

GRADE SEVEN girls from the Robert Little School toured the Bank of Montreal Wednesday afternoon to acquaint themselves with banking methods. Looking over a $1,000 bill (which was brought in especially for the occasion) are left to right accountant Dick Willie, Jane Sterrit, teacher Keith Black and Jackie Palmer

Election, Reports, Baking Contest At 63rd Annual of Halton Institutes

District Women's Institutes was first prize. Mrs. W. Britton of showing pictures and samples of held in Knox Presbyterian Dublin, second prize, Mrs. Don, their work. Those Branches telt Class of '59 Church, Acton, on Wednesday, Brown of Ballinatad, honorable a keen sense of accomplish. Class of '59 May 20, at 9.30 a.m., with the mention, Mrs. C. Coles of Ban- ment. president, Miss Charlotte Tur-nockburn. ner, opening the meeting. All A delicious lunch was provid olution concerning water conserthen repeated the Mary Stewart ed by the Ladies' Aid of Knox vation was sent on to the Area, Collect in unison. Mrs. W. Mc at noon, and the afternoon see and it was decided that the Bur newed this Saturday afternoon past three weeks Council had Donald of the hostess branch of sion opened with the singing of cau Committee meet with the at the high school as grade 13 done nothing toward fullidling Bannockburn gave the address the Hymn of All Nations, Roll executive to decide on qualificaof welcome, and Rev. A. McKen- call was answered by each tions by students. wishes to the ladies.

Secretary - treasurer Mrs. C Sinclair read the minutes of the 1963 Annual at Limehouse and Mrs Ausin Zoeller, public relaer's report of a year well spent speaker, was introduced by Mis-Mrs. Bob "Alexander" gave the IV. Norris and gave a most en auditor's report and the stand lightening talk on many aspects ing committee conveners pres of Institute work, particularly ented theirs.

New Directors tors for 1963-64 was conducted ada loveber. The Trienmal Con. Queen. by Mrs. V. Norris, followed by a ference will be held in Ireland in piano duel by Mrs. C. Coles and 1965. Mrs. M. McCullough, which was: much enjoyed.

A letter of thanks was read from Miss Ruth Coles of Acton, winner of the 1963 bursary provided by Halton Women's Instit ules annually to a deserving sto-

Reviews Wark

President Miss Turner reviewed the work accomplished during her two year term of office. expressing her pleasure at the support given her and friend ships made. She was, later in the Hornby: second vice-president, day, presented with her district Mrs W. Webb. Campbellville: past president's pin by Mrs. J. McEnery, president-elect.

economist, read the Junior Institute representative's report, and et, Mrs. Campbell Sinclair, R. told of the short courses to be R 1. Limehouse provided this coming year by the department.

Festival report.

Many Projects

board director from this area, and health, Mrs. Mansell Nellis. presented a most encouraging R R I, Acton; public relations outline of the many projects be, representative. Mrs. Frank ing undertaken by country was Petch, 300 Chapel St F. George

A most impressive "In Mem oriam" was conducted by the Acton branch when representatives of four branches laid roses in a bouquet to the memory of deceased members. Soft music and a period of silence preceded

Baking Contest Before adjournment for lun, h the winners of the baking contest were announced by the jude es, Mrs. G. Young and Mrs. K. Cossom - pics: tirst prize, Mrs. Five Branches sponsored a Jack Irving of Scotch Block se child, two chinese, one German, mond prize. Mrs. Kennedy of one Tunisian and one Korean,

The 63rd Annual of Harton O'Connor of Hornby, multing were most interesting, some help support the ACWT.

Centennial Project

presented a gratifying treasure tions officer IWIO, as special on the new office of public relations She mentioned the Canada The installation of the direc. Centennial Project to make Can> a pleasant change before the clection of officers. Mrs. John Hopkin of Scotch Block preented the report of the nominating committee, which was actions, as follows:

Officers

Honorary president, Miss Charlotte Turner, R. R. 3, Million: president, Mrs. Jesse McEnery, R. R. 2. Acton; first vice president, Mrs. J. McCarron, R. R. 2. Federated representative, Mrs. Mrs. Kathleen Cossom, home ville; alternate, Mrs. Harry Wilson, Palermo; secretary-treasur-

Conveners: agriculture and Canadian industries, Mrs. Nor-Mrs. John Bird read the Music man Langton, R. R. 2, Milton citizenship and education. Mrs. R. R. 2. Georgetown; pesolutions. Mrs. Frank Smith, R. R. L. Georgetown; bursary, Mrs. Guy Bussell, 79 Main St. S., Georgetown; Music Festival representative, Mrs. James Carney, R. R. 3. Georgetown: Federation of Ag trealfure representative, Mrs.

Campbellville.

