

HERE COMES THE SHOWBOAT, smiling, singing dardies, Charlie Kocher, Gil Malcolm and John Barr. The annual Lions Club Minstrel Show was again a booming success at the Robert Little School auditorium. Strains of Stephen Foster melodies and lively dances and prances provided the crowds with two hours of entertainment each evening.

Personal Notes

Of Actonians Visiting Out-of-Town Points and of Visitors in Acton Homes

Present were newspapermen from various parts of Canada, who heard speakers from New York City and the top advertising manager for the Thompson chain of newspapers. The workshop was sponsored by the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association.

Matron of Honor for Wedding Welcomed Family to Canada

In a sunny setting of pink carnations and yellow chrysanthemums at St. Alban's Anglican Church, Glen Williams, Miss Jacqueline Elizabeth (Jackie) Rippon became the bride Saturday of Paul James Russell Phelan.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rippon, R.R. 1, Terra Cotta and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Phelan of Acton.

Rev. Ronald Stubble performed the afternoon ceremony and the church organist, Mrs. Reg Williams, played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a white satin and lace dress. The full-skirted gown had lace panels back and front and lace appliques with pearls and sequins. The bodice was lace also, with fingertip length sleeves. The bouffant veil was held with a tiara of pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of red roses.

Welcomed to New Home
Matron of honor was Mrs. Jack MacPhee of Newtown, Connecticut, the first person to welcome the bride's family when they arrived in Canada from England 12 years ago. Mrs. MacPhee chose a pink nylon gown with tulle skirt and long sleeves. She wore a small pink hat with veil and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Linda Zambra of Georgetown and Miss Linda Warn of Terra Cotta. They were dressed in blue sheath style gowns of net over tulle. Blue flower headresses held their short veils and they carried pink carnations.

The bridegroom's niece, Kathy Mitchell, 11, was the junior bridesmaid. Her white lace over tulle dress was styled with full skirt and puffed sleeves and her blue wedding ring style hat had a short veil. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Jack Pope of Acton was the best man and the ushers were Dave Shannon and Kazmir Lewanski, both of Acton.

About 55 guests attended a wedding buffet and reception at the Terra Cotta Inn, where the bride was employed as a waitress.

The bride's mother received the guests in a turquoise linen two-piece suit with pink and white accessories and corsage of yellow roses. Receiving for the bridegroom, his mother chose an aqua blue doubleknit three-piece suit with black accessories and yellow roses.

Swiss Chef Makes Cake
The three-tiered wedding cake was made by the Terra Cotta Inn chef, Alphonse Berlinger, who was a pastry chef in Switzerland. For a wedding trip to the United States, the bride donned a blue, two-piece suit with navy accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The couple plan to make their home with the bride's parents for the time being. The groom is employed as a machinist at the Acton Tannery.

Guests attended the wedding from Goderich, Niagara Falls, Dundas, Toronto, the United States, Terra Cotta, Georgetown, Acton and Stratford.

Before her marriage the bride was honored at miscellaneous showers given by Mrs. Ken Baker and Mrs. Brian Shellwood of Terra Cotta and by Misses Linda Zambra and Elinor Mitchell of Georgetown.

Presentation Honors Switzers Mr. Mrs. Roach Purchase Farm

A presentation was held in Balinalnac on Thursday night for Mr. and Mrs. Switzer who have moved to Georgetown after having sold their farm to Mr. and Mrs. Roach and family, whom we welcome to our community.

Tom Gibson, chairman, asked Mr. and Mrs. Switzer to come to the front. Mrs. Wm. McLean read an address and they were presented with a lovely pair of table lamps and a telephone table. Mr. Switzer thanked all for the lovely gifts. All then joined in singing For They are Jolly Good Fellows.

The evening was spent in euchre and a few dances to finish off the evening. Winners of euchre were Ladies' High Mrs. Freeman, low Mrs. J. Switzer, and high gent Robert McEney, low Mrs. Norman Sinclair.

The community was shocked to learn of the sudden passing of Harry Smith. His funeral took place on Saturday from McCure's funeral parlors, burial in Greenwood cemetery. The sympathy of all goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith with whom he has lived, also his other brothers and all relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Curry of Port Credit visited with Mr. and Mrs. Robert McEney on Sunday. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson on the safe arrival of a baby son.

Communion service was held on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Hill of Horn by was in charge, and also installed two new elders, Ernie McEney and John Black.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pearson and baby son attended church.
