We are sorry that Mr. Clifford McDonald is hospitalized but hope he may be better soon.

Correction

In the account of last week's council meeting, it was incorrectly reported that Reeve H. H. Hinton said Acton council should pay for services (sewer and water) for a proposed subdivision on land owned by R. N. Brown, Churchill Road N. Mr. Hinton explains it was for other reasons he did not support the resolution. The council resolved that the resolution from the Planning Board regarding the subdivision of the R. N. Brown property be returned to the Planning Board for further clarification of their action and be it further resolved that council do not approve of subdivisions in which the cost of services is not borne by the subdividers.

—Orangemen have scoured the countryside for miles for orange lilies to decorate with.

—Two courses began Sunday at Blue Springs scout reserve.

—Brickwork is up to the second storey at the high school addition. Its regular lines make it hard for sidewalk spectators to figure out, but it will be attractive and spacious when it's done.

—Roses are at their best and gardens are now very attractive.

—The park is in fine condition for the Orange celebration, although the grass is fading with the heat.

—Cement block work has begun on the new addition at Micro Plastics.

—The new awning at the hydro office will likely be installed by Friday.

—Milton's clerk administrator, E. J. Costigan, died suddenly on Tuesday of a heart attack.

—Grade niners should know the significance of the Battle of the Boyne and King Billy's part in the parade Saturday. They studied it in history this past year.

—Many friends enjoyed watching Clarence Rognavaldson appear as a contestant on the TV show To Tell the Truth last week.

—Chain link fencing for the park has arrived. Installation may begin next week.

—Fly your flag for the Orange parade! Merchants have been asked to decorate their windows. How about simple bouquets of wild orange lilies and blue wild lupins? Our decorations will make Acton look hospitable and friendly.
