Changes Include Shop Down, Empty School, Fixing Grounds

A pleasant evening was spent in Ballinafad Hall when friends and neighbors gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs. George Gibson of Williams Lake, B.C., who were visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gibson. The evening was spent in dancing to music by Lark's orchestra. Floyd Shortill asked Mr. and Mrs. Gibson to the platform, Mrs. Eddie Smith read an address and the couple were presented with a sum of money. Both thanked all for the gift. After singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows", all retired to the basement for lunch. Anniversaries Quite a number from here attended anniversary services at Limehouse, also Churchill, and some went to Ebenezer. Too had there were so many on the same day. Greetings to Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Reid on their 40th wedding anniversary. Another old landmark in Ballinafad is being torn down. The old shop of Archie Law's is disappearing. Work has begun on fixing up the grounds around the Ballinafad Hall. Also a new roof has been put on the United Church. Ballinafad Women's Institute once again had their booth at Milton Fair. One by one the schools are being closed. No 4 Peacock School is deserted after 59 years of service. Watch for a later announcement about the Ballinafad United Church supper on October 17. Mr. and Mrs. Tony Van Dam are moving near Guelph. We are sorry to lose them from our community. Rev. Mr. Rees of Elora, one-time minister at Erin, was guest speaker at Churchill anniversary service on Sunday night. All en-

103rd Church Anniversary Guest Speaker, Acton Music

Limehouse Presbyterian Church celebrated the 103rd anniversary of its opening on Sunday, with large congregations at both morning and evening services. Rev. C. C. Cochrane, B.A., B.D., now of Melville Presbyterian Church, Westmount, and formerly minister at Limehouse for seven years, was guest preacher, delivering two rousing and applauded sermons. Numerous visitors attended from other congregations to renew acquaintances with this outstanding visiting minister. Rev. F. N. Young, the present minister, assisted in the evening service. Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Shortill and Miss Ann Shortill assisted the local choir in the morning and sang two lovely numbers. In the evening, F. A. Hansen was at the organ and Mrs. A. K. Mann and her junior choir of Knox Church, Acton, provided anthems. The ladies served refreshments in the basement following the evening service.

400 Attend Barn Dance Friday at Borsh Farm

The Eden Mills Community Club sponsored a barn dance at the Borsh Farm Friday evening which proved to be a huge success. Music was provided by Bill Long and his orchestra from Hamilton. About 400 enjoyed the music. Another one similar will take place in three weeks' time. Andy Cann is in Guelph General Hospital. Ladies Meet Mrs. G. Stevenson was hostess for the W.M.S. and Ladies Aid for their monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Garnet Macdonald took the chair for the W.M.S. opening with Hymn 419, minutes and treasurer's reports read and approved. The 7th Chapter of Acts was read alternately and roll call was an success with greetings from the Glad Tidings. Invitations were read to attend Thank Offering meetings at Nassapaweya Presbyterian Church October 1 and Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton, October 8. Scripture reading was taken by Mrs. Evelyn Barron. A duet was rendered by Mrs. W. Lasby and the meeting closed with prayer.

Truck, Train In Collision

A Limehouse man escaped injury but his truck was slightly damaged when it collided with a train on 20th Street and the English Line, Esquesping, Friday evening. Driver James O'Rourke of Limehouse told police he was approaching the crossing when he saw the light from the train. He swerved the truck to the right and the train scraped across the front corner of the truck, causing 275 damages. The train did not stop and police figured the engineer did not even know there had been a collision. Many from this district attended Milton Fair on Saturday.

Donald MacDonald Guest At New Democrat Bonfire

Haltom New Democrats met at Acton recently to hear the comments of Prov. Lead. D. MacDonald on the recent Liberal leadership convention which Mr. MacDonald had attended as a commentator. They also enjoyed barbecued hot dogs, sweet Ontario corn and plenty of singing around a roaring bonfire. Mr. MacDonald told those present that Andrew Thompson, the newly elected leader of the Ontario Liberals had the blessing of leading Conservatives. Officials of the Progressive Conservative Party, Mr. MacDonald claimed, would like to see the Liberals with a leader who could take them out of the shadow of the New Democratic Party in the legislature. In Mr. MacDonald's opinion, the NDP would continue to be the only effective opposition in the house. In referring to the recent by-elections, Mr. MacDonald claimed that the NDP was the only party to benefit substantially from the results. The election of James Renwick for the New Democratic Party in Riverdale was a win of major significance. The Conservative Party in the next election.
