

Home Mission Work Described During Circle Thankoffering

The Marion Rudd Mission Circle of Acton Baptist Church held their fall Thankoffering meeting Monday night at the church. Miss Jessie Coles opened the meeting with a singing of favorite hymns. The president, Mrs. Landsborough gave a Scripture reading and all joined in the hymn "Behold We Come Dear Lord to Thee and said prayer."

The president gave the devotion based on Matthew 28: 16-28 and a verse in First Timothy, referring to the bounty of Harvest, closing with prayer.

A musical number was rendered by the quartet, Charles Landsborough, Mrs. J. Chapman, Miss Alice Pilkington and John Battie. The president welcomed all the visitors from the various churches. Hymn, Lord of Living Harvest was sung.

Mrs. Helwig introduced the speaker, Miss Mary Epp from the Home Mission Board who has done Home Mission work for the past two years at College St. Baptist Church, Toronto. Miss Epp gave a very interesting talk on her various phases of work there. Mrs. Fred West thanked Miss Epp for her enlightening talk and also thanked the ones who took part in the program. The Circle was asked to remember the work of College St. Baptist Church in prayer.

Another musical number was given by the quartet. The Rev. Stanley Gammon closed in prayer.

Refreshments were served in the lower auditorium and an opportunity provided for all to get acquainted with Miss Epp.

Miss Norma Thompson from Georgetown thanked the Circle for inviting them and for the enjoyable fellowship.

Golden Age Club

Hilarious Mock Wedding Dances, Music Enjoyed

The regular evening meeting of the Golden Age Club took the form of a Halloween party when 15 members of Milton Senior Citizens joined with the Acton club. President Ralston welcomed the guests and members and conducted a short business meeting in the Y Thursday of last week.

Treasurer Jack Hargrave was chairman for the entertainment that followed.

Youngsters Entertain
Several Acton youngsters provided a large amount of the program. Debbie Bousfield played two piano selections which were much enjoyed and Joe Petric played several delightful selections on his accordion.

The pupils of Mrs. Joyce Carpenter performed a repeat performance. Their opening number was songs and tap dances by appropriate costumes. Later they did more numbers to the delight of the audience. The youngsters included Kathy and Karen Ashley, Joan and Peggy Laverty, Bonnie Bristol, Debbie Bousfield, Mary Frances Marcoux and Carol Masley.

The Golden Age club certainly appreciates these youngsters giving freely of their time and talent to entertain them in this way.

A quartet from Acton Baptist church, Charles Landsborough, John Battie, Mrs. J. Chapman and Alice Pilkington accompanied by Mrs. Lloyd Bulmer sang several sacred songs to a hushed and appreciative audience. Mrs. Bulmer also accompanied Mr. Landsborough as he gave two delightful cornet solos.

Mock Wedding
Several members donned gowns from earlier years and masks to put on a mock wedding and hours of laughter and merriment ensued. The bride and groom were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Massey, bridesmaid was Mrs. George Fryer, best man Mrs. Donald Ross, father of the bride

Mrs. James Wilds W.I. Hostess Plan Bus Trip to Halton Manor

The roll call was "Cheese and Ways to Serve It", which was answered by the members with many good recipes. Mrs. Donald Lindsay, the president, read an invitation from St. Paul's United Church, Milton, for home ec. onks.

Trip to Manor

Our Readers Write

MUNICIPAL POLITICS

I read with great admiration your editorial in a recent edition, headed "Municipal Shopping Days". In general we are guilty of a terrible apathy in regard to municipal politics, which seems always to be most evident at nomination and election time each year. It is certainly stimulating to see appointed, imaginative and strongly worded articles such as yours appearing to prod us from this collective coma.

I do hope you will reprint it in your other publication "The Canadian Champion". I know it would interest many in the central and southern part of the county.

Sincerely yours,

Elva Newton
(Editor's Note: The editorial referred to above also appeared in the October 8 issue of The Canadian Champion.)

I'M BACK

Boss: Well, did you read the letter I sent you?

Office boy: Yes, sir. I read it inside and outside. On the inside it said, "You're fired" and on the outside it said, "Return in five days", so here I am.

Newton's, Cooper - Morris Drug Store and Mrs. Shultis.
Next regular meeting will be November 5 at 2 p.m. in the Y building.

Cut Three Daily Train Stops For Passengers Starting Sunday

The number of commuters leaving Acton station each day is small, although the number might go as high as 10 in bad weather.

The morning commuter train to Toronto doesn't have very many passengers when it passes through Acton, but by the time it reaches the centre of the city there are between 400 and 500 passengers, mostly picked up in West Toronto or Weston.

Special fares for commuters and mid-week travellers have been eliminated recently.

Midnight Call

A midnight fire call Wednesday night took Acton firefighters to the home of Wib McMullen on No. 7 Highway, three miles west of town.

An overheated, converted space heater was the cause of the alarm, but Mr. McMullen had everything under control when firefighters arrived.

BIGGER IDEAS
Jim: Dad, give me a dime.
Dad: Son, don't you think you're too big to be asking for dimes?
Son: I guess you're right Dad. Give me a dollar.

IN THE DUST
Employer to Janitor:
"Pulack, I wrote your name with my finger in the dust on my desk this morning."
"Yeah, boss," the janitor replied. "And you spelled it wrong."
