

A DECAYING ELK HORN was found in their back yard Saturday, by Gary, Ronald and Kenneth Mayes, sons of John Mayes of R.R. 1, Campbellville. The horn, 43 inches long and four inches thick at the base, had six "points" on it, signifying it was shed by an older animal. Few recall when the last Elk were seen around the district. Here the brothers proudly display their prize.

Win 11-5

Tanners Tie Set Sunday

The Acton Tanners showed 11 shots into the Milton net and coasted to an 11-5 win, before the largest crowd of the season in Milton, on Sunday afternoon. More than 500 anxious spectators, many of them from Acton, watched the Tanners build up a 7-1 lead in the first period and never fall behind in the game. The win for Acton evened the best of three league semifinal set at one game each.

After each team scored once in the first two minutes of play, the Tanners built loose for six unanswered tallies before the end of the period. Jim Cashburn put the Tanners in front at the 39 second mark and 37 seconds later Jack Roberts tied the count.

Final Standing Top Scorers In Town League

Final standings and top scorers of the Legion town league were released this week by minor sports officials of branch 197. The Legion league turned over its ice rink this Saturday to the Four Town Tournament so play-off in the town league will not start until ice is available.

Elect Arn McDuffe Director Of Annual Juvenile Tourney

Plans for the biggest and best director, Art Snarr, co-director entry from was received in time. Alan Parton of Milton, Ted Hammond of Oakville, Bob Patterson of Guelph, Don Jarvis of Georgetown and Jim O'Krafska of Hespeler, George Fletcher of Milton is referee in chief this year. For the sixth consecutive year Milton will host the tournament on Easter weekend. Founded in 1959 by former Miltonian Art Snarr, the tournament has been the training ground for several NHL prospects with stars such as Jim Jago, Rod Seiling, Gary Dineen, Paul Popel, John Hartig, Jim Patterson, Bill Collins, Ron Ellis and Andre Chaine having performed in tournament action.

Over 350 juvenile aged boys from 24 Ontario centres will participate in tournament this year, some for three divisions, "A", "B", and "C". Last year the Milton Pontiac Juveniles captured the "C" division crown in the tournament and Pontiac star Ross McKeown copied the MVP Award.

McDuffe Is Director

At a recent tournament executive meeting, Milton's Art McDuffe, first vice-president of the Toronto Hockey Association and coach of the Milton Rotary Midlets, was named Tournament Director for 1964. Other tournament executive members include secretary John McLean of Milton, treasurer Harry Arbie of Milton, register Bill Barrell of R.R. 1, Milton, founder and past

Stu Hammatt, Bob McKay, Ron Phillips, Jack Roberts and John Heipel scored for Milton. Bob Hayes had two assists and single helpers went to Brian McDuffe, Ron Phillips, Jack Roberts, Bud McKenney and Gord Bell.

Two last period brawls brought the crowd to their feet, as Phil Alcumina took on Bob Marshall and Don Wilson tangled with Acton goalie Norm Lockhart. Acton won both contests with split decisions.

Emmerson Xavier aggravated an old knee injury during the third period and will be lost for the remainder of the games.

Pull Goals

They hit the post, bounced the puck off crossbars, past the open corners, and as a fast resort Jim pulled goals. Lockhart in the final minute of play for an extra forward, Veteran Johnny Heipel of the visitors broke into the clear and potted a shot into the empty net for Milton, putting the game on ice in the last few seconds.

Spectators went home shaking their heads wondering how a team could play so poorly for 20 minutes and then dash up a sparkling brand of hockey for 40 seconds.

Goalie Fred Leaver of the Charles must have removed his horse shoes first, then breathed a sigh of relief.

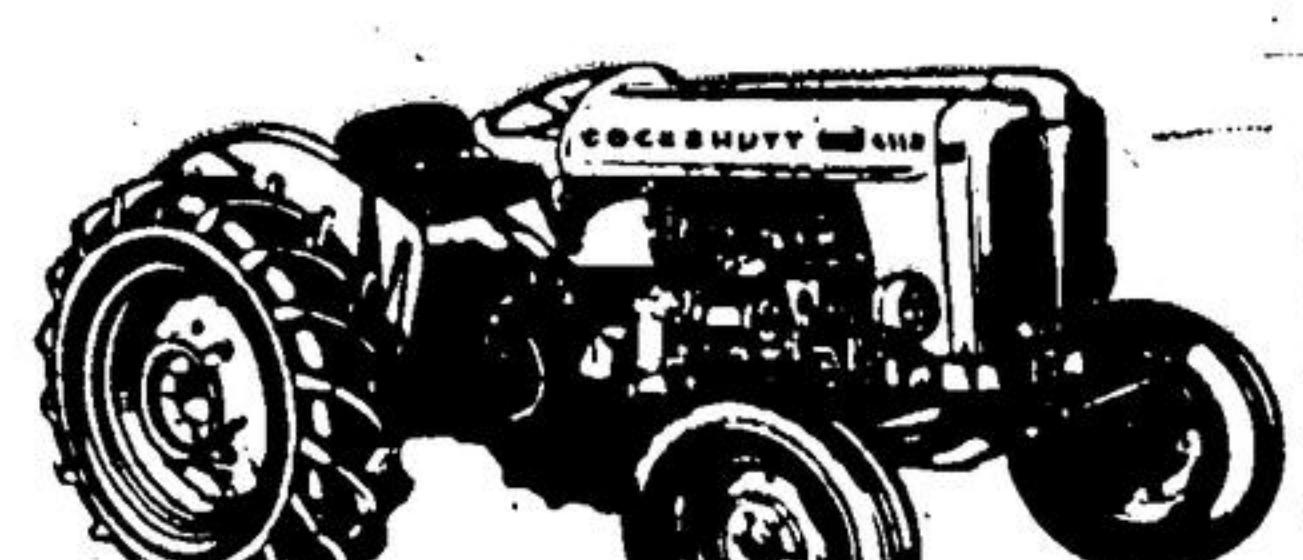

Ron Phillips and Jack Roberts with two goals apiece were the big guns for Milton, Gord Bell, Brian McDuffe, Stu Hammatt and Johnny Heipel notched one a piece.

For the Tanners, Harold Townsley was the only player to light the lamp more than once. He bagged two. Ugo Bolzon, Bud Haines, Ron Mellon and Jim Casburn hit the target once each.

Two assists each were collected by Paul Barber, Jim Cashburn and Ugo Bolzon while Max Stafford, Stu McDonald, Bud Haines and Harold Townsley recorded one apiece.

Penalties which played a part in two Milton goals and one for Acton were assessed 14 times by referees Doug Simpson and Barry Reid. Harold Townsley scored one while the Tanners played shorthanded.
