Porter Water Pressure Down Company Asks Council Relief

sprinkler system at the H. K. cil's consideration. Porter Company may cause the! No decision was taken on the plant to be considered "un problem but No. 2 committee sprinkled" according to insurance was instructed to investigate the companics. This information was given to New Bridge Yenders council Tuesday evening tollow- Yenders will be orened Febing a meeting with No. 2 commit- mary 28 for construction of new ter and plant officials Tom bridges on Brock Avenue and Shields and William Parsons | Church St. W. Estimated cost for Committee chairman Hamilton the two projects is $24,000 of Peal in reporting the meeting which the Department of Highwith the two men said insurance, was s pays 80 per cent. companies had threatened to! The bridge projects were class the plant as heing without budgeted for last year and tenda sprinkler system because presilers were called recently No. 2; town to install a larger water for a contractor. main from the existing 12 inch. Town engineers will study main much of the company pro-specification from the chosen perty in order to correct water contractor before final approval problems. A tentative cost of $12, is given by the DOH.

Lack of water pressure in the 1000 was tossed around for coun-water problem further.

the tenders and make a recom? Plant officials had asked the mendation to council on its choice:

First Class Rates

Won't Be There

Town May Buy Truck From Hydro for $100 Town workmen may inherit an substation January 23 and after betrloom from the hydro commiss a period of an hour had to be sion if council sees fit to spend switched back to Guelph. $100 to purchase the ladder truck. The switching had taken place During last Thursday's hydro as an experiment as the line bemeeting, commissioners agreed to tween. Guelph. and. Rockwood. let the old truck go to the town needs rebuilding and Acton's power supply comes from Guelph. for a century note.

Thinking of safety, chairman It the Pleasant substation could E. G. Tyler wasn't too sure. "If it have supplied power to Acton a Isn't fit for our men then it's temporary, switch would have not fit for the town men," he taken place while fine rebuilding said. He agreed to the transfer was going on. providing the town was going Commissioner Gordon Beatts to wreck the vehicle and salvage (absent at the previous meeting) treversed his first notice of the Superintendent Doug Mason switching program and wondered wondered if approval might again, if Ontario Hydro was handing be given to have his crew, equip the Acton Commission "a lot of ped with the new squirt beam, double talk" as far as the Rockto assist town men in trimming would to Guelph line is concerntimes. Other years this combina 'ed. Previously the local commistion had "worked out time", with som had asked Ontario Hydro to the hydro trimming and the town check out the town's power facmen hauling limbs away. Ap tor as commissioners were of the prenal was given.

One commissioner asked if the Hydro said the line was alright superintendent was aware they buum (which juts over the end! Superintendent Mason said On hers will remain unpaid. with a red flag according to Deston would be supplied with power 13, a motion to pay the chair section until a full slate of mem-; sioners. (2) the Acton commispartment of Transport rules, while the Guelph-Rockward line man $12 and members $10 per bers was present. This is a nice piece of business is being rebuilt since the Pleasant meeting was voted down in last. Throughout Thursday's meeting from other commissions on acto have to go around with a $1,000, substation couldn't handle the minute action, with only seconds. Mr Beatty quietly referred to the count of not receiving payment. unit flying a piece of red under-textra load. wear." quipped Mr. Arbic Com-! Mr Beatty stated he was afraid ment hour.

donated by Ontario Hydro clear wish to discount us 40 per cent tive. ly identified with signs. . .

and the public will be allowed to tour the building.

Hour's Trial . large enough to supply Acton with gistrations made. The writer of raised.

SCHOOL OPERETTA presented by pupils from the M. Z. Bennett school last night (Wednesday) will play a repeat performance again tonight at the Robert Little School auditorium. Entitled "The Green and Silver Bowl", the three-act operatie is of Irish theme and depicts an accentric earl who collects antique vases: as a hobby. Three Wednesday night characters, left to right are leprechaun Nancy Lee, Frances Higgins who plays Eileen and Jackie Lee as Connell.

