Modified Mayhem

Ridics Drop Front Running Flyers

Sunday's industrial hockey league doubleheader reverted back to the law of the jungle twice this week, once in each contest. In what league president Ed Phillips called "football on skates" warriors from both sides dropped their sticks, doffed gloves, and went at one another with fists. Result was a pair of game misconducts in the second contest, a match penalty and a major for slashing in the opener.

Up Allen's Alley
When it came to playing hockey Cardinals, spurred by a spectacular eight goal scoring performance by pedagogic Keith Allen, whopped short handed Riders 12-4.

The big upset of the week however, was Laided Ridiculous 4-2 win over front running Flyers, the first entry in the win column for Ridics this season, although they have a tie against the same team. It was the first loss for Flyers this semester.

Cards Shuffle
There was never any doubt of the outcome in the first game as Red Birds stormed into goalie Bob Sheppard's bastion. Besides Keith Allen's eight — count them eight — goals, Barber, Jim McDonald, Gary Ritchie and Fred Andrews notched a goal apiece. Jim McDonald also collected three assists. Barber, Ritchie, Fred Currie, Bob Bruce and Tom Oakley one each.

Ted Fottitt rapped in a pair for the losers as well as assisting on one. Barry Innesco rammed one past Wayne Cassman and assisted on two while Barry Wilson drilled their fourth counter. Ten penalties imposed by Dan Arbis and Steve Townsley, officials, included a match penalty to Ron Sheppard and a major to Fred Currie for slashing.

Bullough Bags Three
Flyers took a 3-0 lead in the second game on a goal by Don Lindsay from Harry Phillips' and Wayne Sheppard but Ridiculous came right back with back-to-back markers from the stick of Jim Bullough to pull ahead for keeps. Harold Watson and Gary Masales assisted on both counters.

Gary Masales put Ridics ahead 3-1 from Harold Watson but Flyers reduced the margin when K. Tuck found the target assisted by Don Lindsay. Insurance came in the form of Jim Bullough's third marker of the night from Harold Watson again, and winners had their first victory of the season, a well deserved one. Bantished in the 12 penalty at fair for indulging in a preliminary to the Chuvaleo Patterson bout were league bad boy John Cunningham and Al Holmes. Both got game misconducts from referees Ches, Peccha and George Williamson. The game was relatively quiet until the third period donnybrook. Then seven more penalties were assessed.

International Contest Impresses Both Sides

The score didn't reflect the play as the visiting Detroit Mid gets trounced Acton's Midget All Stars 10-2 in an international exhibition at the community centre Saturday afternoon. A quartet of the NHL Red Wings the Detroiters were trounced the night before by Guelph Midgets.

Division champs in a nine team league, the visitors showed an ability to put the puck in the net while the Acton club displayed weakness from the blue line. A new team formed this year the Detroit club has scored 68 times and had only eight goals scored against goalie Dennis Dolner in 15 league games so the Acton team, reinforced by some Bantams, didn't do too badly against them.

Four for Lake
Bobby Lake, the visitors' top scorer, a 22 goal, eight assist player sparked Detroit to the win with four markers while Dick Dunville notched three, Dave Malcolmson, Bob Pite and Mike Turner got one apiece.

Jim Barden poited one of the Acton goals from Gerry Ockenden with Allan McKenzie rapping in the other from Ken Maltby.

International relations were slightly strained in the contest by the nine penalties imposed, but the Detroit visitors were impressed with the refereeing of Barry Innesco, Gary Masales and Danny Arbis. They also complimented the community centre management on the condition of the ice. They have yet to play on a better sheet of ice.

Junior B's
Two of the visitors, defense man Ron Cheslow and Mike Weaver, are ticketed for berths on Detroit's Junior B' club. Coach Lindstrom and manager Kim Weaver piloted a midget team to the national championships last year. The club won 72 consecutive games! Acton coach Ilio Marzo and manager Gary Ockenden traded notes with the visitors.

Acton Minor Hockey Association president Doc Harkley arranged the game in conjunction with Minor Hockey Week and the mothers of the local team arranged for a lunch afterwards.

Curling Cues

Bill Toth's rink came up with two fine wins in three starts to give prestige to the annual pilgrimage of Acton rinks which travelled to last Monday's "Farmers' Bonspiel" in Mount Forest. Minus one regular, Bob Armstrong, for whom Sam Brunelle made a dandy substitute, the crew of Toth, Fyle, Somerville and George Sargent, etc., came through with a smashing victory in the opener, dropped the second game, and then came back in the closing contest to win in a hard fought battle. However, they were a little shy on points to qualify for a prize.

The three other rinks from our fair town, entered in the early draw, and headed by Len Loeck, Bert Wood and Padre Andrew McKenzie were not quite so impressive, except in arts of camaraderie and witty conversation. Bert Wood's four some which included himself, Jack Kildes, Bunk Holmes as second and Fred Gordon at lead position, lost three contests, two by very close margins.

The Padre, held up by Gordon Cooper, John Goy and another famous curling "Sam", Sam Holmes, fought to a one-up win over Norm Treleven's Holstein rink in the first, but having given their all there, not quite enough was left to capture the other games, and Treleven got his own back with a 9-7 win over their rivals in the final stanza.

Len Lovell's brigade, the well-known "Butchers", dogged by irritating little problems, such as a balky car that refused to function en route to thespiel, lost to two fine rinks from Conn and Durham and then bounced back in the last game to overwhelm Plume's Mount Forest rink 12-4. They thus qualified for the consolation prize in the early draw, and quite appropriately to fellows who usually manage to "come up smelling like roses" they each brought home fifty pounds of lawn fertilizer.

All in all the sixteen Acton participants agreed this yearly visit to Mount Forest is a delightful experience, for the members genuinely live up to their club credo: "The curling club where you are a stranger only once."
