

Spilling Five Pins at the Acton Bowling Lanes

by Ken Hulford

High School

Jan. 27: Golden Hawks were on the win wing and clipped Un- touchables for a three game win. They won the first hand down, the second by three pins and the last by four and there was glory in the ranks of Untouchables. Kevin Gervais singled 231 for Hawks with Merl Harris getting 210 for Untouchables. Without any top scores to their credit, G.O.'s made with a three game win from Longshots who were trying and getting nowhere. Moonshiners were the first two from Terminus, they Don Price came up with 345 and Terminus were in for a last game win. Moonshiners took totals.

Beardmore

Jan. 27: Rulling Room did what they've been wanting to do for a long time—they took Red Devils for two and totals. Phil LeSueur 210, Bill Buchanan 236, Mac Lamb 213-225 and Howie Jank 200-220 got Bullers' singles. For Red Devils, it was Lyle Crisp 221, Al Ruch 201 and Dennis Crooks 210-211. After losing the first to their trance and made with a two game totals win. Joyce Masales 269, Edoe Fountain 230 and Helen LeSueur 211 paced Drummers. Roger Murray 209 and Vic Rouch 268 singled for Toppers. White Hopes went to town and with Ben Baylis 714, George Williamson 643, Arlie White 632 and "Yumping Yehony" Robson 613, cooled off Hot Shots with a three game win. "Elmer the Great" White 603, Ed Parent 631 and "Dapper Don" MacKav 256 were best in Hot Shots' losing cause.

League standing: Red Devils 103, Rulling Room 92, White Hopes 81, Hot Shots 59, Toppers 59, Drummers 46.

Legion Ladies

Jan. 27: Bombers, with a two and totals win, from the first place Bombers, lightened up the solo for Moonshiners. After losing the first to Pushovers, Underdogs got a little punchy and won the next two and totals. Second game was close—15 pins decided it. Mary a mentionable in this affair. Screwballs had it on the ball as far as Hot Dogs were concerned—they won all games with Joan Knight 627, Heinz Hasler 238, George Taylor 235 and Bob Caldwell getting the triple and singles. We'll draw the curtain of secrecy over Hot Dogs' efforts.

League standing: Hot Dogs 78, Screwballs 72, Underdogs 59, Moonshiners 56, Pushovers 51, Hot Dogs 41.

Tri-State

Jan. 28: Mohawks are back in first place as the result of taking two and totals from Pin Dusters. Jean Meier 457 (174) and Pat McLean 433 (187) paced Mohawks. Linda Jarvis 387 (156) and Catherine Freeman 384 (149) dusted off the pins for "Dusters". With Phyllis Jarvis 353 (199) and Dot Jennings 448 (178) leading the crowd, Alley Cats made with a seven pin win from Alley Rockers. "Diamond Lil" 409 (187) and Lenore Roberts 441 (203) were best for Alley Rockers in a losing cause.

Blue Springs Nursery

Jan. 28: Orchids won the first from Weeping Willows with no trouble. They had a bit of a drop for the second but managed it the third but "Weeps" had other ideas and shared it by 18 pins. Audrey Urquhart 360 (220), Sylvia Mages 454 (175) and Mac Curtis 426 (175) were Orchids' top trio. Shirley Hunter 505 (260), Rheta Goodwin 434 (173) and Sharon Owen 490 (211) and Maxine Gough 425 (163) came up with a two and totals win from Petunias, who waited until the last game before coming to life. Eleanor Gou's 481 (165) stood out for Petunias. Lilacs had no trouble taking all games from the short handed Pansies. Lois Walker 487 (216), Cheryl Phillips 447 (180) and Betty Wilson 444 (188) were Lilacs' top trandling trio. Cathy Campbell turned in a 476 (174) for Pansies.

League standing: Orchids 76, Lilacs 70, Petunias 61, Sweet Peas 58, Pansies 57, Weeping Willows 46.

Micro Plastics

Jan. 28: Hot Shots were off and running for a fast two game win against Moonshiners, then Moonshiners came out from behind the clouds and wound up with a big win, to take totals. Jim Kelman 631 was hot for Hot Shots. Herb Schubert got up early in the morning for his 220.

League standing: Red Devils 103, Rulling Room 92, White Hopes 81, Hot Shots 59, Toppers 59, Drummers 46.

