Teachers and their guests enjoyed their sixth annual spring holiday together at Pine Lodge, Port Sydney, last weekend. Everyone on the staff of the M. Z. Attending from the Robert Little school were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gamble, Miss Pat Jones, Miss Lesley Anne Dubs and Gary Bateman and from the high school John Davidson. They enjoyed baseball, swimming, boating — and a good rest.

Miss Isabel Anderson contributed to tell with pictures of the various churches which she and her husband had attended. One fine structure contained living apartments for elderly people, a restaurant and many other attractions. On the 12th floor was a most beautiful sanctuary where she attended the World Day of Prayer service, where those taking part representing many nations spoke in their own language. On this tall structure is also an illuminated cross.

BICYCLE CHECK was held Saturday at the town hall by Acton Safety Council. Constable Ron Rupert of the Acton O.P.P. Detachment is shown above checking over a few of the bikes. Afternoon in Country Enjoyed By Members of Knox W.M.S.

A delightful summer meeting was enjoyed by the members of the afternoon group of "Knox Ladies W.M.S." when they journeyed to the home of Mrs. Gordon Johnson, Townline, for their June meeting. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. H. Savers, in welcoming the ladies.

Mrs. Carl Hansen, home help, convener, planned the program and invited the home helps to attend. Mrs. Fred Anderson, president, opened the program with a reading — "A Deputy for God," written by Mrs. Zeidman, and all joined to sing the Devology. The worship service included the 91st Psalm read responsively by Mrs. A. M. McPherson and Mrs. C. Hansen, a prayer led by Mrs. C. J. Hassard and the hymn "More Loveth Thee."

The program was a distinctive change from the usual study book when five members gave some personal impressions of the churches in far away places where they spent the winter months.

Mrs. Dean Leslie, who is a frequent visitor to Florida, told of the well-attended churches there, how you must go so early to be sure you get a seat, the friendly spirit that exists. She said after reading the book, "A Man Called Peter," she felt one of the ministers there was truly a living example of "Peter Marshall". Mrs. G. Manprize, who had spent several weeks in Hawaii, had some very interesting stories to tell with pictures of the various churches which she and her husband had attended. One fine structure contained living apartments for elderly people, a restaurant and many other attractions. On the 12th floor was a most beautiful sanctuary where she attended the World Day of Prayer service, where those taking part representing many nations spoke in their own language. Another Bicycle Check Scheduled for Saturday

Motorists who had their cars checked last week had nothing on young bicycle riders. Saturday morning Const. R. Rupert of the Acton O.P.P. and Acton Safety Council conducted a Bicycle Safety Check. Boys and girls flocked to the town hall to have their bikes checked and if approved, they received an O.K. sticker.

Another check will be held this Saturday morning and those not having had their bikes checked are asked to attend.
