

Knox Church Alert Auxiliary Gives Varied Easter Program

By Miss Emma Cole
A busy and varied Easter program was given by the Alert Auxiliary of Knox Church in Acton on Thursday night, April 2. The event was the annual Easter visit of the Alert Evening Auxiliary of Knox Presbyterian Church in Acton. There were 30 visitors including both ladies and gentlemen.

Miss Emma Cole, the president of the Auxiliary, extended greetings to the residents after which the co-convenor Mrs. Fred Anderson took over to announce the various numbers of a very delightful program.

Easter Story
The first portion of the program was a devotional period. Two hymns were sung and the Easter story contained in Chapter 28 of St. Matthew's Gospel was read responsively by Mrs. E. Marshall and Mrs. W. Davidson. Mrs. A. H. McKenzie, wife of the minister of Knox Church, Acton, read an inspiring paper that stressed the meaning and significance of Easter.

The program contained several vocal and instrumental selections. Miss Bella-Mave Roszell sang the hymn "At the Cross and an encore. Misses Ruth and Connie Coles sang a duet "Beyond the Sunset." Mrs. Clarence Coles was the piano accompanist for these vocal numbers. Mrs. C. Ashley and Mrs. J. Pink played two piano duets. Song without Words and In Switzerland. Mrs. R. R. Parker read two humorous selections, one of which was Etiquette at Church, and Mrs. Anderson read the poem

I'm Very Well for the Shape I'm In.
Mrs. Joyce Carpenter of Acton had brought nine of her pupils to perform for the audience. Two of these little girls, Karen Ashley and C. Masales, wearing attractive blue velvet costumes danced to the tune of Alabama Bound. A little later four little girls wearing crisp gingham dresses and matching kerchiefs on their hair danced the routine Louisiana. These girls were the two mentioned above and D. Bousfield and M. F. Marcoux.

Towards the end of the program, these girls were joined by
