

Spilling Five Pins at the Acton Bowling Lanes

by Ken Hufford

High School
 Jan. 6: The High School students returned to their books of learning and league bowling and the O.C.'s marked the occasion by shutting out the Moonshiners with Jim Jennings 210 and John Price 219 getting the victory. Moonshiners apparently had Moonshine in their eyes, no mentionables were forthcoming. Longshots headed the stages of Don Long 213-213 and Harry Gehrich 210 into a two and total win at the expense of the Golden Hawks who won the last game when Fay Adams came up with 206. Tommie touched off a two and total win from the Untouchables, pretty near won 'em all but missed the second call by 20 pins. The victory of 241-245 from "Doc"y Harris paced the Tenthite win. Untouchables missed out.

League standing: Untouchables 67, O.C.'s 51, Longshots 51, Tommie 51, Golden Hawks 35, Moonshiners 4.

Headovers
 Jan. 6: White Hopes were the big ground gainers this trip, they stepped Dreamers down with a win Dreamers ran into tough luck, lost the first game by 19 pins and the second by 37. For White Hopes it was a win with George Williamson 223 and "Yumping" Yonny Robinson 206-007. For Dreamers it was just a dream, Yoppies won the first game from Red Devils by 4 pins and pulled at their temerity, went into a decline and lost the next two and total. "Tinnie" Mamas 644 and "Honey" Doozy Murray 655 topped Yoppies, trundling with "Dennis the Menace" Crooks 630, Lyle Cripps 645 and John Fabian 257 tripling and singling for Red Devils. Rolling Room rolled up two fast wins on the Hot Shots but the Hot Shots got hot in the finale and made with the win and capped the odd point for totals by 6 pins. Howie Junk 630, John Dennis 231 and "Hudlin" Mac Lambert 266-215 had the triple and singles for Rollers "Big Al" Pavli 670, Ed Parent 214, Don MacKay 202 were in a like vein for Hot Shots.

Intercounty Bowling
 Jan. 11: The trip to Port Credit Bowl was successful for Acton Merchants 'A' bowling team.

C.N.R. TRAFFIC WAS HELD UP here one wintry day when a half ton pickup truck and a tractor plow slid off the platform at the station onto the main line. Jack McCallum was plowing the heavy snow on the platform with his tractor plow, assisted by the truck when both went off the platform. Two tow trucks hauled the vehicles off the track before the train could pull into the station.

They won four out of five games for a six point win. Acton Merchants 'B' did not fare so well. Going into the fifth and last game, the games stood at two and two and Acton were on to 21 pins down on totals. Five boxes in this, the last game spell disaster for Acton and they had to be content with a two game in and two points.

Acton Merchants 'A' H. Johnstone 1063 (50), J. Bullough 1189 (318), G. Masales 1039 (50), J. Fryer 1102 (50), D. Green 951 (50). Total 5344.

Port Credit 'A' B. Beard 625 (40), B. Ruse 1066 (50), H. Linthorne 961 (57), D. Kennedy 946 (43), D. McPherson 1074 (47), T. Roach 317 (16), J. Shank 697 (37). Total 5276.

Acton Merchants 'B' B. Agnew 1052 (50), F. Morton 131 (10), D. Crooks 313 (20), D. Brown 969 (50), C. Pevcha 1101 (50), D. De

IGA DOLLAR DAYS SALE

Hello! Did you get your "I. G. A. Dollar Days Sale" handbill in your mail? Isn't that some sale!

"Yes, Mary, it sure is! Have you ever seen such terrific values at budget-saving prices! Anyone who doesn't take advantage of this terrific "Dollar Days Sale" at I.G.A. is really missing out on savings! I think everyone should shop at I.G.A. That store really pays off - The whole family takes advantage of the premiums, while my interest is in value, the best in Table Rio meats and table fresh produce, daily."

"Well, Sue, one big advantage, too, is the free delivery. And there's courteous service in every department. That new added attraction of the "Free Trip to Nassau" creates a nice dream: My husband also says "we should support the store whose management supports all community projects" and I know they sponsor many sports activities. Come to think of it, it's a first class store!"