Pack School Auditorium Wednesday Operetta Continues Again Tonight

Irish wit and charm were Lee, Wayne Gohn, Heather Mc Laprochauns' Role' depicted to a full house at the Cutcheog, Jessie Ann. Davidson, "Appearing both nights as lepter rects the choir scated in front of Robert Little school auditorium Lorene Paul and Brenda Mc chauns are Bill Severinsky, Andy the stage last night (Wednesday) when krown. Green and Silver Bowl."

school's year for the operetta Heather Ann Dumarsh Tomght's Lin Reiners and Bob Hatch and West and Bob Duly

Main characters who exhibited enthusiasin and ability in playing their parts included Gail Mc Jackie Lee as nephew Connell Mark Horst as the fool Barta. Julie Smith, Chris Brunelle, Teris Dowding and Jeanie Sproston

Main character changes for tonight's presentation will be Jennifer Bishop, Bob Hatt, Jim

Donations

St. John Ambulance Brigade appeal total: $227 to date. Donations go to Chester Anderson at the Hank of Nova Scotla. This is a local appeal for a local group which works here in our district. Brigade menhere are faithfully on duty at many events and have helped

Churchill and I vinda Reiners

"The residents take the view ca, five members of council, four from the town and subsequently the park area was designated as members of the planning board purchased additional land at the

of their properties and they re-residential construction. In its to be constructed If the rezon Hacility from them . . . They 'cel parks board did not consider it by 'a credit to the locality" there should have been consulta feasible to develop the property. Mayor Duby pointed out the tion before the park was taken as a park Planning board had length of time the property had is going to proceed," emphasized by the Minister, but the zoning pavers might cut the grass the Leishman park area on Mill. K. Hardinan of the planning quired by council to provide the The hearing, called by council area and the proximity of the Mr Payne pointed ont that the last Thursday evening, was to school playgrounds were factors preamble to the deed, under discuss and investigate the mun-influencing the board's recom- which the land in question was icipality's proposal to sell the mendation for teroning. Aldo acquired by the town, refers to property and rezone it as resi- Braida, representing purchasers the property as the "John R.

Miller, Bob Parsons, Larry Hol. The operator was capable put nearly 400 saw the M. Z. Bennett. Seamus, one of the beggars, mes, John Last, Michael Field, together in only thise weeks wheat operetta entitled "The was played by Henry Van Stralen, James Tordan, Nancy Lee, But There were many hours of sewing Wednesday night and will be de bara Browne and Sherri Lott and pressing for mothers' Who The three-act play set to filling picted by Paul Braida tonight. Casts for townspeople, jobbers essisted teacher. Mrs. Norm Irish tunes depicts eccentric Earl, Other beggars in the two night and earl's attendants will be the Turner with customes Property Dimwitter in his search for a cast are Bob Andrews, Dugald same both nights. Townspeople and serners was in charge of as lost bowl from his collection. It Dick and Brian Binnic are Brenda Scutt, Alan Thomp sistant principal Walter Dulwis, is directed by music supervisor. Castle maids in fast night's son. Beverly Howard, Nancy teacher Larl Brears and Mrs. Glenn Banks and teachers Mrs vast included Beverly Brunelle Catto Sherri Johnston Lenore Dubois In charge of makeup are Arlene Bruce and Nels Edwards, Donna Williams, Pam Puncheon, Dowling, and Gordon Williams R R Parker Mrs William Spros This was the M. Z. Bennett Trene Anderson, Par Last and Robbers are Dong Burcombe Al ton, Mrs. Jack Dowding, Rac which will be presented again castle maids will be Judy Jordan, the earl's attendants Jim Peycha. Prior to the three act play tonight (Thursday). The other Debbie Jordan, Lanet Braida and Mike Cooper populs of the jumor grades preschool will stage an operetta next Heather. McGeachie, Margaret. Music supervisor tilen. Banks sented songs and skits which deplays the piano while, as an in lighted the interested audience of this play area. The park was a tives.

