Sell House By Auction

Local real estate agent and auctioneer John R. Holmes held a successful auction sale Saturday afternoon when he sold a home at 317 Westcott Road by auction. Over 20 bidders were present for the auction and six bidders raised the price of the home well over expectations.

LIMEHOUSE

Anniversary, Injury Visitors of Interest

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Norton who celebrated their fifty-eighth wedding anniversary this week. Their daughter, Mrs. T. E. Campbell, Hamilton entertained in their honor on Sunday. Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Kuntz.

Open Air Auction
The executive of Eden Mills Community Club met Monday evening in the hall and have planned an open air auction in the ball park early in June. The first home ball game will be played May 21 with a display of fireworks.

Mrs. Douglas Beattie gave the treasurer's report showing a favorable amount realized from the sale of used clothing. Card and visiting report was given by Mrs. W. Wilson.

The roll call was answered by a verse from the Bible on Brotherhood. Final plans were made for the tea, bake and country garden sale to be held early in June.

U.C.W. Meets
Eden Mills United Church Women held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening at Mrs. H. Thompson's. The devotional period was opened with a hymn. Mrs. H. James read the Scripture, talked on brotherhood and closed with prayer. The president, Mrs. H. Thompson, presided over the business period. Minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Elmer Milson.

The past president Mrs. H. James was presented with a cup and saucer in appreciation of her work in that office. Mrs. Thompson closed the meeting with prayer. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Boston visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Quinlan near Meaford during the weekend.

We regret that Mrs. Russell is hospitalized in Oakville. We hope that she may be better soon.

Mrs. Harris' Canvas
Among Best in Show

Acton artists' canvases were on display on the weekend at the Five Counties Art Association show in Guelph and one of them was chosen from the group to proceed into the area show. This was a painting by Mrs. Gordon Harris of her own farm home by moonlight which was much admired at the Acton show here the weekend before.

Plans are being made for the Acton Open golf tournament. A golf course and fee are being set up.
