First Annual Picnic Enjoyed By District Senior Citizens

Saturday afternoon, Loch Gorm was the scene of a very lovely picnic when about 36 of this community's senior citizens gathered for the occasion. This gathering was rather unique in that the large majority of those attending have passed their "three score years and ten."

Those attending included Sandy McLean, Arthur Swackhamer, Duncan and Mrs. Walde and Robert Kerr. The slightly inclement weather failed to dampen the enthusiasm of those attending as they moved indoors to partake of a bountiful lunch, followed by music and chatter until dusk. A resolution to make it an annual event was approved.

Also present for the picnic were Mrs. Betty McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hammond of Streetsville, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Beswick of Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Clare MacArthur of Welland. The latter have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacArthur for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Thompson arrived home after a week's holiday at their cottage on Muskoka Lake. Mr. Fred Thompson and Linda Swackhamer spent the holiday weekend with them.

Combined Bowlers Defeat Georgetown

Rockwood — The Rockwood Action Bowling Club last week turned back Georgetown club with a 13-9 score. In the first 10 end game the Rockwood-Action group took every game but Georgetown came back strong to almost completely reverse the tide. Rockwood had the highest aggregate score and it resulted in the 13-9 win.

On Friday evening an open mixed trebles was held on the Rockwood greens with entries from Galt, Mereton, Guelph and Acton-Rockwood. Two fourteen end games were played and the prizes won by teams skipped by first Lex Nanson from Guelph, with two wins and 42 points, second Art Spenser of Galt with two wins and 40 points, third B. Neidhult of Acton-Rockwood, 2 wins and 27 points, fourth Albert Maltby of Rockwood-Action with one win and 27 points, and fifth George Brown from Guelph with one win and 35 points.

The Rockwood Action club visits Georgetown for their next regular inter-county game.

Recall Former Experiences First Annual Gathering

A very pleasant afternoon was spent on Saturday at the home of Wm. McDonald when forty old friends and neighbors gathered although just enough rain fell to spoil going to the picnic grounds. However, the gracious hostess opened her home. Some old time stories of younger days were told by Mr. Robert Kerr and Mrs. David Russell and others.

Some of the men ventured back and had a game of horse shoes on a boat ride. A bountiful lunch was served. After dishes were all washed Mr. McDonald and Mr. Dick Shuffell got the youths out Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Wm. Evans took turns at the piano. Mrs. Betty McDonald of Streetsville sang "How Great Thou Art" and other numbers and all joined in a hearty vote of thanks and singing "For... They are Jolly Good Fellows."

It was a unanimous decision that it be an annual event. All went home feeling they had enjoyed a most pleasant afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Beswick of Hamilton visited with her sisters Mrs. Donald McLean, Mrs. Fred Cleave and Mrs. Ed Perryman and also attended the get-together at Mr. Wm. McDonald's on Saturday.