Industrial-Commercial

Jan. 20: Ridley Carriage came up with one of their better efforts and took Canadian Tire for two and totals with Bob "Thin M" Martin 732, Don Green 633 and Ken Hulford 621 leading the hit parade. "Dennis the Menace" Crooks 649 and Jeff Eyer 674 headed up the Canadian Tire roll. Masson Motors won the first from Gitto Electric and then, Males and the "Electric Lads" were in for two and totals. Don DeForest 714 and Wito Near 606 paced the Gitto win. Have to mention the single of Joe "Bossanova" Gitto—his last game was 304. The first two-phased Masson Motors couldn't find the switch for triple. With Jim Bullough 743 (302), Bob Shannon 643 and Martin DeHoch 608, Ledger's I.G.A. rang up a triple win from Blow Press, who threatened on several occasions but blew the duke when the chips were down.

League standing: Canadian Tire 84, Ledger's I.G.A. 84, Gitto Electric 68, Ridley Carriage 68, Blow Press 47, Masson Motors 27.

Acton Ladies

Jan. 29: Acton Creamery got away with a four pin win in the first against Masales Dairy, then went on to win the next two, for a clean sweep and took over top spot as a result. Norma Robinson 214, Pauline Herrington 227 and Catherine McMillan 304 singled for the "Creamery Kids". Dorlene McIntyre 247, Dodi McGilloway 200 got the Masales Dairy solos. Acton Jersey Dairy gave Ledger's I.G.A. the short end of a 52 go after losing the first game by 10 pins. Marion

Jan. 30: Gold Stripe had a split first two game win from the Pros, then the Pros found themselves and capped the last chucker. Jeff Eyer 754 (357) and Leo McGiloway 603 had Stripes' triples. They also had a couple of neat doubles—Ed McGiloway 410 and Ross Morton 453. "Fearless Fred" Kenner entered fanned his team mates with a rendition of "Where is my Wandling Ball Tonight?" Ken Johnson posted 617 for Pros. They missed the "Thin M" Dominion Hotel made it two and totals from Acton Billiards. Captain Bill Shannon was speechless when his "One Hoss" dropped the middle game by three pins. Chuck Pevcha 770 (314) and Phil LeSueur 639 were instrumental in cancelling the tomato juice for the "Wasawitz Wallpapers". Who Near 655, Gino De Bartolo 610 and Jim "Sleepy" Bulhough 438 (double) were Billiards' tops. After winning a recent first game from Soccer Club, Paul's Men's Wear settled down to business and won the next two for a clean sweep. Don DeForest 692, Carlo DeForest 679 and Bill Williams 638 hit the triple plateau for Paul's Soccer Club kicked the gang around.

Teens-in-Under

Feb. 1: Happy Gang were quite happy with their two game win from Defenders. Black Cats also did a little chortling over their double win from Top Cats and Jetsuns were quite amug with their one game and totals win from Lucky Strikers. Making the "Big Ten" this trip were Barry Buchanan 152-166 (318), Gary Price 176-123 (309), Bryan Dorn 175-128 (303), Bob Price 194-103 (297), Helen Harris 129-165 (294), Earl Butler 124-168 (292), Ken Owen 145-109 (254), Bob Turkusz 124-121 (245), Jim Loy 117-127 (244), Craig Perkins 107-110 (236).

Headpin Hillies

Jeff Fryer got back on the award plateau with a 157 single and won the McGregor socks from Equine Men's Shup. Chas Pevcha came up with a 770 triple to win Paul's Men's Wear voucher. Mary Cooney, with a 274 single, picked up the Ledger's I.G.A. voucher. Winning the bottled refreshments of Coca-Cola, Seve-Up and Reimbaris for bowling best over average were "Tenero" Ricky Fivortico, Gary Price, Heather Buchanan and Jane Latham. That winds it up once again, amigoo, so adios and goodnight, Millmae.

Intercounty Bowling

Feb 1: Twice a sad day for Acton Merchants when Streetsville

Streetsville 'A' won two games and took the total pinfall for four points, leaving three for Acton. Acton Merchants 'B' fared even worse—the best they could manage was a two game win. The Merchants will have to come up with some wins west Saturday when they travel to Georgetown. Play-off time looms closer and closer and from here in, every point will count.

Acton Merchants 'A': B. Johnston 1119 (50), J. Mullough 1061 (50), J. Shannon 1065 (50), J. Fryer 1051 (50), D. Grein 1043 (50), Total 5379.
