

Lorne Scots Band, Salvation Army, Kinsmen Provide Variety Programs

By Miss Marjorie Thompson
 Rev. J. L. Graham conducted the church service on Sunday afternoon, February 23. Having announced that he would conduct the service as an appropriate one for the second Sunday in Lent, he read part of Chapter 16 of St. Matthew's Gospel as the Scripture lesson.

Mr. Graham's sermon stressed the fact that it is the work of the Christian Church to change the souls of men and women, bringing into those souls hope and comfort to replace fear and suffering. To illustrate how precious every soul is to God, he drew the attention of the congregation to three parables of the lost: the lost sheep, the parable of the lost coin and the parable of the Prodigal Son.

Mrs. H. Magee was the organist.

After the church service on this same Sunday, a large audience assembled in the auditorium to hear a very fine band concert played by the Lorne Scots' Military Band with Captain Corlett conducting. There were close to 40 bandmen in the band.

As always is the case when this band visits the Manor, the band proved its versatility by playing a program that displayed great variety.

Several marches were played. The concert opened with the Concert Band's March and closed with La Roquina, a Spanish March. The American March Dixie and a French selection featuring the Marchaise were also played. Selections from Gilbert and Sullivan's comic opera The Mikado, and a medley from the Broadway show Carousel were familiar and tuneful. Waltzes were represented by Waldteufel's Espana Waltz and overtures by the Concord Overture—all in all there were twelve numbers on the program.

A very reverent and inspiring mid-week prayer service was conducted in the chapel on Tuesday night, February 25, by nine ladies who are members of the Home League of the Salvation Army. Mrs. Captain Nelson, the wife of the commanding officer of the Brampton Corps and Mrs. G. Munro, the secretary of the Home League were in charge of the service. Mrs. Munro was the leader and Mrs. Nelson played the organ and delivered the Bible message.

After a hymn and prayer, Mrs. Munro read an article on The Comfort of the Scriptures. This was followed by the singing of the hymn Sweet Hour of Prayer by the nine members of the League. One of the members of the League then read Psalm 91, and two other members sang a duet, Jesus My Lord Will Love Me Forever.

Before delivering her inspiring little address, Mrs. Captain Nelson read a poem, Growing Old. She spoke then on the topic, The Key of Prayer. Beginning with a practical illustration, an explanation of the uses of the keys on her own key-ring, Mrs. Nelson said that prayer is a key by which we may enter Heaven. She asked the question, what is the time for prayer, and answered it by saying that David said we should pray morning, noon and night and that Paul urged his fellow-Christians to pray unceasingly.

Mrs. Nelson went on to describe the Lord's Prayer as the most comprehensive piece of writing in all literature. She closed her address by saying that by using the key of prayer we can become the embodiment of what God wants us to be.

Kinsmen Bingo
 Twenty games of bingo, played for twenty-five prizes, all donated by the Kinsmen Club of Milton, provided an entertaining evening when the Kinsmen conducted their monthly bingo at the Manor on Wednesday night, February 26. Laverne Robinson was the caller and Soany Hall and G. Bigger assisted the handicapped and looked after the prize-tray.

Several persons were so fortunate as to win more than one prize. These were Mrs. E. Flaxman who won four, Mr. F. Vasak four, Mrs. A. Cumming two, Mrs. Forbes two, Mrs. G. Burnett two, Mrs. E. Hartless two, and Mrs. A. Collier two. One of Mrs. Hartless' prizes was a $1 bill donated for the last game of the evening by G. Bigger. Winners of one prize each were: Mrs. A. Finch, Mrs. E. Hill, Mrs. A. Agnew, Mrs. A. Hill, Misses H. Marcy and A. Reid.

Hymn Sing
 After a one-hour meeting of the Hobby Class on Thursday afternoon, February 27, the members assembled in the chapel, where they were joined by other residents for a one-hour program of hymns led by Mrs. S. Lockie. The singing of a large number of favorite hymns, many of them of the residents' own choosing, proved very enjoyable and another hour spent in this way would be eagerly anticipated. Mrs. Lockie both played the piano and led the singing.

PUBLIC SPEAKING contestants who took part in the public school finals Tuesday each received books from the Acton public school board Chairman Doug Manning presented the gifts. Left to right are Jeanette Nagel, Mark Hurst, Jean Bulmer, Mr. Manning, Gail McHugh, Bob Bonnette, Mary Lou Rogers and Barbara Nicolak. Bob Bonnette goes on to county finals Friday.

—Milton is to have a $90,000 curling rink with four lanes, lounge, lockers, kitchenette facilities, on property north of the Brewers' Retail store. Membership will be limited to 200 with a basic $150 initiation fee. It has been nearly completely subscribed.

—A broken water main last Thursday night sent water pouring down Main St. South before it was shut off.

—The Chamber of Commerce continues to make plans for the Citizen of the Year dinner. The committee had breakfast together Saturday.

—Recreation director Jim Casburn will give an address on "Fitness" at Knox church this Sunday, during National Health Week.

