Show Interest Last Week To Form Acton Jaycees

The first organizational meeting for the new proposed unit of the Jaycees was held Monday, January 25, at the residence of Roy Hawkins, Churchill Rd. Several enthusiastic young men were present to find out the basics of Jaycee organization and its aim.

Clayton Porteous, president of the Oakville Jaycees, outlined the organization right down from Jaycee international through national, provincial, district and local levels. Different projects were outlined by Wm. Oates, an Oakville Jaycee vice president. The local young men present were very eager to find out which projects would be visible and most beneficial to Acton to start working on.

John Munro, a director of the Oakville Jaycees, explained how the Ledge's I.G.A. voucher, The Coca-Cola, Reinhardt's and Seven-Up refreshments were won by Thomas Gray Ellis, Brian Dunn, Lynda Harris and Gord Morris.

In the Eastern Canada Five Pin Championship Zone, Rolloffs, Ivy Martin, Eileen Grant, Verna Arbie and Joan Knight will be bowling two five game blocks in Oakville, February 14. First block goes at 1 p.m. at the Hopdale Lanes and the second at 7 p.m. at the Oaktown Lanes. Then men - Jim Bullock, Don DeForest, Bill Shannon and Geo. Langstreet - will be bowling a 10 game block at the Howlaway Lanes in Galt, starting at 10 a.m.

That winds it up, my friends, so adios amigos, and good night, Dale City.

Outside Judges Handle Duties

Two judges from outside the county are handling the bench duties in Halton County Court House, following the death on January 6 of Halton's Judge George Elliott. To date, there is no word from Justice Minister Guy Favreau on an appointment to fill the vacant position.

Judge F. Castello of Kitchener handled court duties for the past two weeks, and this week Judge W. A. Maedel of Fergus is in Halton. The new Judge will hold federal, provincial and county titles, and his appointment is expected to be announced this month by the federal justice minister.

Blue Springs Nursery

Jan. 26: Daffodils took a fall out of the frost-running Blue Bells with a two and totals win. Daffodils took the first by seven pins, dropped the second by six, then barreled home in the third. Jill McLaren came up with a 308 solo for Daffodils. Janet Spires 200 and Betty Hardie 215 singled for Blue Bells. Here's one for the book - Marigolds lost all games to Hollyhocks, yet wound up with totals. Happened this way. Marigolds forfeited the first game through being short-handed. In the second, by one pin, dropped the third, yet got enough pins mathematically to win totals by 13 pins. It's complicated, but that's what the score sheets say and figures don't lie. The result was six points for Hollyhocks and one point for Chrysanthemums. Individual points for Marigolds: Joan Kennedy 216 and Cheryl Phillips 238 had singles. For Hollyhocks, Betty Armstrong 218 was the soloist.

League standing: Blue Bells 76, Marigolds 61, Daffodils 59, Hollyhocks 53.

June Cathcart 225, Jim Kelman 233, Elmer White 202 and Crans Griens had the Luckies' solos. Buzzers buzzed to good effect for a two and totals win from Monsters, with Earl Waller posting a 229 single. Joan Knight 655, Pat Dick 628, Chris Jensen 213 and Nora Buschmeyer 236 were on the triple and single plateaus for Monsters. Beales were beat in the first by Snappers, then Snappers snapped up the next two and totals, to move up for a share of fourth spot. Bill Vivian 203-256 and Bill Inglis 213-singled for Beales. Snappers failed to hit the mentionables.

League standing: Twisters 79, Monsters 69, Lucky Strikes 66, Buzzers 62, Snappers 62, Beales 61.
