Donald Atkinson, Dawn Coulter Say Vows in Lowville Church

Autumn shades of chrysanthemums and gilded stalks of bearded wheat in gold standards made an appropriate setting for the solemnization of the marriage of Miss Eleanor Dawn Coulter and Donald Edward Atkinson of Lacombe, Alberta, in Lowville United Church on Saturday, October 10, 1964. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Roy Coulter, R. R. 3, Campbellville, Ont., and the groom is the only son of Mrs. E. A. and the late Mr. Atkinson of Lacombe, Alberta.

Rev. A. Kenneth Griffiths officiated at the double-ring ceremony and soloist Mrs. A. K. Griffiths rendered "The Wedding Prayer" and "Forget Me Not to Leave Thee", accompanied by Mrs. J. R. Davey at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, entered the church on her father's arm, garlanded in silk organza with the daisies and roses, wearing a floor-length bell skirt and long sleeves with a rounded neckline. Her tiara crown of seed pearls held a silk illusion veil and she carried a white Bible with a bouquet of tawny roses, stephanotis and ivy. It was designed using the white ribbon from her mother's bridal bouquet. She wore the groom's gift, a single strand of cultured pearls.

Bleue Peau de Soie
Mrs. Alan Burbridge was matron of honor for her cousin and Mrs. Eugene Coulter and Miss Judy Coulter, sister-in-law and cousin of the bride were bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in French blue peau de soie and carried rosegay bouquets of golden baby mums. Miss Wendy Coulter, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a gold peau de soie dress, a circlet of mums and tulle as a headdress and carried a basket of chrysanthemums in tawny autumn shades. The attendants wore drop pearl pendants, the gifts of the bride.

Eugene Coulter, twin brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were Alan Burbridge and Peter Switzer, cousin of the groom, of Stratford, Ont.

Fairview Reception
Mrs. Roy Coulter received for her daughter at the reception held at Fairview School for 130 guests, wearing a dark green silk velvet dress, green feathered pillbox hat and brown accessories with corsage of golden sweetheart roses. Mrs. E. A. Atkinson received for her son wearing a navy eyelet satin dress and white accessories with corsage of white sweetheart roses.

H. John Coulter was master of ceremonies and Charles Bryant proposed the toast to the bride. A number of telegrams from the province of Alberta were read, including one from the brother of the bride in Drumheller and one from the twin sisters of the groom in Edmonton. An airmail letter from the groom's relatives in England was also read. The bridesmaids and flower girl assisted the bride and groom in serving the wedding cake which was made by the bride's mother.

The couple will motor to Alberta, where they will reside near Lacombe. For going away, the bride wore a three-piece suit of gold colored wool, brown accessories and a corsage of Cymbidium orchids.

Special Guests
Wedding guests included the bride's great-aunt, Mrs. G. A. Coulson and George Cudmore, great-uncle of the bride, both of R. R. 2, Milton, as well as guests from Lacombe, Alberta; Sarnia, London, Toronto, Hamilton, St. Mary's, Stratford, Preston, California, Unionville, Milton and Burlington.

Prior to the wedding, the young couple were honored at several social events. Mrs. Rita McKenzie gave a miscellaneous shower by the members of the nursing staff at Milton District Hospital; Mrs. Alan Burbridge and Mrs. Robert Schilling gave a bathroom shower at the home of Mrs. Joe Henry; Mrs. Fred Rouse was hostess to neighbors for a china presentation.

Mrs. Alan Clements and Mrs. Norman Coulter were joint hostesses at the former's home at a miscellaneous shower; a community presentation was held in Lowville United Church; a miscellaneous shower was held at Fairview Community Centre, Lacombe, Alberta, and Mrs. Bruce Coverdale entertained at a buffet supper for the wedding party and members of the immediate families after the rehearsal.

The wedding ceremony and reception was taped for the benefit of the many guests in Western Canada who could not be present.

Sunshine Equipment From Sale of Cards

The October Auxiliary meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Roy Knapp on October 8 for the North Halton Association for Mentally Retarded. In the absence of the president, Mrs. John Turkoz, vice-president Mrs. Roy Knapp took the chair. On opening the meeting the first introduced and welcomed a new member to the group.

From the September news letter she then read a verse entitled "Forget Me Not". What good is the retarded child? Who wants him around to see? Did God create him? Help me to find just one small goal!

The Lord's Prayer followed. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted.

Mrs. Chester Anderson, treasurer for the annual campaign, reported that receipts would be sent out in the mail in the very near future. The lovely colonial design quilt on display at the meeting, now all completed was admired by the members who had not yet seen it. Christmas cards were distributed among the members to be sold. The money from these sales will be used for much needed equipment and workshop research. Mrs. Chester Anderson on the education committee is kept extremely busy at tending meetings at the Sunshine School, Hornby. She stated October 13 was the next education meeting, and a parents and teachers night was scheduled for October 26. Lunch was served.

Lions Club Bulb Blitz

Acton Lions Club is sponsoring a two-day blitz and will ask the public to "see the light" as members seek to raise $400 toward a project to purchase a Schomburg combination ice shaver and flooder for the arena.

The piece of equipment, which will be pulled by a tractor with a power takeoff, will sweep, shave and flood the ice in one operation.

Neil Miller has been named chairman of the light bulb blitz and has set October 26 and 27 as the dates for the blitz. It is hoped the club can raise the entire cost of the equipment amounting to $1,900 by means of several projects. Members are hopeful the money can be raised in time for the equipment to be available for this season.

Public school students are again selling Christmas cards and wrappings to raise money for the school.

Paulette Beland, R. Hinksman Married in Guelph Ceremony

In a triple ring ceremony in the Church of Our Lady, Guelph, on Saturday, October 3 at 11 a.m., Catherine Paulette Beland and Roger Joseph Hinksman were united in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Paul Beland, 164 Churchill Rd., Acton; the groom, who is employed at Northern Electric Co., Bramalea, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hinksman of Malton.

The church was decorated with white glads, carnations and stephanotis for the ceremony conducted by Rev. Father Noonan.

John Marrin played the organ and the soloist, George Manning, sang "Maria" during the signing of the register, O God of Loveliness, and Panis Angelicus, O Lord I am Not Worthy and Jesus My Lord My God My All.

Lace, Not Gown
The bride wore a white full-length gown of lace, its sweetheart neckline dotted with tiny crystals; the skirt, fashioned of tiers of permanently pleated nylon with lace panels at the front and back. She wore a coronet of seed pearls and crystals with a fingertip length veil, and carried a cascade of white carnations and red roses.

The maid of honor, Pat McKay, wore rose nylon chiffon with balloon skirt, three-quarter length sleeves and shoes to match; and carried turquoise carnations.

The bridesmaids, Janet Heighon, Mary Hladin and Kathy Molnar, and the junior bridesmaid, Carol Wilkinson, were all dressed in turquoise nylon chiffon in same style as the maid of honor, and carried bouquets of rose carnations.

Tuxedos for Men
The bride was given in marriage by her father. Groomsman was Mo Lambert and the ushers were John Hinksman, brother of the groom, Garry Walker and Bob Beland, brother of the bride. The men in the wedding party all wore tuxedos.

Christopher Hinksman, nephew of the groom, acted as ring bearer.

The afternoon reception was held at Eleanor's in Guelph. Receiving, the bride's mother wore a turquoise dress with matching hat and a corsage of yellow roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother who wore a two-piece beige suit trimmed with pink with brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Trip South
For a honeymoon trip to the southern states, the bride wore a two-piece red suit, black accessories and a white feathered hat. They are making their home in