Roy Currie, R. R. 3. Milton; curator, Mrs. I loyd Crawford

Aided Children

Dublin, honorable mention, Mrs. and reports of their contacts

MILTON KINSMEN -- LEGION

BINGO

Every Wednesday at 8 p.m. Sharp (BEGINNING JUNE 3)

IN MILTON ARENA

26 GAMES

23 AT $25. 3 SPECIALS $100.

$1 Admission for One Card, or $3 Admission for 13-card Package Deal

Loarn of Procedure

Grade seven girls from the Robert Little School had an invide peck into the banking bush ness Wednesday afternoon, as and accountant Dick Willie con- project: ducted the pupils on the tour during which they had an opportunity of seeing how deposits are accepted, accounting completed, safety deposit boxes opcrate and other banking chores. At the conclusion of the tour

Planning Board Airs Complaints

milk and cookies by the staff.

Acton Planning Board reviewed complaints, registered during a recent public neeting regarding the new proposed zoning bylaw, Thursday evening of last week. Members will continue a study by Reeve and Council in this ling in the planning consultants and making decisions.

Mrs. George Benton attended the meeting and requested prop hear all discussion, and that this city owned by her (former Mayfair Restaurant) he roned commercial instead of residential. given her request.

Holding Reunion

graduating class of 1959 stages their part of the agreement.

ats first reunion. zie of Knox church later ex branch presenting their Pennies! Mrs. J. McEnery and Miss C. Spearheading the class reunion pressed greetings and good for Friendship, a collection to Turner were appointed delegates are Marilyn Young, Mrs. James to Area Convention in Guelph in Zehr (Shirley Mason), Bruce Macpherson and David Hunter. It is expected most of the 14 in the An invitation from Campbell class will attend as well as husville branch, to hold the annual bands, wives and teachers,

- mest wear in St. David's Presty t. Planned for the affermoon and terrain Church, was accepted. Tevening are dinner, speeches, Mrs. George Tronside of Silver- tour of the school, sports and a fword, extended the courtexes sing song.

and the meeting ajourned with; Guests will be present from the singing of God Save the Acton, St Catharines, Toronto, Guelph and Petrolia

Mrs Hovd Crawford, provided Urges Breeders Attend Swine Improvement Day

County of Halton should be inte Improvement Council, cepted without further nomina rested" in a swine improvement. Mr. Wilson points out special conference in Guelph Thursday speakers and workshop sessions of next week, according to John will enable local farmers to learn W Wilson of R.R. 2, Rockwood, more on improving the quality chairman of Halton Hog Pro- and grade of their hogs in three ducers. The all-day program is areas - animal health, housing scheduled for Thursday, June 4 equipment and better breeding. at the Physical Education Build- No hog producer who cares

After much discussion the Res-

Camphellville Next

For Centennial

Acton council is sponsoring a public meeting, Monday, June 8, to determine a Centennial pro-

Everyone interested is asked to attend in order that council town; historical research and may receive concrete ideas for a ; current events, Mrs. Herb Reid, project which will be eligible dustry, include Alliston farmer for government grants. Plan to attend and bring along good

> -Several motorists reported having to stop their cars Sunday and Tuesday evening during the ture; and Dr. C. K. Roe of the heavy rainsforms.

"All hog producers in the sponsored by the Ontario Swine ing of the OAC, Guelph, and is about his product can afford to miss this conference," suggests! the local president.

Advance tickets are available tor only $2.50 from C. James Boynton, 4198 Dunday St. W., Toconto 18, or regular $3 tickets are available at the door. The tickets include a midday dinner.

Keyflote speaker is M. E. Scale, head of the Animal Science Division, University of Manitoba, Pro-W. J. Cleave, of Maple Ave. W., jest for the town. The meeting lessor Seale will delve into breed-Mrs. Velma Nortis, provincial Georgetown; home economics begins at 8 p.m. at the council ing programs for commercial pro-

> "Better Pigs Build Better Profits" is the Conference theme. Other topnotch speakers, from all segments of the swine in-John Gallaugher, who has quite a reputation in swine breeding circles: John Pos, Engineering Department, O.A.C.; Charles Thomas, a noted cross-bred hog raiser: George Locking of the Canada Department of Agricul-Ontario Veterinary College.

Top Quality Meals

TOP QUALITY RED BRAND BEEF

DEVON SIDE BACON -

Rump Roast Beef 79% Wing Roast Beef 79th

PRONT, HIND QUARTERS AND SIDES OF RED BRAND BEEF CUY AND WRAPPED FOR YOUR HOME FREEZER AY-NO-EXTRA CHARGE.

