

Christmas Meeting Of Rockwood U.C.W.

Rockwood — The Christmas meeting of Rockwood United Church Women was held recently at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Maradea. A New Year's Meditation by the unit leader, Miss Gladys Hanna opened the meeting. A Christmas carol and prayer were followed by the minutes and treasurer's report.

Miss Hanna thanked the members for their help and support during the past year.

After a short business period, the program for the evening was taken by Mrs. Edgar Johnston. A carol was sung and an article on "Keeping Christmas" read. The meditation was "Peace on Earth and good will to all men." The minutes were read and the meeting was closed with prayer.

This being the concluding meeting of the year, a longer period than usual was taken for a time of fellowship. During this time, a lovely lunch was served by Miss Pearl Hamilton and the hostess, Mrs. L. Maraden.

Doug Buittenham Bowling Star

Rockwood — In the Rockwood and District Bowling League, Doug Buittenham started off the second half of this season's bowling with a terrific night. Doug had a high triple of 750 flat and a high single of 276 flat. Ken Duncan took high triple with handicap with 723 and Doug Cross had a high single with handicap of 303.

For the ladies, it was Janet Peart with a high triple of 595 flat and Irene La Voie with 662 with handicap. High single for the night went to Marjorie Hume with 221 flat and Janet Day with 249 with handicap.

Men's high average for the season is Fred Nightingale with 217, and for the ladies it's Shirley Salmon with 184.

Standings
The team standing for this first night of bowling is as follows: Saunderson's, Nichol's Pals, Wild Ones and Pearl's Variety took seven points each; Horport Millers, Eilers, Archers and Hume's Texaco each took five points. Two points apiece went to Ken's Variety, Rockwood Rockets and Horport Dusters, while Stratton Exco, Stan's Superstix, Carney's and Seventh Line could not manage to pick up a single point.

Men over 600: Doug Buittenham 750, Bert Archer 691, Ken Duncan 672, Al Nichol 658, Dick Dupuis 627, Jim Milne 624, Duncan Kingsbury 624, Bill Stewart 620, Fred Nightingale 614, Doug Cross 600.

Ladies over 550: Janet Peart 595, Irene La Voie 593, Marjorie Hume 561, Georgina Kelso 551.

Legion Popular New Year's Eve

The Legion auditorium could have been sold out several times over for New Year's Eve, judging by the unprecedented demand for tickets. The number was limited to 75 couples and the auditorium, especially decorated, was filled to capacity.

Dancing was to Johnny Tucher's orchestra. There were favors, hats and noisemakers provided, and the room was filled with flying paper streamers and balloons at midnight.

Every available inch of space was left to accommodate dancers, eliminating the possibility of serving lunch, although it had been considered. Some groups brought their own snacks.

Primitive Islanders Subject of Survey

The January meeting of the Duke of Devonshire I.O.D.E. was held at the home of Mrs. E. Lidkea, the regent, Mrs. Force presiding.

Minutes of the fast meeting and letters were read by secretary Mrs. G. Young. A nominating committee was set up: Mrs. Mow at as convener and Mrs. Force and Mrs. Holmes, assisting.

Miss Mainprize, world affairs convener, gave a brief outline on Laxler Island and the group of Canadian scientists who are on the island to survey the 1,200 inhabitants to obtain data on their way of life and the kinds of disease which may have affected them, living outside civilization for more than 700 years.

Miss Clark also read an article on the subject written by Hilda West, suggesting that the people of Easter Island should fight off the researchers and those who invade the island, and preserve their own civilization.

At the close of the meeting Mrs.

Lidkea showed beautiful colored slides and gave a commentary on their recent trip to Canada's west coast.

After a green Christmas, snow blanketed southern Ontario Saturday. Children were out with their new sports equipment despite the driving snow.

It was really a green Christmas for Glenn Banks, a Y's Men's Club member who was just married. He discovered, when he arrived home after Christmas, his lawn banked with all the untried Christmas trees from the lot at the Y.M.C.A.
