Mr. and Mrs. George Angell, Mill St., Acton, received a standing ovation at the Los Angeles Angels' baseball stadium as the organist played "The Anniversary Waltz" over the public address system and congratulations were flashed on the stadium notice board. The couple just returned from a two month vacation in the United States, where they visited their son Jack at Phoenix, Arizona, and daughter Betty (Mrs. Bill Corfield) at Los Angeles. While at their daughter's, they visited the ball stadium where they received honors from the ball club and management on the occasion of their 45th wedding anniversary. It was the first American League ball game they have ever seen.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Morrison were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer White, Tonawanda, N.Y. Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Triggs of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hornell, Toronto.

T. E. Carter and Oscar Dripps of Acton District High School are among the 335 teachers from secondary schools throughout Ontario who have been taking the Summer Refresher Course sponsored by the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation at Lawrence Park Collegiate in Toronto. The Refresher Course is now in its tenth year, this summer attracting a record enrollment. Twenty-three instructors, experts in their field and drawn mainly from the ranks of OSSTF, are giving the courses. Since the inception of the course, nearly 2,000 teachers have gone through, some of them coming back a second or third time, as they increase their knowledge and facilities in their subjects. A certificate is given each teacher on completion of the course, in most instances giving the teacher recognition by his or her school board as a mark of additional qualification.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Trudy Oost, Harry Hofstede

The Christian Reformed Church in Acton was the scene of the wedding ceremony uniting Trudy Oost and Harry Hofstede in marriage. The ceremony took place at three p.m. on July 11 with the Rev. W. Van Dijk officiating and A. Leferink at the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Oost of 41 Church Street, Acton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Hofstede, 36 Scene Street, Acton.

Given by Father
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of organza over silk, its lace bodice trimmed with pearls and sequins. The long sleeves of the gown came to a point and the shoulder length veil with scalloped edge was held by flowers on the top. The bride's bouquet was red sweetheart roses and white mums.

The bride was attended by June Oost as matron of honor, sister-in-law of the bride, and Janet Hofstede, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid. Irene Hofstede, another sister of the groom, was the flower girl. All wore yellow brocaded dresses with white and yellow accessories. The matron of honor and bridesmaid carried white shasta mums and the flower girl carried a basket of white mums. The groomsmen were Keith Kietler and the ushers were Joe and Sid Hofstede, brothers of the groom.

Roses Decorate Church
The afternoon reception was held in the basement of the church, which was decorated with roses and mums. The bride's mother received, wearing a beige sheath with white and gold accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

The groom's mother assisted, wearing a blue and green sheath with white accessories and a corsage of white sweetheart roses.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and the U.S.A., the bride chose a powder blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

The couple will make their home at 17 Mill Street, Acton, after their return.

The bridesmaids' and flower girl's dresses were made by Mrs. G. Lawrence and Mrs. B. Hofstede. The bride is employed at Ledger's IGA, and the groom is employed at Northern Electric Co. in Brampton.

Attending the wedding were guests from Acton, Rockwood, Guelph, Lucknow, Clinton, Goderich, Grand Rapids, Chicago, Kingston, Codrington, London and Campbellford.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was guest of honor at several showers: a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. H. Barends, 41 Church Street and a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. H. Rinsma, 17 Church Street, Acton. A presentation and spaghetti supper was held at the home of Mrs. Morrison in honor of the bride and groom by the staff of Ledger's IGA on June 23. Dave Manes presented the bride and groom with living room lamps, a toast.

Outdoor Church Services Start

The first outdoor church service at the park last Sunday evening was well-attended, according to pastor Allan Silvester, Evangelical Baptist Church who is sponsoring the series. Some of the out-of-town picnickers joined the group.