Hugh at East Dimenter, France, Residents Oppose Zoning Change For Sale of Leishman Park Land

senting ratepayers in the area of conform.

board reported the size of the park area such and chose their lots because and two parks board representa- rear of the park area to increase the size of the lots to meet area !tactor in their decision to move. Mayor I. Duby outlined the requirements. He assured the there. The park adjacent to theat steps taken by council in decid tratepayers they need have no property does improve the value ing to rezone the land to permit worries about the type of homes sent any attempt to remove the investigation, council learned the ing goes through, the homes will from them ... The transactions agreed the area was suitable for been in its present state and said fare backward-there should have residential purposes -- with wa. "the parks board has never taken been a hearing first... The ter and sewer services on the any steps to improve it "Mis. board is required to follow the street, the municipality would William Roszell pointed out Jim Act. The Ministers' approval has like to derive any revenue pos. Morrison cut the grass last year. not been received.... The board sible in the area A change in the. John Buckman suggested that will have to follow the rules if it official plan has been approved if the property was level, the rate-solicitor Bruce E. Payne, repre by law has not been changed to. Miss Jean Barber reported her uncle, John Leishman, was re-ing were 16 ratepayers of the ar- clients had purchased the lots: (Continued on Page Two) opinion the supply line was not adequate. At the time Ontario Hydro said the line was alright to go before the 10 p.m. adjourn- payment question several times, (3) the public generally favored bissioner Beatty wondered if in 'Acton was caught in the middle | Chairman E. G. Tyler St. cast renewed when he asked outright | Mr. Beatty said the statement sarrance coverage was high enough of the line and was taking the the deciding ballot to break an what had taken place at the pre a higher calibre candidate would brunt of the problem. "In the evident deadlock as newly elect your meeting. Councillor Arbic thought the aprinterest of the people and in ad members Doug Dawkins and pliances donated to the Robert dustry we should find out what is Wilfred McEachetn nodded in the Little school should be identified, poing to happen to the power. I affirmative while commissioner. Chairman Tyler said the subas coming from the Acton Com-would like straightforward facts. Gord Beatty and council represents had been discussed briefly. He also claimed too many were the school be noticed appliances second class service. If Ontario et Ray Arbic held tast in the negativitation beautiful to payment to could get out of it. "That's what's the familiar tune "Smoke Gets performance bond for the concollection trips accounted for the mission. During a recent visit to We're paying first class rates for sentative and former commission, when new members had asked in public office for what they the Pleasant (near Brampton) On-vention in Toronto. Notice had be was absent) at which time half.

power. The power upply normal the letter expressed his alarm; During that last meeting Mayor to go on and both Five Press bers he did not fault them for able payment to commissioners secting (1) better capillettes are dentist land. Attending the meet- of the property, pointed out his Leishman Memorial Park.... of the truck) should be marked tario Hydro didn't know how Ac. On Thursday evening, February, but urged postponement of any attracted by payment to commistinally got the subject formally payment to the commission.

"Didn't Get Far"

home is completely all-electric Guelph-Rockwood line is rebuilt. over to Acton Hydro Flectric Com was chaning a public bearing at runs for financial gain is not like site. mission, sparked the near 60 the town hall the same evening. Is to make a useful contribution A letter from the O.M.E.A, re-minute discussion when he re-told commissioners he had been to the commission, he said. quested the commission's an ferred to newspaper reports of asked by the mayor to attend the turio Hydro power station is not been given previously and no rest the payment issue had been first. Commissioner Beatty admitted because he was a paid councillor. switched over to the Pleasant (Continued on Page Three) member of council he was hardly the previous meeting agreed on of the opinion the issue should cost for contracted garbage col. would be touched," he stressed smoke caused from burning rubseveral main points. He also said be resolved immediately. . there was very little mention of the payment subject recorded in | Commissioner Beatty wondered

Beatty received affirmative an- ers were being ridiculed. swers that the following points (Continued on Page Two).

sion was the object of laughter be fured into office if pay was. received was "dead wrong."

Upholds Position

Conneillor Arbic said be didn't It only took one hour to prove swer regarding attending a con- the previous hydro meeting (when meeting and speak on his be-feel he was in an awkward spot in opposing the payment issue budget and a search for a new means a cost of two mills to. Deputy-Reeve I Bert Wood said Commissioner Beatty admitted because he was a paid councillor, dump site would be renewed. Taxpavers would result if garbage it didn't matter where a dump

Who's Laughing?