BROS. MODERN MEAT MARKET

The Acton Free Press, Thursday, May 28th, 1964

Nassagaweya Women's Committee

they toured the Bank of Morry Women's Centennial Project they can frustrate the Taxpayers. real. They were accompanied by Committee this week issued the and kill the growing enthusiasm Teacher Keith Black. Today following appeal to township for this project, so that they may (Thursday) the boys and teacher residents, in their continuing be left free to bulldoze through Keith Mortice are visiting the program to have S.S. 3 renovat, their own plans for an ex-Bank manager William Mackay ing as a Township centennial apaths and prograstination could

For the past three weeks the Nassagaweya Women's Centennial Project Committee have requested the Council to set a date to meet with them and the Townspeople of Nassagaweya at everyone was treated to chocolate, an open meeting to discuss further the project of restoring and ship Offices.

> ing. What objection he can have to the Townspeople hearing what Committee, Nassayaweva, is being discussed, is beyond our matter will affect the Taxes of we feel that it is the Taxpayers' right to attend any meeting and right should not be denied them

On May 4, when the petition No action was taken during the was first presented to Council, meeting but Mrs. Benton was as 111 was agreed by both parties sured further study would be that more detailed information was required on both projects in order to decide on the bet ter plan for the Township. The Women's Committee, believing that Council was sincere in its wish to discuss the matter further, proceeded to obtain all this additional information, but it was publicly stated at the Council Old acquaintances will be re- Meeting on May 25 that for the

> There is barely two months left before the application for | SB ST. GEORGE'S SO., GUELPH the Centennial Grant must be made. Does the Council imagine

Members of the Nassagaweya that by these delaying factors ed for an administration build. Iravagant new building! This well lose the Township its Centennial Grant of $5,000.

The Women's Committee feel therefore, that they have no alternative but to attend the next Council Meeting on June 1, with as many of the Townspeople of Nassagaweya who have shown their sincere interest in the pira using No 3 School for the Town leet as can come. They feel that now is the time to show Council that they may no longer dis-The only reply they have receive regard, their duty to the Tax ed to this request from their Re-pavers, or ignore the wishes of eve William Coulter is that the over 300 members of the Town personally does not want an open ship who have asked that this meeting, but would prefer in undertaking be adopted as Nasstead a closed committee meet sagaweya's Centennial Project.

Women's Centennial Project

----CALF KILLED

everyone in the Township, so that horn call collided with a car on Highway 7 just west of the Lifth Line Esquesing early Friday morming and the collision killed the animal, OPP report. Valued at $200, it was owned by Charles E. Thompson, R.R. 2, Acton. The car owned by W. S. Spence of Georgetown received $150 damage

> Fred A. Hoffman Optometrist

> > TA 4-2071

MAY 28-29-30

DRIVE IN THEATER

THURS.-FRI.-SAT.

COME FLY WITH ME IN CINEMASCOPE - ALL TECHNICOLOR SHOW

Delores Hart, Hugh O'Brien

KING KONG vs. GODZILLA Michael Keith

Lucky License Night - Every Thursday Starting Prizes $115.00 Cash - A Minimum of 4 Prizes Given Each Thursday If License Number of First Prize is not in Atten dance $10 00 will be Added for Following Thur.

> The JEM is 1217 miles West of Acton No. 7 Highway halfway between Rockwood and Guelph

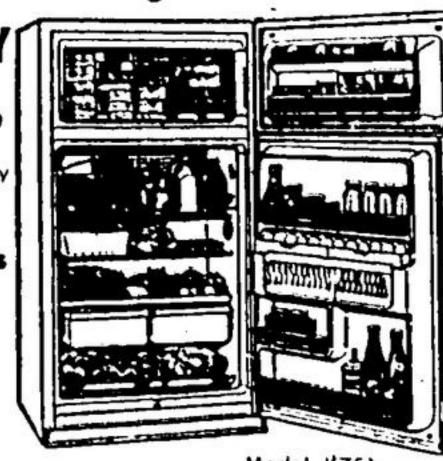

Show Nightly at Dusk - Children 12 and Under Free

KELVINATOR

Two Door Refrigerator-Freezer.

Get Complete Details This Week at GORDON IHA HARDWARE

⊌ Over 160 Pound Food

Trigerated. Two convenient door shelves for most used foods and tins.

Win Moisture-Seal Crispers Moist-cold storage for keeping produce at garden fresh-

Model K751 • Humldiplate

Refreshes food as it re-Seperately insulated and re___tigerates by maintaining proper balance of cold and moisture.

 Magnetic Dr. Closure Gasket No door latch mechanism. Powerful, permanent magnets assure perfect all-round

SEE THIS BEAUTIFUL APPLIANCE AT

GORDON HARDWARE LIMITED

SNACK

OPENS MONDAY JUNE 1st AT 6:00 P.M.

LADIES Take Your Cue and Join the Men in the Exciting and Relaxing Game of Billiards!

8 TABLES on the spacious main floor in our new location (recently the Rainbow Room) are available for mixed and non-mixed --- ... groups --

PRIVATE SALON in our balcony available for family or all-ladies groups. Lounging areas in both sections are provided for your comfort and relaxation. RELAX at our modern SNACK BAR between games

Good Place to Meet Your Friends and Relax!