Vancouver Teenager Has Popular Record

Patty Surbey, a Vancouver teenager who lived in Acton as a child, has made a record that's becoming quite popular in the west. The daughter of former Actonians Mr. and Mrs. Jack Surbey has recorded "I Want A Beattle for Christmas" and on the reverse side, "Christmas All Year Round".

The record has been sent to Guelph radio station and perhaps local listeners will hear it played there.

The Surbys lived here with her parents, Mr. Jack Wynne and the late Mrs. Wynne. Mr. Wynne worked at the Wood Combining and Mr. Surbey was in the animal services. They lived in Hinton's house and a farm near town. They moved west when daughter Patty was still very young.

Friends here will be interested to hear further of her career in popular music!
