Of Actonians Visiting Out-of-Town Points and of Visitors in Acton Homes

Each year of fall fair time, the Free Press assembles a list of out-of-town visitors to send this column. This year, there will be paper and pencil at the Free Press booth out on the arena floor and all out-of-town visitors will be asked to sign. Steer your visitors over to it!

Friends are sorry to learn that George Mann is ill in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph.

Terry Waterhouse is taking commerce and finance at Hamilton Institute of Technology.

Mr. Frank Jones, who has been a patient in Guelph General Hospital, is home again now.

Mr. Brian Otterbein is working now in the office at the Thermal division of H. K. Porter Co.

Bruce Andrews left Tuesday by plane to continue his university course at Seton Hall, South Orange, New Jersey.

His course at Guelph Business College concluded, Milton Ball is working with Denny's Insurance Agency.

Miss Barbara Norton is in Grand Rapids, Michigan, attending the graduation of her cousin in nursing.

John Leatherland left Saturday to resume his studies at North Carolina State University, Raleigh, N.C.

now in New York's financial district, Wall St., and lives in Greenwich Village. He thoroughly enjoys living in New York.

Russ Swachamer has resumed his studies at the Hamilton Institute of Technology. He is a second year mechanical technical student.

Miss R. M. MacDonald attended the wedding on Saturday of her granddaughter, Miss Barbara Small, to Mr. Thomas Holmes in Niagara Falls United Church.

Little Frances Batens is a patient in Guelph General Hospital recuperating following an operation. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henk Batens.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Bennett of St. John, New Brunswick, visited Wednesday with the Rev. and Mrs. Donald West. Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. West are sisters.

Miss Sharon Allan is happy with her position in the Group Underwriting Department of Canada Life Insurance Co. in Toronto.

Acton high school students went by bus Tuesday to Stratford to see Richard II. Teachers Mrs. F. Rogers and Bill Coats went with them. The play is on the school curriculum.

Mr. Bob Thornley of Warrington, Lancashire, England, visited with Mrs. T. H. Newton over the weekend. He was an L.M.S. Railway associate of the late Mr. Newton.

Mrs. Earl McLow, her son Frank of Bond Head, her daughter Mrs. J. Honing and Mr. Honing, little Ruth and Brenda of Brougham were visitors with the Fred Andersons on Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Brian Moore and Dr. and Mrs. C. Hutchison were among the many who enjoyed the annual Graduation Dance of Guelph General Hospital at Paradise Gardens, Friday evening.

This Sunday, a service marking the 15th anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Hagnall is being held in Christ Church, Hamilton. The Rev. Donald West, wardens and lay delegates hope to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Oost and young daughter visited relatives and friends in Acton and Rockwood before he began another term at Calvin College, Michigan. He's hoping to return to Canada to teach after graduation.

September 14 marked the 35th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lambert. No special celebration marked the day, but during their vacation, they made a complete trip around Lake Superior, as a celebration of this anniversary.

Members of Walker Lodge paid one of a series of regular fraternal visits Wednesday evening to Lakeland Lodge, Buffalo, travelling by bus. Herb Ritchie is an honorary member of the American lodge. About 40 made the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace motored to Montreal last week to be present at the marriage of Lieut. Donald Dawson and Joyce Ann Taylor in Kydd Memorial Church on Saturday. A reception in the Royal Canadian Ordnance Corp. Officers' Mess followed the ceremony.

A former resident of this area, David Cripps of New York City was visiting relatives in town last week. He has travelled widely, has been through Europe, and the last time he came to Acton, he arrived on a motorcycle dishevelled from riding all the way from Florida. He works

Corporate and Mrs. Ronald L. King, R.C.A.F., and their two children, Dawn and Sharon, are visiting with his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hoshu of R. R. 2, Georgetown. Cpl. King and family have been stationed near Quebec City and are going to Zweibrücken, Germany, on R.C.A.F. duties, shortly. This will be his second time overseas. He returned before in 1955. Ron is a former Nassagaweya resident.

Joyce Van Stralen, Kees Kat Married in Evening Ceremony

In an evening ceremony in Bethel Christian Reformed Church Friday, September 4, Joyce Van Stralen became the bride of Kees Kat of St. Catharines, a student at the University of Waterloo.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Van Stralen, 56 Mowbray Place, Acton, and is a cost accountant at Marsland Engineering Limited, Waterloo. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Kat, St. Catharines. Rev. Wiebe Van Dijk performed the double ceremony in a setting of glads and fall flowers.

The bride was lovely in an A-line gown of organza over taffeta styled with a fitted bodice, bateau neckline and long flaring sleeves. The A-line skirt with inverted pleats at the back flowed into a chapel train. A vine of satin roses enhanced the front of the skirt, repeated in appliques in the folds of the train.

A crown of pearls and crystals held her elbow-length veil of silk illusion. She carried red sweet heart roses and white stephanotis.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin MacColl and children are living in Acton now and five-year-old daughter Ingrid started to school here. Mr. MacColl was formerly factor at the Hudson's Bay Post at Round Lake, 250 miles north of Sioux Lookout. They are living in the apartment above the old post office.

Miss Lorraine Lashby has been accepted in arts at the new Brock University, St. Catharines. There are only 100 students in the first year at the new university and classes so far are in a church. The campus building is expected to be completed in October after being delayed by a strike.

Former recreation director Jim Casburn was playing in the ball tournament on the weekend, and Mrs. Casburn and their family came back from London with him to visit friends. They discovered when they got here they had come without money—not even enough to buy gas to get them home! Acton friends proved friends indeed.

Mrs. Robert Buckner held a small luncheon party Saturday for Mrs. Elaine Cole and her mother, Mrs. Hessebaur of Kitchener. Mrs. Cole, a television and radio personality, was a judge at the Miss Acton Fair contest. Guests included Mrs. Chester Anderson, Mrs. Edward Pratt, Mrs. David Dills of Acton and Mrs. John Taylor of Oakville.

Mrs. H. L. Bennie, Miss Emma Cole and Mrs. F. Anderson of the Knox W.M.S. group, attended an executive meeting of Guelph Presbyterial in Knox Church in Guelph on Saturday and extended an invitation to hold the Presbyterial fall rally in Acton the latter part of September. (The last time this rally was held here was the day World War II ended and the meeting broke up early in jubilation on hearing the news. A calmer meeting this time is assured.)

Her matron of honor was a friend, Mrs. T. Van der Stelt, Brantford and the bridesmaid was Miss Joanne Kat, St. Catharines, sister of the groom. They wore sapphire blue crystal peau gowns with princess bodice, elbow length sleeves and bell skirts, with a rose at the waistline. A matching rose with black well formed hair headpieces. They carried bouquets of yellow blossoms.

The groom's niece, Miss Evelyn Van Gamen, St. Catharines, was flower girl wearing a white lace dress with sapphire blue hair ribbon and carrying yellow mums.

Mrs. Alice Gerritsen of Winona was hostess for a kitchen shower on August 21.

On August 28, Mrs. T. Vander Stelt of Brantford held a miscellaneous shower.

There was a special presentation of an oil painting from office employees of Marsland Engineering.

Several showers were held for the bride-to-be.
