

STORM BASTILLE
December 2, 1964

To the Editor:
Freedom! Fraternity! Liberty! was the cry of the citizens of Nassagaweya on Monday night as they stormed into the Bastille at Brookville. Led by a fair, albeit plump Joan d'Arc, supported on the right by the handsome lord of Rock Elm Farm, the free people came in their wrath, determined to bring back democracy to their beloved township.

But, alas, the people only got to enter the outer hall with the beautiful streamers at the ceiling and the hard chairs on the floor. Not for the peasant and second class citizen the soft cushioned seats in that inner sanctum, plus furnace room, plus kitchen, where deals are cooked up to deny a vote.

The Tyrants put up a good defense, they had looked after the health and well-being of their people and had behaved as kind and gentle fathers to all the citizens.

The chief Tyrant did not deny that the price of bread and even cake was high, but pointed to the reduction in taxes so the people could buy cake and even bread.

The roads and bridges were improved and even lighted, so that the people could get to the villages to buy their food.

But, Hark! Another voice is heard. Down from its stronghold on the Upper Guelph Road it came. "What is this Miscellaneous?" the voice demanded.

"Do we need it in Nassagaweya? If it is five cent stamps, should be called five cent stamps, and the voice protested against sending thousands of good Nassagaweya money to an alien government in Ottawa. Picking up speed and power the voice thundered on, do we need a new Bastille, this one of timber, (with the streamers under ceiling and the hard chairs on the floor) is hard enough to get into now, how could the people, the citizens, the ratepayers get into a concrete block Bastille, as you Tyrants, who deprived us of our vote, propose to build. We would never get in, the voice said, and if we did, half the people would have to stand in the kitchen and half would have to sit in the toilets.

After that great charge by her faithful ally, Joan again took up the cudgels and faced the chief Tyrant, eye to eye. Joan accused the Tyrants of bringing foreign mercenaries from Toronto to help them deprive the people of their vote. The chief Tyrant was shaken, but he kept his voice low and respectful as he answered the charge, besides Joan is a lady.

The hour is now getting late, the streamers are still under the ceiling and the hard chairs are getting harder. The antagonists are still holding their ground but both sides are weary and a truce is called.

With a promise of strong leadership, good administration, more parks, and a solving of the High School Problem, Joan and her cohorts will attack again on December 7 when every voter armed with a ballot, even the stonies of Rock Elm Farm, will roll down on Brookville and deliver Democracy.

Yours truly,
GIRDLE NESS

St. John Cadets Hold Bazaar in Town Hall

Bad weather slowed sales at the St. John Cadets bazaar in the council chambers of the town hall Saturday afternoon. The young girls had made many attractive items to sell under the direction of Mrs. George Hargrave.

Assisting at the sale were Linda Reimers, Patie Syme, Brenda Fryer, Mary Jane, Marnie Maxwell, Christine Elling, Evelyn Vander Brink and Sandra Hargrave.

500 EMPLOYEES at Beardmore and Co Ltd received their final influenza vaccine shots Friday at the plant. Doctor T. B. Moore and Doctor C. Hutchison completed the program which had started earlier in the fall. Left to right are Dr. Moore, Wes Marchment, an employee for 29 years, personnel supervisor Les Duby, Harvey Palmer, an employee for 39 years and Dr. Hutchison.

Three Speakers Informative At 5th Anniversary of A.A.

The fifth anniversary of the Mobile Group of Alcoholics Anonymous, celebrated in the Scout Hall last Saturday, drew an attendance of over 100, with members and their friends pouring in from outlying towns to make the occasion one to be remembered. And remembered it will be, both for the fine addresses given by the three speakers, and for the cheery get-together over refreshments afterwards.

The first speaker was Wally. "When I was helpless and hopeless and when I had no other place to go, I turned to A.A.," he said. "I had tried all sorts of cures and all sorts of answers, but my case seemed hopeless, and I was desperately ill. Through A.A. I found new friends, and that Power greater than ourselves who restored me to sanity. The fellows were betting that I couldn't live the year out because of scarred lungs and the way I had wrecked my constitution. That was in 1955 and since then, I have never taken a drink and my life has been happy beyond measure."

