Chappel-Lazenby Vows In St. Alban's Church

Special gifts from aunts and uncles in England — six silver horseshoes, two black cats and the figure of a chimney sweep — all signified "good luck" to a young couple married Saturday, July 25.

In a double-ring ceremony in St. Alban's Anglican Church at four o'clock, Valerie Ann Lazenby became the bride of Kenneth Wayne Chappel in a setting of white and pink carnations. The Rev. McMullin of Georgetown conducted the ceremony and Mrs. Frank Oakes played the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lazenby of 58 Roselord Terrace, Acton and the groom, an employee of the tannery, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Chappel, Agincourt.

Came from England
Special guests were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Shingler, and uncle, Mr. Dennis Shingler, of Birmingham, England. Mr. Shingler had not seen his niece for 19 years.

Mrs. Shingler brought with her the bride's headdress, a crown in lilac-of-the-valley pattern, which held her veil of tulle.

White Gown
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white organza, its square neckline trimmed with pearls.

Panel of lace flowing from the princess waistline enhanced the skirt. She wore a pearl necklace, and carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses.

The bride's three attendants all wore dresses of taffeta with net overskirts, and carried bouquets of pink carnations. Maid of honor was Miss Betty Allison, the bride's cousin, and the brides-

Diane Orpin, Ken Mann Wed Ceremony at Knox on Saturday

Knox Presbyterian church was decorated with white gladioli, pink and white carnations and blue cornflowers last Saturday afternoon for the four o'clock double-ring ceremony which united in marriage Pamela Diane Orpin of Everett and Kenneth Wayne Mann of Acton. The Rev. A. H. McKenzie officiated and E. A. Hansen played the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Croxon of Everett, Ontario. The groom, who is personnel and office manager of Baxter Laboratories in Alliston and owner of the Cameo Shop and Esquire Men's Wear in Acton, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Mann, Acton.

Carried Roses
Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride wore a graceful white Empire sheath of peau de soie with an overskirt of Chan-

Mohr-Franklin Wedding Vows

In Acton United Church on Saturday afternoon, July 25, Sandra Lynne Franklin and John Barry Mohr exchanged wedding vows. In a setting of gladioli, the Rev. A. H. McKenzie conducted the ceremony with George Elliott playing the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. D. Franklin, 50 Main St. N., Acton. The groom is the son of Mr. Harold Mohr, Lucan.

Flower Girl, Page
Miss Patricia Lazenby, the bride's sister, was flower girl wearing white figured nylon and carrying a basket of pink carnations.

Master Michael Platt was page boy wearing a white jacket and dark trousers. He carried the rings on a silk cushion.

Groomsmen were Dennis Shingler, uncle of the bride, and the ushers were Robert and John Lazenby, both brothers of the bride, and Robert Allison, the bride's cousin.

Reception
The reception was held at the Delux restaurant, Georgetown. The bride's mother received the guests wearing a two-piece lace dress with a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother wore a light beige dress with bronze roses.

Out-of-town guests, as well as the bride's grandmother and uncle from England, came from Timmins, Guelph, Toronto, Scarborough, Barrie, Milton, Georgetown and Brampton as well as Acton.

The couple left on a trip to northern Ontario, the bride wearing yellow amethyst and white lace, white accessories and white carnations.

Miscellaneous shower for the bride was given July 20 by Miss Georgina Beimes at the Unger home.

MR. AND MRS. KEN MANN were married Saturday in Knox church. The bride is the former Diane Orpin of Everett. They live in Alliston.
