Senior Citizens Baptist Guests

Sunday evening, October 4, the Senior Citizens Club of the Acton were guests of the Acton Baptist Church for the evening service. The auditorium was well filled and all expressed their satisfaction as the old hymns of the faith were heartily sung.

The choir sang two numbers for the guests, with their joining in the chorus of the favorite, "How Great Thou Art."

The message of the evening was given by the pastor, Rev. Stanley Gammon, the theme being "Jesus, Lord of All." The congregation sang heartily the hymn, "Diadem" before the message. Four thoughts were expressed in the message as seen in Mark, chapter 4 and 5.

The thoughts were: Jesus is Lord of all in the natural realm, stilling the sea; Jesus is Lord of all in the infernal realm, dismissing the demons; Jesus is Lord of all in the physical realm, the woman healed; Jesus is Lord of all in the invisible realm, the little girl raised to life.

After the service, all went downstairs for an hour of fellowship over a cup of tea or coffee.

The B.H.F. Young People's group sang a chorus, "The Lord is Good" and Wilfred Cole, a member of the Acton church for 60 years, sang his favorite hymn, "Gloria Me O Thou Great Jehovah."

The president of the group, Jim Ralston, thanked the Acton church for a delightful evening.
