

Personal Notes . . .

Of Actonians Visiting Out-of-Town Points and of Visitors in Acton Homes

Peter Marso spent two weeks at Camp Breboof at Rockwood. Mr. Frank Rawlings is a patient in Guelph General Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. James Noble arrived home last week from a trip to Manitoulin Island. Mrs. Rita Fisher of St. Thomas is a guest this week of Miss Frances Kenney, Church St. Mrs. Ken McKenzie and Margie are visiting with Mrs. McKenzie's parents in Picton, Nova Scotia. Mr. and Mrs. Bob MacArthur enjoyed a holiday trip last week to visit old friends in Little Current.

Rev. Donald West conducted morning services at St. Alban's Church on Sunday after a three weeks' vacation.

Mrs. Eva Thompson of Guelph was a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Florence Robinson, Lake Ave. one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Patterson, Carol and Miss Bella-Maye Rowell holidayed last week at Sauble Beach.

Colleen Perkins and Merl Harris have been holidaying with their cousins, the Archibalds, in Ajax.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert D. Buckner returned home on Monday from a trip to Vancouver and the west coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Inglis have returned from a three week visit to Prince Albert, Vancouver and New Westminster.

Her many friends were happy to welcome Mrs. George Lee home from Toronto General Hospital on the weekend.

Mr. Tom Watson, his son Bob and a friend, Bill Fisher, have returned from a trip to Ottawa, Upper Canada Village and Old Fort Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Mann returned from their honeymoon trip to northern Ontario on Saturday, August 22. They will be living in Alliston.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. West, Bowler Ave., returned recently from a motor trip to the West, where they visited relatives at Drumheller, Alberta.

Ralph and Sharon Archibald of Ajax have been visiting with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Harris, and cousins in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Callerton and their sons, John and Martin, have returned home after spending a 21-day holiday in London, England.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Baxter, Barbara Joan, Donald and Roy have returned from a trip to Montreal, Quebec City and around the Gaspé Peninsula.

Acton Mayor Les Duby and clerk-administrator Jack McGeachie are attending the O.M.A. conference in London. Reeve H. H. Hinton is also there as a representative of Halton County Council.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Matthews spent a holiday last week on the Lake Superior route, returning by way of Wisconsin and Chicago.

Mrs. Edgar Lidkea is leaving today (Thursday) for Summerside, P.E.I., to be with her daughter, Mrs. Michael Middleton and her new granddaughter. She will return on September 7.

John Maplesden, the grandson of Mrs. Charles Cutts, Acton, is a graduate of Grade 13 in Guelph with five firsts in nine subjects. John is planning to enter Queen's University in Kingston in the fall.

Mrs. D. Engel, Yonny, Judy and Miriam have returned home from their cottage on the French River after spending the month of July and most of August there. Mr. Engel returned the end of July.

Miss Pam Hodgson of Montreal, Quebec, is spending a week with Linda Parker, her former room-mate from Haverhill College. Pam has just returned from a year at Neuchatel in Switzerland.

Miss Susan Heard received her acceptance from Macdonald Institute in Guelph last week. She will be entering a four year degree course there which culminates in a Bachelor of Household Science degree.

Mr. Fred Barnhart is convalescing in St. Thomas-Elgin General Hospital, St. Thomas, following surgery on Friday, August 14, and is rescheduled for surgery Tuesday, August 24. Visitors are allowed and friends are wishing him a speedy recovery.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson over the weekend included Mrs. Fred Campbell, her sister, Miss Dora Synard, and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. David Robertson and son Andrew, all of Toronto.

Mr. John Root, M.P.P. (Wellington-Dufferin) and Mrs. Root left for the Ottawa Valley following signing in London of the agreement between the Ontario Water Resources Commission and the City of London for purchase of water in the projected pipeline. They renewed acquaintances in Mrs. Root's former home, Almonte, for several days and went on to Muskoka. On August 20, they returned to Toronto, where Mr. Root signed the contract for the construction of the intake for the Lake Huron pipeline. (Dr. James Vance, acting chairman of the O.W.R.C., is in South America.)

BEARDMORE & CO. AGENT in Hong Kong visited the Acton plant Monday for the first time and saw the complete operation in the manufacture of leather. As is the custom in his homeland the surname is always given first. Although he is better known as Jimmy Wong, his given name is Wong Kwok-Hing. He is shown looking at a piece of sole leather with Fred Salt, who is the company export manager.

Rev. and Mrs. Edward Pulker of Ottawa and their two younger children, Elizabeth and Norman, were in Acton last Thursday on their way home from the Stratford Festival. While here, they called on Mrs. J. Chapman and Miss M. Chapman on Main St. and the Parkers on Park Ave. Rev. Pulker was minister of St. Alban's here 18 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGeachie returned home Saturday from a very enjoyable two week trip through Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Nova Scotia, P.E.I., Cape Breton Island, New Brunswick and Quebec. While in Prince Edward Island, they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Michael Middleton. Mrs. Middleton is the former Jean Lidkea and lived in Acton. During the trip home, the McGeachie's stopped off in North Bay to visit relatives and brought their nephew, Danny Thoms back with them to visit for a week.

Squadron Leader and Mrs. J. R. Hudson, R.C.A.F., and their three children, Christopher, Sally and Michael, have been visiting the month of August with Mrs. J. T. Davidson and the C. M. Davidson family of Acton. Mrs. J. Davidson is great grandmother to the children, whose ages are nine, seven and six respectively. The Hudsons have just returned from Northern Scotland, where Squad Leader Hudson was on a two year exchange duty with the Air Force. They will be taking up residence in Toronto in September where Squad Leader Hudson will be attending a ten month course at the Air Force College in Armour Heights.
