Service Conducted For Arthur Ayles

Funeral services for the late Arthur Ayles were held on Thursday, April 16, at 2 p.m. in St. John's Anglican church, Rockwood. The pastor, Rev. Allan F. Cook officiated at the services.

As his message to those present, Mr. Cook stated that we as Christians do not grieve in horror or fear at the loss of a loved one, for Christ's promise of life is not just for this world, but for Eternity.

At this Easter season we must especially remember the hope of the Resurrection, concluded Mr. Cook.

A resident of the Rockwood district for many years, Mr. Ayles was predeceased several years ago by his wife, the late Sarah Tucker.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Arthur Stumpf (Violet) and one son John, both of Rockwood.

Palbearers were Walter Stumpf, Alex Wade, Charles Davis, John Buckman, Fred Meadows and John Ellerby.

Interment was in Rockwood Cemetery.

Rockwood community carnival is coming soon. Watch for further announcements in the Acton Free Press.

Original Skit Given At Meeting of U.C.W.

A skit "On the Way to the Well" was presented by six young ladies of the church at the general meeting of Rockwood United Church Women recently.

The setting was early evening, when a woman named Adah (Eleanor Hosking) walked slowly toward the well, her water pitcher on her shoulder.

As they talked, along came Rebecca (Kathy Marsden) with a water pail. She had passed by the house where Adah's mother was weeping for the loss of her son.

It was getting dark and Sarah was leaving for home when Dorcas (Carol Root) hurried up to the group with the news that Jesus had been seen again, and able to touch the blind.

Wrote Skit. After the prayer, a final benediction was given by Miss Gladys Hanna who had written and directed the skit.

of all present for bringing to life the words of the Bible in such a meaningful way.

The business portion of the meeting was in charge of the president Mrs. F. Taylor. The roll call was answered and the minutes and treasurer's report given.

An invitation was read to attend Moorefield Church, April 23, 8:10 p.m., when a special "model unit meeting" will be held.

Mrs. F. Taylor told of a meeting held by the Presbyterial executive in Waterloo on March 25.

Leaves of Nigeria. Interesting facts were told those present about Nigeria and its people.

The Bible reading was taken by Mrs. P. McGilvray, with prayer by Mrs. R. Gordon.

Mrs. J. Little gave the Meditation and spoke of the awakening beauty of the world and asked if we rejoiced in it? We must, she said, remember the agony of the Cross, as well as the hope and beauty of the resurrection.

Following the benediction, lunch was served and an evening of fellowship enjoyed.

Cancer Drive

Robert Leslie, chairman of the Cancer Society drive for the Rockwood area, was very pleased with the response of the residents of Rockwood when visited for this very worthy cause this week.

The Beatles are going to be there - the Rockwood Beatles of course - and it should be interesting to see if the boys resist to wigs or not.

Be sure to watch next week's paper. There will be more information about this coming event.

Championship Trophies, Prizes Presented At Curling Club Banquet in Legion Monday

Prices of all sizes banked and overflew the tables where 120 Curling Club members and their guests sat at the fourth club dinner-dance Monday in the Legion hall. Winning skips had record-size gold trophies, team members had small trophies, crests and pins, and plenty of others, sets of glasses in bulky boxes, ashtrays and mugs.

Fred Gordon was there to take home the portable television set he won in the draw held to raise money for the club, aspiring now to build his own facilities.

A delicious buffet supper had been prepared by the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary and diners helped themselves from heaping bowls laid out on a large horse-shoe shaped table.

Retiring president Chester Anderson greeted the crowd and reported on the current state of pledges toward the new proposed facilities. The amount pledged so far is just half of what would be required, and contacts, he said, were being made.

Special thanks went to Vic Patrick in charge of draws for the past year, Bill Toth in charge of membership and Tom Watson, whose social committee was making the closing dance such a success.

New officers announced: president John Huffnagle, who is "looking good" for added support and a very "bright" future.

Secretary, Lou Youngblut; treasurer, Alex Zbebnoff; secretary, Alex Zbebnoff; secretary, Lou Youngblut; secretary, Lou Youngblut.

On the bandstand, attractively arranged on a big table, was the galaxy of sparkling trophies awaiting presentation.

All the winners. First draw prizes were presented by George Williams. Winners in the Monday mixed draw, receiving sets of glasses, were J. Bert Wood, Dorothy Van Wyck, Wes Beatty, Judy Cargill, Bern Van Fleet, Charlotte Holmes, Paul Nielsen, Shirley Hunter.

Ben Rachin ladies' trophy, presented by Gladys Price, was won by Charlotte Holmes, Dolores Jordan, Gladys Price and spare Rene Watson. Don Berton ladies' trophy presented by Vera Inglis, went to Mac Dumars, Lois MacKenzie, Allan Ellerby.

Plan Carnival For Rockwood. Rockwood Home and School Association is planning a month-long carnival to be held in conjunction with the annual field day activities of the Rockwood public school Saturday, June 20.

The gala event will include many bazaars, booths selling novelties, attic treasures, home baking, home-made candy, etc. There will be games of chance, bingo, hot dog stands and a tea and coffee centre.

The whole day's fun will be culminated with an outdoor dance to be held on the newly-asphalted playground area which is to be completed sometime this month.

Bowling League Into Playoffs Season's High Scores Listed

It's playoff time again! This one may not be from coast to coast but it is very important to the players in the Rockwood and District Bowling League.

Nearly every team wanted their own run this week and with only one tie for 13th place, Nichol's Pals took a four-point edge on first place.

Second place, Horton's Dusty's, coming second with 66. In third with 64 points are Carney's Plumbing and Heating followed by Pearl's Variety in fourth with 62. Wildcats are running fifth with 61 points to their credit and Saund's Fireballs with 54 are in sixth place.

