In Memoriam

BURLING — In loving memory of Gertrude E. Burling, who passed away March 18, 1963.
Husband and sons.

OAKLEY — In loving memory of a dear mother, Charlotte Oakley, who passed away March 12, 1964.
Calm and peaceful, she is sleeping. Sweetest rest that follows pain. We who loved her sadly miss her.
But trust in God to meet again. Ever remembered by daughter Joan, sons Tom, Harold and Sid and granddaughter Connie.
a-38-50

IN MEMORIAM (continued)

OAKLEY — In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Charlotte, who passed away on March 12, 1964.
One by one the years slip by. But loving memories never die. Sadly missed but never forgotten, son Albert (Buck), daughter-in-law Patsy and grandchildren.
a-38-43

OAKLEY — In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Charlotte Oakley, who passed away March 12, 1964.
Though her smile is gone for ever, And her hand we cannot touch, Still we have so many memories. Of the mother we loved so much. Sadly missed by daughters Jean, Violet, sons-in-law Sam, Ted and grandchildren.

B. and C. Store

Will Open Soon

A new store — B. and C. department store — will be open soon, likely by next Thursday. Proprietors are two Toronto men, Charles Wittingburg and Bill Wandell, who have other stores as well. They explain they will have clothing for the entire family, specializing in children's wear, with cosmetics and a shoe department.

They hope to take an active part in community life. Acton is a friendly and attractive community, they felt. They have come to fit into the mercantile picture here and not to go into competition. They will hire local clerks (Mrs. Evelyn Lashby is the first) and intend to abide by regular closing hours. "We have come to help build the town and will not go against the majority of the merchants," they said.

Mr. Wittingburg has been 16 years in business. He was in the French underground during the Second World War. He is married and has a son entering the University of Toronto in the fall and a daughter in grade 10 in Toronto. He will do the buying and will be here two or three days a week.

Mr. Wandell, who will be in the store here every day, is married and has a daughter, 17, in high school.

They have taken over where Lightman's Department Store was last.
