Lowries lest House

was ploted as the Waner this year in the Chitather of Com-are was studded with colored

H.S. At Home Last Thursday

The high school auditorium lived up all the way to the name of the At Hume this year - Winter Wonderland - last Thursday evening. The decorations were considered the most attractive ever, but the change in date caused a marked drop in attendance. New parents spared an evening so near Christmas.

The blue, white and silver decorations were under the direction of Grade 12 student Marilyn Kingsbury, and were beautifully co - ordinated throughout the rum. Long streamers were very and on the platform were a snowcovered tree and its modernistic counterpart - a sail-shaped "impressionistic" Christmas tree of wire and tinsel.

ets at the door. In the receiving Eng., as plant manager at Acton and was amazed at the vast lay cels to veterans' children. line were principal and Mrs. Ted Limestone Quarries. He suc- out of the operation. He believes Hansen, school hoard trustee ceeds his father, who recently it to be the most modern and Dwight Engel and Mrs. Engel: retired and is spending the win- up-to-date plant in North Amer-Mayor Lee Duby and Mrs. Duby, ter at his winter home in Palm ica. student council president Randy Beach, Florida. Daly and Susan Radford, and . The new plant manager learnvice-president John Wood with Sally Wilson. students served refreshments -- prins for the over $2,000,000 open sausage rolls, punch and cookies, ation and after only slight mod-Helping were Marilyn O'Connor, ifications, the equipment was Anne Freer, Karen Perkins, Pepuv buill and erected by Barber Holmes, Fay Adams and Sandra Greene Co.

Hargrave. charge of the checkroom.

decurations designed and emated before under his supervision.

orate and prepare the lunch. The perty. home ec. room was effectively. On Wednesday of last week. decorated; too.

SANTA CLAUS never had it so good! On cold chilly nights when he skims over roof tops, old St. Nick would never feel the zero weather if he had-two helpers like these to snuggle up to. Actually Cathy Higgins on the left and Grace Clow, right, were among the many office workers helping distribute gifts at the Beardmore Christmas party last week.

effective. The Harvey Smith's or chestra was seated on the floor. Ian Moore Jr. Named President F. G. Gardiner, Q.C., the National Crushed Stone As-Dressed as Santa and sitting in announced this week the ap-sociation of America, paid a visit ed the business from an expert in the field - his father. Mr. Mrs. A. Orr and a group of her Moore Sr. drew up the original

The retiring manager, Scot-David Woodhouse was inteish by birth, has been in the - business most of his life and is Some of the guests thoroughly art engineer by trade. The Acton enjoyed an Impromptu tour of plant was the largest he has the classrooms to see the original seen spring up from the drafting Ian Moore Jr. has been second Pols of white mums on the in charge at the quarry since it serving tables were from Lake first opened and with his wife. view Greenhouses." Before the makes his home on the former dance many students helped dec Stalker farm on the quarry pro-

Joe Gray, managing director of

At Christmas Party

Legion Hall when he entertain- help. a sleigh, Carl Weir took the tick- pointment of Ian Moore Jr., P. to the Acton Limestone Quarries his annual visit to distribute par of clothing and food and as late program in the parish hall which son, with a top dance and song; Pauline I vnch, Patricia Lynch

> Bill Taylor, who takes on the distribution to the family. wielded a broamstick as a baton amount of domage. and encouraged parents and children to sing. Later, he handed out large balloons to the kid-

Santa's helpers; in the form of members of the Legion Ludies' Auxiliary had the big-chore already completed when parcely had been wrapped and stored in hoxes on the stage for Santa to hand out.

everyone was good.

dies and kept everyone amused with his antics.

The jully old tellow arrived with a hearty Ho! Ho! and greet? ed children with a pat on the head and a handshake before sitting in his chair at the front of the auditorium to distribute parcels, candy and a promise to being toys Christmas Eve if

of the announcement posted on involved are Welting. Belting.

Notice to Employees

emphasis on these aspects of our routine administrative purposes?

mands of his office as Irquitier, sions of our Company, unplying control of othe Compains a fanances and the manage ment of creatite

Mr. Gus Ross has been appointed Plant Engineer in charge of maintenance, capital construction and steam production Mr Ross will continue to have the assistance and commet of

Mr. Charlie Hansen. Mr. Hunsen has rendered hing | stores were and valuable service to the Commany, and it is a source of great extistaction to the Board of diroctoms that he is able and will ing to continue his active suf-? port of the best interests Beardmore and Ca.

