Dr. and Mrs. Peter Sonnenfeld and son Stephen of Kingsville, Texas, visited this week with Mr. and Mrs. David Dills and Kathleen. The neighborhood children were rather disappointed to see that Steve didn't have a fengalion hat and gun.

Heitor Lambert and Edie Janks Readmore and Co. employees and United Packing House Workers' Association representatives attended a week long U.P.W.A. conference at Kansas City from May 23 to 30. They flew from Malton to the conference.

Mr. Frank Rawlings celebrated his 94th birthday quietly at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. E. Mattocks, on Monday, June 8. He is still able to be out and around to enjoy the garden and spends his time indoors reading and corresponding with friends, both here and overseas.

There were 35 high school teachers and their guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hevan near Kleinburg on Friday evening for a most enjoyable barbecue supper and social evening. Almost everyone on the staff was able to attend. John Davidson played his guitar for a popular session of singing. There were presentations of gifts to teachers who are leaving. Miss Louise Meadmore is going to study at the University of Manitoba. Mrs. Sue Caynes is retiring. John Davidson is going to Montreal and Jean Le Roy has another teaching post. Long range plans call for planting a couple of shrubs each year. The plan was laid out by decoration day committee members and Ted Swift of Blue Springs Nursery. Different shrubs will be planted each year.

Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Latto, Arthur St., Acton, were honored guests at Acton Pentecostal Tabernacle Church, Wednesday evening, when they were feted on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary.

The couple have three daughters and one son. During the celebration Wednesday, the couple's son-in-law, Rev. Verdon Dalgetty, gave a capsule report of Mr. Latto's experiences and charges he has attended.

Their family is all married and attended Wednesday evening. Daughters are Rhoda (Mrs. Verdon Dalgetty) of Canowick, Wash. U.S.A.; Viola (Mrs. Eldon Collins), Weston; Edna (Mrs. Gordon Ballinger), Port Perry and son Hugh Latto, Weston.

—Field days and excursions are planned to end the school term at the public schools.

—The newly formed Centennial Committee is having its first meeting tonight.

—Again the Free Press has missed photographs of events of some importance since we were not informed. Please let us know when something special is in the offing so we can judge ourselves about pictures. If it's a presentation that's to be a secret—well, we'll keep it a secret!

—Christian Reformed Vacation Bible School is right after school closes, and the United Church Vacation School at the end of August. In between comes the playground program, both at the park and M. Z. Bennett school.

—As one wit says: "What this country needs is more people who will show the same determination to get ahead as they show when driving their cars in traffic."

—Sympathy and congratulations to those who are writing grade 13 examinations. It's a mark that has broken the ambitions of many and boosted the hopes of countless others. Those who reach the milestone deserve congratulations, win or lose. Good luck to all those who are writing now at Acton High School.

—On the roads this summer, you can't be too careful, too alert, or too intelligent. It will take a fair measure of every one of these qualities on the part of every single driver if the rate of failure is to be lowered.

—Johnny: "What's automation, Mom?" Mother: "It's a man's effort to make work so easy, women can do it all."

—Things at Campbellville are being primed for the village's 50th anniversary. Festivities are the last weekend in June.

—It's a very busy month with closing meetings and many special events. Not to mention report cards and final exams.

—Y's Men's regatta tickets are selling well.

—Workmen are continuing a fast pace at the addition to the high school. Both bricklayers and plumbing and electrical contractors hope to meet the September deadline.