—Not so much a sign of spring as a sign of fall, advance price lists for the fair have been printed and distributed.

—New officers will be named at the Y's Men's meeting tonight.

—The bright paddy-green Easter seals have been mailed.

—Again this year, the Ontario government is sponsoring a campaign to develop Canadian souvenirs. An exhibit is planned as part of the Sportsmen's Show. Mrs. W. N. Hoey of Moffat, whose designs are so popular in this district where she is well-known, was a winner last year.

—A lot of people who say what they think, don't do enough thinking.

—Two more reports of robins came in this week, one from 511 Verexek and one from the centre of town. When the Free Press first reported a "robin blue breast" three weeks ago, the item was read Sunday morning on the Neighbourly News radio broadcast, so likely we hear all the other weeklies with that traditional early spring bit of information.

—Fog, rain, sleet, a golt, and then a blizzard — a March week full of weather.

—Ballmatalad hall was opened just a year ago. There was an anniversary dance on Friday.

—Started housecleaning? The classified ads will help you!

—This is National Health Week — March 8 to 14.

—The special Rockwood section in the Free Press has been well received. The ads are very informative and the news interesting.

—There isn't anything in the world so foolish as hate.

Tuesday's Blizzard Climaxes Week of Bad March Weather

Some drivers and pedestrians declared Tuesday's blizzard — driven by a biting east wind — was the worst they had ever been out in. Snow began to fall in the middle of the morning and "wild" was the word to describe the weather from then until evening. Then the wind died and the snow gradually ceased its whirling and drifting.

Some branches toppled down under the combined weight of ice and then snow, but the recent tree-trimming project likely got some other, dead branches down properly just before the storm. Ice was clattering down off the trees all day Wednesday.

Many Accidents
 There were plenty of accidents, most of them minor. Some drivers coming into town wished they had stayed at work, wherever they were.

About 10 last-minute substitutes had to be rounded up to curl in the places of out-of-town players or men having too much difficulty getting home from work out-of-town.

School Out Early
 As roads became more and more impassable, high school students were dismissed at 2:30 and the buses started on the country run early.

For a short while, with visibility very poor in the snow, a large car transport truck was stalled right in the middle of the Mill-Main corner. Other cars were snowed in, where they had been parked.

Some who had planned trips wisely cancelled them. At least one meeting — Lakeside I.O.D.E. — was cancelled.

Wind Thursday
 The snowstorm came right on the heels of another bad day Thursday of last week, when strong winds caused damage throughout the district. One plate glass window in a showroom in town moved three inches in and out during the day, knocking articles on display right off a shelf.

Limbs fell and shingles were torn off some houses. The hydro tower flickered on and off several times, pitching stores, home and factories into darkness.

Driving from Oakville, with a load of produce, Aubrey Gervais saw a tree crash down, its branches brushing the back of his truck as it fell.

Power off in the district resulted in closed schools, chilly houses and cold suppers.

Fog haunted drivers several evenings.

Sunday, Monday
 Sunday evening drizzle turned to ice, and this district was glittering all day Monday. But south of here, just below Speyside, the fairland white-and-silver countryside reverted back to its grey and muck-brown. North of Milton there was no snow, and no ice. Milton mountain was coated with ice, though.

Officer Cadets Home for Visit

Officer cadet James S. Kemping of Kemble, Ont., and his fellow student, officer cadet Peter Glynn of R.M.C., Kingston spent the weekend with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Glynn recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Leslie formerly at Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana, visited his sister, Mrs. Benno Spitzer and her husband and family last week.

Peggy McDonald and Susanne Ruddle have been hospitalized for the past two weeks for tests. We hope for better health for both very soon.

The Glyns visited his mother at St. Catharines a week ago.

Little Tracy Lichter of Kitchener visited her aunt, Mrs. Simmons one day last week, and Susan Arnold of Georgetown visited on the weekend.

Well Known Cattle Breeder

T. C. "Tommy" Amos of Moffat, a well known Shorthorn cattle breeder, died at Milton District Hospital, Thursday, March 5, in his 71st year.

Funeral service was held from the George Wall Funeral Home, Guelph, on Monday afternoon with interment at Crown Cemetery, Pushtich. Pallbearers were Grant Campbell, Murray Stewart, Duncan McFarlane, Joe McLean, Bob Shore and Andrew Frank.

Campbell Lodge No. 603, Campbellville, held a special service Sunday evening at the funeral home.

Mr. Amos had suffered a heart attack only two days before his death. Survivors include his wife Marjory Buchanan and a nephew Sundry Buchanan. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Amos and brother of the late Robert T. Amos.

Mrs. A. R. Coulter Resigns Co-Op Medical Services

Sam Finnie, R.R. 1 Hornby, was re-elected president of Halton Co-operatives Medical Services Association last week, when directors, named at the annual meeting, met to elect officers.

The group accepted with regret the resignation of Mrs. A. E. (Eleanor) Coulter of Lowville, who has been secretary-treasurer for the past 10 years. Advertisements are to be issued for a replacement. One more director is yet to be named to the group.