ident and general manager of appointed Supervisor to consol-Beardmore and Co Ltd., an idate as far as possible, the opnounced new staff appoint crations of our Manufacturing ments. The following is a copy 'Departments. The Departments the plant bulletin board. . . Cutsole, Specialty Crust, Speciality Finishing and Lower Shipping Room He will take over from There have been several stall Mt Lander the responsibility for appointments in recent weeks, the security personnel, which inwhich I am pleased to confirm 'cludes gatemen and watchmen. Mr. John Greifender has been Mr. Simioni's appointment, will appointed Chief Chemist of the 'provide better means of control Company He will be in charge of the particular operations; of our laboratory operations, in- mentioned above and will also cluding process control product establish a clearcut and contesting and research It is Com 'vement channel' of communicapains policy to kis increasing tion with the management for

Mr Harold Bumbridge has Mr. Lorne Youngblut has been been appointed Assistant Menaappendict Secretary of the Com-ger of our Belting Division, unpany and will be responsible for der Mr. G. C. V. Hewson. Mr. management of the office and Hambridge has been with the office personnel and accounting Company for over 30 years and M: boungblats appointment brings to his new responsibility will permit. Mr. Crenthton, to ics extensive experience in the concentrate on the increasing de Leather and Helting Sales Divis-

> W. J. Reatts. President & General Manager

This Bosing Day newspan dealers 'didn't get the

Burned Out in Friday Noon Blaze

Generous citizens, neighbors and organizations flocked to the aid of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Scarles and family of five children - two sons and three daughters, ranging in age from five to 11 - shortly after they were made homeless by fire which ravaged their home and ruined all their belongings Priday.

The family, who moved to Acon recently from North Bay. were living in the downstairs markment of the house owned by Harold Deforest Sr. on Elgin St. and had just moved in the previous day.

A neighbor, Mrs. Fred Lawson. irst noticed smoke billowing from the house and phoned in the alarm to alert firefighters.

Two trucks loaded with firefighters sped to the scene and soon water was pouring from hoses in the belowsero weather. - Firemen Idonned smoke masks to enter the house and battle the blaze. Mr. and Mrs. Sparks and one daughter returned home from shopping to find firelighters pouring water on their blazing residence. They were taken into the home of neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. G. Lamarche. The family moved into a house on Bower Avenue and almost immediately, townspeople "came to their aid with articles of clothing, furniture, Tood and even a Christmas tree and decorations. Mrs. E. T. Marks, Services at Home and Abroad convener for the Lakeside Chapter of the I.O. Weepy Steals Show D.E., began making phone calls and gathering items to give to the Sparks family. Acton Rotary "Weepy" the clown stole the Club, which shares in the Christmas service program with the > as Tuesday, items were still be- concluded with the arrival of Katherine Hinton with a recita- and Murrel Holmes. ing handed in to Mrs. Marks for Santa Claus.

St. Alban's S.S. Concert on Friday concert 'at 'St. Alban's Church Hiam Laing as wise men. the arrival of Santa Claus during neighbors also donated articles ents and triends watched the Elaine Johnson and Librais John Storey, Donna Lee Spielvogel, damage to the house, owned by Harold Deforest Sr., is around $2,000. Firefighters are shown as they douse a blaze in a chesterfield chair which had been carried outside.

In the nativity sketch were Jame Withers and Conthin Lee; nursery class role of a clown at various Legion | Pire chief . Mick . Holmes be Brenda Denny as Mary, Bruce piano solo by Muriel Holmes | Sunday school superintendent functions assisted members of lieves the fire started from Sagaski as Joseph, Roger Haggett Bonnie Bristow singing and danc. Ernest Coker chalred the pro-Acton Citizens' Band as they play overheated stove pipes, but to as the innkeeper, Sandra Denny, ing, duct by Flona Gidman, and gram. The rector, the Rev. D. A. ed Christmas carols when he date has not determined the Janet Gidman and Fiona Gidman Lynda Harris; tap dance and West, opened the program with as angels, Sammy Schonnop and song by Rosalind Hall and an act prayer and welcomed guests

-A nativity play was one of the Stephen Mellor as shepherds, cordion solo by Brenda Denny show Saturday afternoon at the 1.0.D.E., rallied to the call to highlights of the Sunday school, Randy Coker, John Last and Wil Taking part in a choral group were Nancy McCutcheon, Glynts ed children waiting eagerly for Private citizens, a church and Friday evening. A crowd of par Also on the program were Johnson, Linda Hatris, Debra tion and piano solo; a duct by There were group songs by the

Neleone... to a new year

A complete 366 days stretch ahead for reliving the Christmes message of goodwill to men ... hundreds of chattenges to live unselfishly. May the new year hold the best for you and may we each the Acton High School "At Home" Thursday evening ere, Bill Robertson and his friends Doris loffet. The auditorium was gaily decorated with streamers and tables set up around the walls and the Home Economics com was decorated in a Christmas setting as dancers en-