"Who was laughing at us?", but Mr. McLachern thought the his query was not answered. Mr. story" of the payment issue dis both Georgetown and Milton Utilities at both staff and administra-To point blank queries asked tive level he had heard nothing Mr. McLachern, commissioner that indicated Acton commission

Another Addict

Town Dump Still Smoking New Site Council's Cure

former P.U.C. members and wrong with municipal govern in your Eyes" could easily have tractor. wondered if it might be renew ment in our country. I feel it's been background music for councillor Ray Arbic told mem-tenance costs. He thought last Members all agreed to take It was agreed to ask Ontario. Mr. Beatty, who sponsored the ed. "It didn't get too far," he a good thing for a small commission Tuesday evening as bers No. 2 committee had estimate year, when connect considered sion like ours to set an example members discussed garbage collect labor plus 75 per cent of opera 'looking for a new disrip site and mittee it was learned purchase of feeling, location of a new dump sion. Mayor Les Duby said this borhood of $12,000 and this. Truck depreciation for garbage gupped, "Another answer is to amount would not include com 'collection only was the main cop-spend about a quarter of a mit mercial or industrial collection, cern of councillor Alex Johnson lion dollars for an incinerator" gathering of Christmas trees or a who was of the opinion garbage. . (Continued on Page Two) at the new home of Mr and Mrs. of what will be done about the payment plan at the time when Councillor Arbic, who Thursday of public service," stated the lection and the inconvenience to ton and covering garbage, not tendering garbage collection out, W. J. McLevil this weekend. The power supply at the time the the torner PUC was changed was representing the mayor who commissioner. Any person who residents near the present dump including maintenance on trucks, it was on the right track towards. During the report of No. 2 com. He said it was the committee's tion" created in Glonlea subdivi-

Could Cost $12,000

a new truck and covering of the site would be the cheapest me, had been so at the time but costs dump by Nellis Construction thod of overcoming problems at prohibitest contracting garbage would be included in this year's the present dump. "In effect it collection It was reported an estimated only about half the town parbage area would still complain of DRAMA CLUS at the Acton High School will present "The Valiant" Thursday, February 27 at the school. Members of the cast are busy with practice sessions. Pictured reviewing the acript left to right are Nancy Rognvaldson, who plays Josephine Paris; David Lidkea as Wardon Holt; teacher and drama club coach Miss June McConnell; Ralph Matthews as James Dyke and John MacDonald as, the faller. Missing when picture was taken is Rick Whyte who plays. the part of Father Daly.

At Speyside Would Build 32 Apartments development on 40 acres of land, extent such costs are eligible for near Spesside by W. Ollen.

Mr. Ollen outlined to members his plans to build tour eight. The Area Public School Board tamily units of apartments. Each asked approval of a $150,000 of the four apartments would be school expansion program that struction could create a school sidering the matter further. problem but members' agreed to review the proposal with the Plan-

The lowest hid was 98.25.

strict High School Board pro dents.

Liquesing Township Council posal for an addition at the Wil-Monday agreed to review with its, hams Ave. High School estimated planning board a proposal for to cost $700,000, but only to the located on 10 acres of land. He would add three rooms at Glen isked council's approval of the Williams and three rooms at Stewarttown. Council asked for a Reeve G. Leslie noted the con-breakdown at costs before con-

Seek Breakdown

A meeting has been arranged, it was reported, to meet with the Minister of Highways concerning The council accepted the bid of an improved road to the Terra Anderson and Co., agents for the Cotta Conservation area. Ywu Rival Bank, of 98.25 on $50,000 routes are under consideration detenture issue for the Piner's and in each case Esquesing School. The bonds will be over share is $16,100. The township of M years and hear five and three ficials are pressing for a greater quarter per cent interest. The bld than 80 per cent subsidy, arguing was the best of seven received. the road is more a convenience to city dwellers using the conser-Council approved the Milton Di- vation area, than to lownship resi-PIRE CHIEF MICK HOLMES looks through rubbish cleaned from the furnace at Peacock school following a minor blaze Friday. Pieces of paper and dust which fell through the large open register in the centre of the one-room school smouldered on the furnace baffle below, causing the room-to-fill-with smoke. Teacher Mrs. Margaret Somerville vacated the school of pupils in a hurry when smoke began to pour out of the register.