

Personal Notes . . .

Of Actonians Visiting Out-of-Town Points and of Visitors in Acton Homes

Brian Spruston began a course in business administration at Ryerson Institute on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred West and Mrs. John Chapman called on Waterloo friends Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred West were at Fergus Sunday afternoon visiting their cousin Miss Ida Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Brown returned from two weeks vacation in the Kawartha district above Lakefield at Hull's Camp.

Mrs. Fred Ritchie and daughter Anne of Lucknow visited with the former's mother, Mrs. M. McAuley last week.

Mrs. Mac Symon and daughters Barbara and Anne have returned to their home after spending the summer at their cottage at Kashe Lake.

Rev. A. H. McKenzie, Mrs. McKenzie and family returned last Thursday after spending the month of August at their cottage on French River.

Miss Mary Beth Elliott, who has been awarded a Dominion Provincial bursary, is attending teachers' college in Windsor. She is living with relatives there and began classes Tuesday.

Mrs. Mercedes Leslie, 36 Market St., Georgetown, formerly of Acton, received word last week of the passing of her mother, Mrs. Maria Salazar in Caracas, Venezuela.

Acton friends of Miss Anne MacDonald of Waterloo regret to learn she is a patient in the K-W Hospital in Kitchener and hope for an improvement in health for her.

Miss Deana Morrow, Miss Leona Miller of Columbus, Ohio, Miss Adelen Dunn, Ottawa and Miss Jean Witt, Toronto, visited on the holiday weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Cripps and family.

Mrs. F. White and Miss Priscilla with Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Cole and Miss Jessie Coles returned with them to Boston where she will spend her vacation.

Cash Donation Golden Agers

The highlight of the regular afternoon meeting of the Acton Golden Age club held Thursday, September 3 at 2 p.m. was a generous cash donation from John Holmes. The club appreciated his generous gesture very much.

Bob O'Hara presided for the short business session in the absence of president Ralston. Games were played and euchre prizes were ladies' Miss Anne Stalker, playing a gentleman Fred Clave, crokinole ladies' Mrs. Cossart, gent's Art Swackhamer.

They are hoping for a record crowd for the evening meeting September 17 at 7:30 p.m.

Auxiliary Holds Pot Luck Supper

August 26th was the date of the Annual Pot Luck Supper of the Campbellville Baseball Club Women's Auxiliary. The hostess for the meeting was Mrs. Kenneth Moore.

After the reading and approval of the minutes of the July meeting, the secretary Mrs. Doug Las Agnew read a letter from the manager of the Hamilton Baseball team thanking the members of the Auxiliary for the caps and sweaters which had been donated to the team.

Due to the lateness of the date of the August meeting it was decided to forego the September meeting.

The dishes provided for the Pot Luck supper were many and varied and thoroughly enjoyed by all who partook.

After several games of "Bingo for Fun" were played, the president, Mrs. Leonard Andrews, thanked Mrs. Moore for kindly opening her home for the evening's entertainment. Mrs. William Roberts adjourned the meeting.

Acton and district friends of Mr. William Near of Kitchener are pleased to know that he is improving slowly after a serious illness the past few weeks in St. Mary's Hospital, Kitchener. He is a brother of Mr. Alex Near, Nassagaweya.

Miss Louise Meadmore, who has been on the staff of Acton District High School for the past two years, left on Friday for her home in Manitoba. Miss Meadmore intends to enter university in Winnipeg later in the month.

Starting the term at Guelph Business College are Lyn Parsons, Joanna Lucarelli, Mary Hladun, Darlene Connon, Margie Price, Susie Featherstone, Jane McGree and Barbara Norton. A former student, Milton Ball is returning there.

Miss Donna Ledger has taken a position as instructor at the Eglinton Hunt Club in Toronto. There are five riding instructors on the staff there, the other four men. Among her pupils are girls from Toronto private schools who come there during the day for lessons.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Reid of Guelph, formerly of R.R. 2, Acton, have returned from a two month holiday to Calgary, Seattle, Victoria and other points of interest. At Campbell River B.C. they visited with their son Mr. Clarence H. D. Reid, and family. Their return trip was by way of St. George, Jasper and Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Mason celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Wednesday of last week during a gathering at Brookville Hall. Guests enjoyed lunch and dancing during the evening. A special surprise to both bride and groom of 25 years was a mock wedding which everyone enjoyed.

