Black-Richardson Wedding Held in Ebenezer Church

A double-ring ceremony in Ebenezer United Church Saturday afternoon, September 12, united in marriage Myrtle Lorraine Richardson of Guelph and Douglas James Black of Milton, an employee of Acton's IGA store.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Richardson of Guelph and is a stenographer with the Manufacturers Life Insurance Company. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Black, Milton, is a meat cutter.

Arrangements of pink glads and white mums decorated the church while the Rev. William Sinn, assisted by the Rev. W. A. Leeman, performed the ceremony. Mrs. Donald Blacklock played the organ. Joy Hayward and Miss Sarah Blith sang two duets. The Lord's Prayer and O Perfect Love.

Lace Gown

The bride chose a floor-length gown, its bodice and hip and sleeves of Chantilly lace and the Sabrina neckline edged in sequins and pearls. The bouffant skirt of nylon sheer over tulle was edged with a wide border of lace at the hemline. Tiny bows enhanced the front and back of the skirt.

A crown of pearlized orange blossoms held her four-tier veil of nylon illusion with scalloped edge. She carried a cascade of white carnations with pink sweet heart roses and ivy.

Five Attendants

Her attendants, all in pink were Miss Kathryn Norrish, Guelph, a friend of the bride; Miss Susie Richardson, Guelph, a sister of the bride; Miss Barbara Black, Milton, a sister of the groom; and Mrs. Sherrill Macpherson, Acton, a friend of the bride. Their floor-length gowns were of lace overblouses in shades of pink at the front but with deep pleats at the back creating a slight train. Their headpieces were of matching roses with back veils. They carried cascades of white pompon mums, accented with pink ribbons and leaves.

The flower girl, Miss Debbie Richardson, Milton, a niece of the bride, wore a dress of white nylon over tulle with a pink collar and a headpiece of roses. She carried a miniature basket of white pompon chrysanthemums. Kevin Black, a nephew of the groom, acted as ring bearer.

Mr. Richardson gave his daughter in marriage. Groomsman was Bruce Macpherson, the usher was Bruce Richardson, a brother of the bride. Harvey Black and Ken Black, brothers of the groom.

Reception in Church

The reception following the ceremony was held at the church. The bride and groom received well-wishers and guests. Refreshments were served by the bride's mother and aunts. A complimentary gift was given to the bride and groom.

The bride's mother wore a pink and white dress. The bride's father wore a suit and tie. The groom wore a suit and tie. The bride's mother-in-law wore a suit and tie. The bride's father-in-law wore a suit and tie.

Several wedding gifts were presented to the bride and groom. The gifts included a silver service, a gold watch, a diamond ring, and a pearl necklace. The bride and groom were very grateful for the gifts.

The bride and groom were very happy to be married. They will be celebrating their wedding anniversary every year.

Guests were present from Stratford, Oakville, Woodbridge, and other nearby towns.

Personal Notes . . .

Of Actonians Visiting Out-of-Town Points and of Visitors in Acton Homes

Mrs. Edith Frank, Mill St., is visiting with Burlington friends.

Master Robert Hopkins is home from Guelph, where he has been in a patient in the General Hospital for the past week.

Friends are sorry Mr. George Mann is in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, with a broken hip. He's well known to many young people as a former Robert Little school caretaker.

Mr. H. Roy Burling, Kalamazoo, Michigan, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Burling, Bay City, Mich., have returned home after spending the weekend at the home of George Edwards.

Mrs. R. B. Layton of Calgary visited her niece, Mrs. Tom Watson, Mr. Watson and family last week. 70 years of age, she has just retired after teaching 60 years in the west.

Miss Doris Wilson of Toronto was back in Acton visiting friends last week.

Nonagenarian Charles Kelly Browne has been missed this week at his tobacco and confectionery store on Main St. The 93-year-old businessman has not been feeling up to par this week and has been confined to his home. His friendly smile and witty sense of humor have been missed by customers but many friends have called or phoned for a brief chat.

Mrs. George Young, her sister-in-law, is another district winner. She came second in baking at Georgetown.

Mrs. N. Robertson Wins Specials at Georgetown

After entering the three district fairs, Acton, Milton and Georgetown, and doing well at them all, Mrs. Nora Robertson is relaxing this week. As yet she hasn't tallied how many classes she has won.

Last week at Georgetown Fair she won the most points in the hall for Simpson's-Sears special, a silver covered entree dish, and most points in domestic classes for Silver's $10 voucher.

She took many awards at Acton and Milton, but not all these specials are announced yet.

Mrs. Robertson won't be entering at Erin.

She's twice winner of the Free Press jam and jelly trophy here. She enters all domestic categories, but mostly in the baking.

She is busy for hours and hours before each fair, preparing her prize-winning entries. She doesn't like frozen food, and hasn't yet tried freezing any of her articles, to lift the load of last minute preparation. Apparently the judges everywhere agree with her that baking is best when it's fresh from the oven!

Tender plants were blackened by this week's early very heavy frost.

First Snow

"It's snowing! It's snowing!" squealed the kindergarten children as they came out of school Tuesday afternoon. But by the time the other grades were let loose, the few paltry pellets had disappeared. Adults didn't greet the sight with nearly the enthusiasm of the kids.

Last sketching trip of the season for the Five Counties Art Association was held Saturday at Rattlesnake Point.
