All whales are mammals, perfectly adapted to living in the water and quite helpless on shore. There are many important differences between aquatic mammals, such as the whale, and fish. For example, baby whales are born alive, rather than being hatched from an egg. The young whales are fed on mother's milk. They have no gills but breathe air through their lungs.

our lights for the residential areas of Rockwood. This carries out the program of improving the lighting of the village streets.

Secretary L. J. Ayres reported that he was obtaining prices for the relocation of 21 poles on Main St. to accommodate the Dept. of Highways in regards to their construction plans for Rockwood. This is only in the proposal stage as yet, and may be subject to change.

The purchase of envelopes (No. 9) was requested by the secretary. These would be needed in some isolated cases in connection with the new billings for Hydro energy. He was authorized to purchase the same.

It was moved by J. A. Milne and R. C. Leslie that Rockwood Hydro Electric accounts totaling $2,036.65 be passed for payment.

CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES at St. John's Anglican church, Rockwood, Sunday, are pictured outside the church following the Apostolic Rite of the Laying on of Hands. Rt. Rev. C. R. H. Wilkinson, Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of Niagara, administered the Rite to the 15 candidates. The Bishop during the service also dedicated four new burials and veils for St. John's church which were donated by the Albert Ware family in memory of their children Barbara Ware, Betty Hamilton, Alberta Bruce and George Ware.

Minister Inducted For Eden, Rockwood

The combined congregations of Eden Mills and Rockwood Presbyterian Churches were present at the induction of their new minister, Rev. Jas. E. Taylor on Friday evening, May 1, in Rockwood Presbyterian Church. Following the opening hymn and prayer, the Scripture was read and the sermon delivered by the Rev. J. Schriel.

Rev. Schriel spoke on the many aspects of a minister's call, as it were an agreement or exchange of promises between two or more parties. It was like a covenant, with obligations to both parties, and in the church resulting in a contract with terms in writing in a document as in law. The speaker disclosed many laws and covenants throughout the Bible.

The narration of the steps leading to the induction was explained by the Interim Moderator the Rev. G. Hastings.

The induction vows were in charge of the Moderator of the Presbytery the Rev. R. Jackson, and the signing of the Formula took place.

The address to Rev. Taylor and the congregation was given by Rev. C. McLean of Elora. To Mr. Taylor he cautioned to keep courage of your convictions without being intolerant, unfair and unkind, but stand for what you know is right. He said great courage was needed to carry on in what was seemingly arid times.

To the congregation he reminded all that their minister would be depending on their prayers, co-operation and friendship at all times. Do not burden him with petty quarrels said the speaker, and keep him informed of people's needs. Remember, he concluded, the more you give to your minister, the more you will get back from him.

The Benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. Taylor, prior to going to the Sunday School room for refreshments provided by the ladies of the two congregations. Milton Swanson introduced Rev. and Mrs. Taylor to all present.
