodds 461 (186) sparked Pansies' win. Sharon Owen 444 (170) toiled in vain for Sweet Peas. Weeping Willows won the first two from Petunias and were all set to win the third but Millie Stitt finished off a 608 triple with 286 and it was Petunias' game. Arlene Boyd helped Petunias with 219-222. Heading up Willows' win were Anne Norton 507 (215) and Joan Schipper 467 (202).

League standing:

Ochids 54, Lilacs 50, Sweet Peas 49, Pansies 43, Weeping Willows 40, Petunias 37.

Micro Plastics

Dec. 3: Hot Shots, with a convincing three game win from Moonshiners, replaced Screwballs in first place. A hot 828 triple from Jim Kelman, along with Arnie Gatto's 627 sparked Hot Shots' trundling. "Smitty" Pieterangeli 664 and Herb Schuberdt Phil LeSueur comes out with the info that the league's Christmas roll will be December 16 and them that bowlers that roll the highest over their averages will be the winners. "Bigger and better than ever," says Phil. Twelve turkey hidden scores, etc., will all help to make this a bang-up evening.

League standing:

Hot Shots 49, Screwballs 48, Underdogs 38.

Dec. 4: Canadian Tire had no compassion for Masson Motors and sent them home with nary a win. Jeff Fryer 809 (309) and George Williamson 641 were re-treading for Canadian Tire. Masson Motors couldn't find the ignition key. Gitto Electric switched on a win in the first against Ledger's I.G.A., but then the "lign" bounced back to win the next two and totals. Ledger's were a going concern with Jim Bullough 744, Lorne Norton 639, Martin Oehlrich 661 and Bill Shannon 548 (313) double. Gino De Bartolo was the hot spark for Gitto's with 712. Blow Press pulled an upset when, paced by Jack Blow's 609, they took Ridley Cartage for two and totals. Bob Marlin carted away triple honors for Ridley's with 690.

League standing: Canadian Tire 62, Ledger's I.G.A. 56, Ridley Cartage 49, Gitto Electric 44, Blow Press 33, Masson Motors 8.

Action Ladies

Dec. 4: Lovell Bros., with a two and totals win from Masales, moved up, for a share of the top spot. Flo Ever 207 and Helen Otterberg 216 singled for Lovell's. Doreen McIntyre soloed for Masales with 214. Layler's I.G.A. showed improvement and hit Campers for a two and totals win, with Dianne Spielvogel 252 and Vera Arbie 204 heading up the play. Marnie Mellor and Nan Hunt hit the triple plateau for Campers with 606 and 641 in that order. Action Jersey Dairy won two close games from Acton Creamery, 35 and 21 pins, then collapsed, and the "Creamery Kids" won the last game and totals. Marion Storey paced the Dairy with 842 and Janice Withers 206-224 and Norma Robinson 200 singled for the Creamery.

League standing:

Acton Creamery 48, Lovell Bros. 48, Campers 34, Masales Dairy 38, Action Jersey Dairy 38, Ledger's I.G.A. 37.

Thursday Toppers

Dec. 5: Rough Riders were unhorsed, unseated or something, when they met Happy Mediums. All the "Merry Spooks" did was to win three games, which moves Mediums up within one point of Riders. Joan Knight 76 (248), Phyllis Winters 480 (169) and Myrtle McCabe 457 (167) were Mediums' tops. Eleanor Goy 605 (280) and Mamie

Major

Dec. 5: With Frankie Morton cueing up a 712, Acton Billiards made it a triple win from Pros. Could be Pros were disheartened after losing the initial chukker by eight pins. Bob "Thin M" Martin 684 and "Dave" Johnson 608 tripled for Pros. Despite a 620 example set by skipper Larry Nolan, Soccer Club dropped the riders to Dominion Hotel. Ches Pescha 842 (415) and Phil LeSueur 622, along with "Timme" Masales' 411 double, set up the "Wasowicz Wallpapers" roll. Paul's Men's Wear took on the Gold Stripe juggernaut and handed them a 52 setback. With one game apiece, the third spasm turned into a slug-dog battle with Paul's getting the nod by 29 pins and totals by 11. Don Green 767, DeForest 738 and Don DeForest 689 were Paul's top trio with Leo McGilloway 799 (306), Jeff Frever 768 (305) and Bob Agnew 693 (271) being old Stripe's best.

League standing:

Gold Stripe 65, Dominion Hotel 53, Acton Billiards 53, Paul's Men's Wear 48, The Pros 18, Soccer Club 51.

Action Friends

Dec. 5: Flinstones did themselves a lot of good, pointwise, with a triple win over Hillbillies, with Syd Lamb 210, Phil Bethel 203 and Joyce Blundell 201 pacing the win. Hillbillies couldn't raise a "mentionable". Bonanzas won two from Whirlbirds with the "Birds" getting a big win in the second for totals. First game was close—Bonanzas got it by 12 pins. Ray Atkinson 603 was with Heather Oubrait 211, Pat Booth 230 and Merv Harness 207 getting solos for Whirlbirds. Untouchables had an easy win over Defenders. All games were handed to Untouchables on a silver platter. Don Perry 611, Jeanne Comb 204 and Al Combe 209-202 tripled and singled for Untouchables. Defenders got a zero in all departments.

Bonanzas' tops

League standing:

Bonanzas 54, Whirlbirds 49, Untouchables 74, Hillbillies 44, Flinstones 41, Defenders 36.

Acton Mixed

Dec. 5: Jokers lost the first game to No-Goods, lost the second by five pins, then powered a big win in the finale, to take the odd totals point and retain the league lead. Verne Arbie 611, Ivy Martin 617 and John Foley 254 tripled and singled for Jokers. No-Goods stayed on the single plateau with George Malt by 201, Frank Maloney 200, Jean Bullough 202 and Martin Oehlrich 208. GoGetters, with a two and totals win from White Spas, moved up to the second slot. Ron Whitham, 218-201 headed up for Getters' roll. White Caps went with singles—Leo LaPorte 241.
