Charleen Marshall, Bill Daly Married in Ceremony in Knox

Saturday afternoon, May 7, in Knox Presbyterian church, the Rev. A. H. McKenzie united in marriage Charleen Marie Marshall and Murray William Daly. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall, R.R. 2, Acton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Daly, 340 Orville Road, Acton.

Baskets of pink and white carnations decorated the church and E. A. Hansen played the organ for the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional, full length white gown, with Alexon lace motifs decorating the bodice and scattered on a very full skirt which fell into a chapel train. The neckline was beaded, and a head head dress, matching the dress, held her bouffant fingertip veil. She carried red roses and white button mums with white ribbon streamers.

Five attendants and two flower girls, all in pink preceded the bride down the aisle.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Bruce MacPherson, a friend from Acton, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Bruce Cargill, Acton, a cousin, and Mrs. David Brown, Etobicoke, a friend. They wore pink peau de sole dresses with matching accessories and carried pink carnations and white button mums.

Donna Marshall, four and Karen Marshall, two, were flower girls for their aunt, wearing dresses identical to the bridesmaids. Their accessories were white, and they carried their carnations and mums in small baskets.

Groomsmen were J. Bruce MacPherson, Acton, and the ushers were Wayne Marshall, Acton, and David Brown, Etobicoke.

After the ceremony, turkey dinner was served in the church, and in the evening there was a largely attended reception and dance at the North Halton Golf and Country Club, Georgetown.

The bride's mother chose a blue and white brocade sheath dress with matching pale blue jacket, white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's sister, Mrs. R. J. Brody, Peoria, Illinois, wore a pink suit with navy accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

The couple left on a trip to Niagara Falls, and for travelling the bride wore a white brocade sheath dress with matching white coat, black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

They are living in the Park Terrace Apartments, Guelph.

Guests attended the wedding from Peoria, Toronto, Orangeville, Mono Centre, Orton, Hillsburgh and London.

Yes, Showers

Several gatherings were held before the wedding, when the bride received attractive and useful gifts.

A trousseau tea at the bride's home on April 26 was attended by about 25. She was the guest of honor at several showers as well. On April 1 Mrs. Mabel Lawrence, Scarborough, held a miscellaneous shower. On April 15 Mrs. P. Flewelling, Guelph was hostess when fellow employees in the office of Federal Wire, Guelph, held a miscellaneous shower.

A Upperware shower was held April 20 by Mrs. Frank Pink, Acton. Mrs. C. Davidson and Mrs. K. McPhail entertained at a shower April 24, and on April 25 the matron of honor and bridesmaids held a shower at the home of Mrs. Bruce Cargill.