The second speaker was Rev. Gordon Hastings of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Guelph. There was a time, he said, when the attitude of the church towards the alcoholic was much the same as the attitude taken

I.O.D.E. Bazaar At Legion Hall

Despite a downpour, Lakeside Chapter of the I.O.D.E. held a very successful bazaar last Saturday afternoon in the Legion Hall. Mrs. C. Nellis and Mrs. George Musselle convened the annual money-raising event.

In draws made at the end of the afternoon by children of members, Kathy Hinton, Kathleen Dills and Johnny McHugh, winners were as follows: $25 money tree, Evonne McGladery, carnation and mum centerpiece from Lakeview Greenhouses, Mrs. Walter Dubois, blue apron made by Mrs. J. Inglis, Mrs. C. Ross, box of candy, Mrs. George Musselle, chocolate cake made by Mrs. C. Nellis, Mrs. Jack Downing, leather hat made by Mrs. Stella Adamson of Galt, an out-of-town member of the chapter. Mrs. Bill Coon, embroidered tea towels, Mrs. George Evans, Georgetown (sister of former president Mrs. W. I. Sproston), chicken, Mrs. Harry Manuprice.

Conveners of the various tables, which did steady business throughout the rainy afternoon, were: miscellaneous, Mrs. Bert Hinton, baking, Mrs. Cam Irish, man, knitting, Mrs. H. Helwig, Mrs. R. Spielvogel, candy, Mrs. John McHugh, country store, Mrs. W. Coon, Mrs. I. Footitt, aprons, Mrs. Talbot.

Mrs. H. Otterben convened the tea, served from an attractive table. Officers of the chapter pointed tea and coffee. Daughters of some of the members assisted serving.

Turkey dinner was served in the Legion Hall by the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary. Bern Van Fleet was master of ceremonies for the evening. Comedian Bill Meek entertained and there was dancing to Vern Tolton's orchestra to conclude the pleasant evening.

Special guests were former fire chief and honorary fireman Jack Newton, who came with Mrs. Newton from Toronto; honorary fireman Bill Chisholm and Mrs. Chisholm; former deputy fire chief Bill Williams, new fireman John Van Der Brink and Mrs. Van Der Brink; and Mrs. Herb Dodds, at her first fireman's ladies' night.

All the ladies received carnations pinned on by Bert Fowler. In charge of the program were Bern Van Fleet, Bert Fowler, Jack Pink and Dorson Fritzell.

In a draw, Herb Dodds won two tickets to the Saturday night hockey game.

CHURCHILL Farewell Party Held at School

A farewell party was held at Woodside School on Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Tony Van Tol who are moving to near Guelph.

A friendly time was spent singing songs led by Mr. Leslie Ball. Mr. Jack Tizzard called on Mr. and Mrs. Van Tol to come forward and Mrs. Ralph Denny read an address. They were presented with a wallet, a casserole with cover, cradle and warmer and a lawn croquet game set. They both replied, thanking everyone. Lunch was served and dancing followed.

Friends are sorry to hear Mr. Norman Turner had the misfortune to severely sprain his ankle while at work last week. Hope he soon can be around again. Visitors at the Griffin home through the week were Mr. Sid Mansfield, Mrs. Will Mansfield, Mr. Roy Mossop and Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson, all of Toronto.

Congratulations to Miss Karen Hamilton who was honored to receive a student council award and the Elm Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion Auxiliary award at Elm District High School graduation exercises Friday evening, November 27.

Mr. Benton McCool of Colting Wood visited with his friend Mr. Bob Kerr Jr. over the weekend. Mr. Alfred Winters, who has been in Mount Sinai Hospital, Toronto, undergoing surgery, returned home last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Griffin at tended the Warden's Dinner on Friday evening at Fergus. Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacArthur accompanied Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Masales and visited relatives in Welland and Thorold last Wednesday and Thursday. Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hamilton on the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Allen, Willowdale, Mrs. Muriel McNichol, Weston and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hamilton and Mark, Georgetown. —A nursery at Knox church for infants and toddlers during church service is being conducted by girls of the C.G.I.T. under their leaders, Miss Diane McConnell and Mrs. David Cleland. —Christmas cards and parcels from overseas are arriving at the post office already. And a few Christmas cards are coming from other towns right in Ontario, to alert the slow senders.
