

Keen Interest at Acton's 51st Fall Fair as Depicted by The Free Press

SHORTHORN LASSE Janet Aitken was right at home at the Acton Fair Saturday when she posed with Larry Gardhouse of Milton and his prize Shorthorn calf. Miss Aitken also showed some of her own prize cattle.

MISS ACTON FAIR Nettie Trysenaar is surrounded by her attendants and last year's queen after she was crowned Friday, night. Left to right are first runner-up Jane Bouskill, last year's queen Linda Ferguson and runner-up Janice Tozer. The new Queen is a student at Erin high school.

THEIR WORK OVER, members of the Miss Acton Fair contest and last year's Queen stop for a rest after the parade Saturday. Left to right are Jack Marshall, Jack Holmes, Miss Linda Ferguson, Marvin Hunter and chairman Mac Sprowl.

POULTRY JUDGE Peter Krusell of Ridgehill holds the prize winning Black Cochon owned by Don Wilson of Milton. The rooster won first prize in its class at Acton Fall Fair last weekend.

CHILDREN WON PRIZE for decorated tricycles and doll buggies following Saturday's parade. Left to right are Danny Le Marshe, first for the best decorated tricycle, Judy Scoyne, second, and Sandra Denny, first for decorated doll buggy.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS arrived early. First prize winning jam decorated as a Christmas gift is being admired by judge Mrs. Ronald Fowler, Guelph and lady directors Mrs. R. L. Davidson, Mrs. Morgan Madill and Mrs. William Thompson. Entries in the contest were many and the judge had a difficult time choosing winners.

THREE MILTON GIRLS were among the Paula Jacobs Baton Group which appeared in the Acton Fall Fair parade Saturday afternoon. Left to right are Nancy Addison, Lesley Ellwood and Catherine Ellwood.

MAYOR LES DUBY greeted ratepayers and fair visitors during the Saturday parade as he rode in the back of a white convertible. Mr. Duby also assisted during the official opening of the fair following the parade.

THE BRAIDA TROPHY for the Grand Champion female Angus was presented to Charles Martin of Milton. Left to right are Acton fair board president Calvin Aitken, Nino Braida, and Mr. Martin. The winner is a yearly exhibitor at Acton Fall Fair.

GUELPH ROYALETTES Majorettes headed the Saturday parade in front of Acton Citizens' Band. Seated front row left to right are Deanna Sinclair, Bonnie Crimmings and Kim Campbell. Back row left to right are Deborah Prior, Judy Allison and Linda Hurren. The Guelph organization is under the direction of Jayne Prior Sibley.

The Acton Free Press

Ninetieth Year, No. 13.

ACTON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24th, 1964

Second Section

FREE PRESS PHOTOS

By Don Ryder