Headpin Highlights

On the award motif this week were Jeff Fryer for a double win, winning both the Paul's Clothing award and the McGregor socks from the Esquire Men's Shop with a triple of 814 and a single of 361. Interesting to note that Ron Whitham pushed in for Masales' chased him for the single with 354. Joyce Masales also clicked for a double. Won the Ledger's I.G.A. voucher with a 290 single and the Gem hosiery from Neilson's Clothing with a 702 triple. Nan Hurst also clicked for a Ledger's voucher when she tied the 290 single.

With the Teen-n-Unders who bowled best over their average of Coca-Cola, Rembatts and Sev-en-Up, it was Colleen Perkins, Joanne Casburn, Jackie Dank and Earl Butler.

The 15th annual live pin tournament at Waterloo Lanes for the Molson's Canadian Trophies and Awards is scheduled for May 8 to Sunday, June 7. Always a favorite with Acton bowlers, this year's tournament, no doubt, will have the usual contingent shooting for the prize money.

The Central Ontario Mixed Team Champions, who had local

M. Z. BENNETT SCHOOL copped the trophy when they won the competition last week in the primary choir class during the North Halton Music Festival. The happy youngsters are pictured above after they had received the John Milton Chapter I.O.D.E. award.