Two young Acton men, Paul McGee and Rick Currie, and friend Peter Newton from Toronto, didn't get much sleep on the Labor Day weekend. After a 14-hour drive Friday night to New York City, they started in to a round of activities which included sightseeing, a boat trip, a tour of the United Nations building and a day at the World's Fair, before starting the long drive home.

Many from Acton were down to Milton on the weekend for the Chamber of Commerce-sponsored Old Fashioned Dava and the very interesting Steam-Era. Main St. merchants were dressed in old fashioned clothes and had fascinating special window displays. There were parades, competitions and highly unusual exhibits. Actonian Sid Saltz was assisting with the German-Canadian Club refreshment booth. Milton discovered a whole community can have fun together.

ON SEPTEMBER 4, Bonnie Blackley and Emerson (Beaver) Baxter were married at Knox manse by the Rev. A. H. McKenzie. They are living on Tidey Ave.

Baxter-Blackley Wedding At Knox Manse on Sept. 4

At a doubling ceremony in Knox manse the evening of Saturday, September 4, Yvonne (Bonnie) Blackley of 180 Jeffrey Ave., Acton, and Emerson (Beaver) Baxter of Mill St. were married by the Rev. A. H. McKenzie. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. L. Wood, 158 Jeffrey Ave., Acton. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Russell, Acton, is a driver for Gos Transport.

The bride wore a teal blue sheath with matching jacket, mink tone accessories and a corsage of red tea roses and white baby mums.

Matron of honor was a friend, Marlene Tost of Georgetown, wearing a dress of orange ice shade, white accessories and a white mum corsage.

Groomsmen were Garnet Ruszel, brother of the groom, and friends and members of the families attended the reception at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. T. Weir and Mr. Weir, 180 Jeffrey Ave. The three-tiered wedding cake was made by the groom's mother.

Guests were present from Acton, Georgetown, Toronto, Maple, Rockwood and Limehouse. The couple are making their home at 159 Tides Ave., Acton. The bride was honored at several gatherings before the wedding. A presentation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman, Rockwood was given by Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Rae West. A —While the minister, his wife and family were away for the summer, part of Knox manse was redecorated.

—The streets were strangely quiet Labor Day evening. All the children were apparently in side having baths and preparing for school the next day.

—The holiday weekend was quiet with no special events here. Many were away. Some families moved back to town after spending the entire summer at cottages.

—One boy cried at school his entire first morning. Some of the mothers didn't look too happy either.

—United Church Sunday School scholars will be starting the church's controversial new curriculum, with the tentative approval of the sessions. Parents and others will be invited to a special meeting to hear about it.

—Public school board meetings tonight to begin another season. Parks board meets as well.

—Elmer the Safety Elephant Hugs will be going up soon.

—With the new cement floor operation of the arena can now be a 12-month a year project. The recreation commission is planning accordingly.

—Hay fever sufferers are having a hard time with the warm muggy weather of the past week.

—The Department of Highways is conducting a survey on No. 7 highway between Acton and Georgetown to determine the amount of traffic. How about some action on the Mill Main smart instead of this exercise in mathematics?

—Prizes for the Miss Acton Fair contest are in the window of the small Mill St. store used formerly by the Health Unit. Friday is the last day for entries.

—Ruth Clow is working now as secretary at the high school full-time with Mrs. Allan Lander. She is part-time in the guidance office with Mr. Beven and part-time in the main office.

—Distribution of grades nine and ten books continues this week. For the first time, books in these two grades have been supplied to students free of charge here.

—The dates are looming close. September 18 and 19 — Acton Fall Fair — a show for every one! Come to the Fair!

People from this district who watched the weekend's parade in Milton saw the charabanc which will be coming to Acton Fair under the auspices of T.E. Transport. It promises a lot of fun.

Now Milton night school committee is considering whether or not to continue. There were only eight at the organizational meeting — a familiar complaint with Acton's committee. Until there's public demand Acton will likely stay without night school.

—Large crowds have been at tending the bingos in Milton each Wednesday. Many go by bus from Acton. The bingos conclude September 16.

Hopes of Actonians at home go with all the students who are leaving for universities and special courses in cities. The studies will be challenging and we're looking forward to publishing results of their success.

—Watch for Fall Fair specials in the stores next week! You can read about them in the Free Press, too. There will be plenty of detail in news stories to let you know all the highlights of this year's fall fair.

—The fall fair banners are flying across the highway at the entrances to town.