Close behind are Town and Country with 53 points in seventh place. Corner Pines are in eighth place with 52 points and Stratton's Esso with 51 are in ninth place. With 50 points, 10th place is held by Masales Alley Cats, with Barlow's Bums 11th with 49. Schneider's Sweets have 47 and stand 12th. Ted for 13th, each with 45 points, are Milne's Booth and Don's Frigid Lockers.

Heffernan's Hams are out of the cellar with their 38 points. This leaves Ken's Novelties all alone in last place with 36 points.

Plan Carnival For Rockwood

Rockwood Home and School Association is planning a month-long carnival to be held in conjunction with the annual field day activities of the Rockwood public school Saturday, June 20.

The whole affair will be triggered with a parade through the village on the Friday evening and the organizers hope all Rockwood citizens will participate either as parades or spectators.

The gala event will include many bazaars, booths selling novelties, attic treasures, home baking, home-made candy, etc. There will be games of chance, bingo, hot dog stands and a tea and coffee centre.

The whole day's fun will be culminated with an outdoor dance to be held on the newly-asphalted playground area which is to be completed sometime this month.

Mrs. E. Woodhouse, past president, thanked the members for their support in the past year and welcomed Mrs. MacDougall as new president.

Volunteers were asked for to assist the Eden Mills Women's Institute in the cleaning and painting of the Community Hall on Monday, April 20.

No Meeting. The Rockwood Home and School did not hold a meeting this month. An executive meeting was held, and in the regular May meeting Norm Jary of CIOY Guelph will be guest speaker. Parents, please keep this meeting in mind and make your Home and School a success.

Purchase Picture Of Queen For Hall

The annual meeting of the Eden Crest Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. W. McLean Jr. 14 members answered the roll call, with their favorite Institute program and their fees for the year.

It was decided that they would together with the Eden Mills Women's Institute purchase a picture of Her Majesty the Queen, to be placed in the Community Hall.

Mrs. A. Dunbar acted as chairman for the election of officers which are: president, Mrs. W. MacDougall; vice-president, Mrs. L. Shuttle; second vice-president, Mrs. E. Barden; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. E. Barden; assistant secretary, Mrs. E. Thompson; district director, Mrs. A. Dunbar; branch directors, Mrs. E. Perry, Mrs. D. Clifford, Mrs. H. Scheik.

Convenors: public relations, Mrs. B. Marshall; historical research and current events, Mrs. L. Shuttle; home economics and health, Mrs. E. Woodhouse; Mrs. M. Bould; citizenship and education, Mrs. Ramsay; and Mrs. A. Dunbar; agriculture and Canadian industries, Mrs. H. McPherson and Mrs. A. Vos; resolutions, Mrs. A. Abram; courtesy convenors, Mrs. J. Mrs. E. Woodhouse, past president, thanked the members for their support in the past year and welcomed Mrs. MacDougall as new president.

Volunteers were asked for to assist the Eden Mills Women's Institute in the cleaning and painting of the Community Hall on Monday, April 20.

Kenzie, Pat McCutcheon and Laura Lowell, with pins. Ted Tyler Sr. presented the Gwen Tyler trophy for the Maw and Paw bonspiel to Willa Hewitt.

Monopial Awards. Jack Ridley presented the Jack Ridley trophy and crests for the bonspiel to Ted Tyler Jr., Charlotte Holmes, Nels Edwards and Marg Guest. This team, for five straight wins, won caddy sets of glasses presented by Andy Nolan.

Second winners in the bonspiel, given chip and dip sets, were Len Lovell, Jackie Blow, George Sargeant and Mary Irwin; third for steak knives were Walter Dubois, Donna Krapak, Grant Allan and Marion Patterson; fourth for glasses Gord Cooper, Barb Smith, Fyle Somerville and Helen Laverty.

The Hiram Walker trophy and set of glasses went to Alex Zbebnoff, Rene Watson, Ruth Holmes and Charles Kirkness, first prize winners in the second event of the bonspiel; and Hyrdon Hunter presented them with ice buckets for top place. Second place, cocktail sets, went to Andy Nolan, Dorothy Van Wyck, Jack Blow and Carol Henderson; third glasses and tray to Case de Jong, June McHugh, Dave Dills and Gladys Price; fourth George Williams, Helen Otterbein, Julian Zajac and Sam Holmes.

Old Tradition. The room rocked with laughter for the non-traditional handing over over of the Thundermug trophy in the businessmen's league. It was won by the Transport division, Ted Tyler Sr., Jack Ridley, John Coy and Ted Tyler Jr., and hadn't been in their possession long before it disappeared. "Stolen," claim the transporters. Along with it went beer steins presented by Vic Patrick.

Second event afternoon league prize of mugs went to Bert Wood, Tom Watson, Gord Cooper and Dave Manes.

John Buckman, who spared for Ted Tyler Sr., received a set of glasses, too.

Quick $44. Murray Ezeard promised two tickets for the playoff game if a quick sale of draw tickets could raise $80 for the club. Circulation of the room drew $94, the donor drew the winning number and Mrs. Buchanan went to the front and delighted applause. "I'll have to cancel my five o'clock appointment," declared Dr. Buchanan, a former curler who renewed his enthusiasm with the young club here.

Mr. Ezeard drew consolation tickets gave Adams mugs to Eric Marks, Barbara Smith, Andy Nolan and Tom Manes.

Merry But Modest. Complimenting the ladies and encouraging the gentlemen, master of ceremonies Charles Kirkness justified the presentation of awards as m.c., adopting a modest look to jump down off the platform and accept a couple himself.

Choice of a Monday for the closing event rather than a week-end night proved popular, with more attending than anticipated. As if loath to leave the season behind, many were still chatting in the hall after the orchestra had packed up at one o'clock.
